Courts of Love, Castles of Hate Aubrey Burl, 2011-11-08 The figure of the Troubadour combines the ideals of knighthood with the inspiration of the poet and musician and created a cultural explosion which influenced the whole course of Western art and civilisation Burl traces the story from the birth of the first Troubadour in 1071 to the execution of the last Cathar Good Man in 1231 and the close of the distinctive southern French culture that had given rise to it The tale incorporates the Crusades to the Holy Lands and the Albigensian Crusades through the Languedoc and the regular incursions from the English In telling his story of the Troubadours and their song he brings to life the world of medieval Languedoc The author is acknowledged as an authority on the Troubadours one of the most evocative subjects in history

Studies in Scholasticism Marcia L. Colish, 2024-10-28 Spanning thirty years the papers brought together in this volume reflect three of Professor Colish s interests as a historian of medieval scholastic thought The first group of studies represent investigations that flowed into and out of the research on Peter Lombard d 1161 and his contemporaries that culminated in her book Peter Lombard 1994 Following the publication of that work she next sought to discover how Peter s theology became mainstream Paris theology in the period between Lombard s death and the early 13th century resulting in the second group of papers in this collection Finally the last two papers offer reflections on broader interpretive issues considering ways in which medievalists ought to reconsider their general understanding of the story lines of high medieval intellectual history
