Lost Tombs:

The Lost Tombs of Saqqara Alain-Pierre Zivie, 2007 Located south of Cairo Saqqara the principal necropolis of Memphis is a privileged site in Egyptian history There Egyptian and foreign Egyptologists have made many discoveries in particular French archaeologists Auguste Mariette Gaston Maspero and Victor Loret in the past Jean Philippe Lauer who passed away at the dawn of his one hundredth year 2001 and in these last decades Jean Leclant founder of the French Archaeological Mission of Saqqara In this distinguished line of egyptologists Alain Zivie and his team of the French Archaeological Mission of the Bubasteion have spent the last twenty five years examining from the sands of Saqqara a major New Kingdom cemetery that was later transformed into catacombs of cats They have brought to light the tomb of the vizier Aper El with its burial treasure and those of the painter Thothmes of Maia the foster mother of Tutankhamun of an ambassador of Ramesses II of the scribe of the Aten treasury in Memphis and of others as well Presenting the archaeological historical and artistic consequences of these investigations and these discoveries the egyptologist here takes an approach that is sensitive to an authentic scientific adventure To do this he also uses and comments on a long series of beautiful photographs by Patrick Chapuis in which we discover the works and the days as well as the joys of an entire team BOOK JACKET Searching for the Lost Tombs of Egypt Chris Naunton, 2019-09-24 An exciting archeological exploration of ancient Egypt that examines the potential for discovering the remaining lost tombs of the pharaohs Tombs mummies and funerary items make up a significant portion of the archeological remains that survive ancient Egypt and have come to define the popular perception of Egyptology Despite the many sensational discoveries in the last century such as the tomb of Tutankhamun the tombs of some of the most famous individuals in the ancient world Imhotep Nefertiti Alexander the Great and Cleopatra have not yet been found Archeologist Chris Naunton examines the famous pharaohs their achievements the bling they might have been buried with the circumstances in which they were buried and why those circumstances may have prevented archeologists from finding these tombs In Searching for the Lost Tombs of Egypt Naunton sheds light on the lives of these ancient Egyptians and makes an exciting case for the potential discovery of these lost tombs Lost Tombs Manniche, 2014-02-24 First published in 1988 The Theban private tombs form a major source for our knowledge of Egyptian society Ostensibly a great amount of work has been done in the necropolis over the past one hundred and sixty years of its modern history and the bibliography for this area is among the most extensive in Egyptology Many of the 415 or so decorated tombs have received a full publication but for a great number only selected scenes have been made available and a surprising amount remains to all intents and purposes unpublished The present study is concerned with a number of painted tombs of the Eighteenth dynasty which were visited by the early travellers but the exact location of which is now unknown The careful drawings and tracings made by these pioneers are apparently all that remains to show the appearance of these tombs Some of the scenes represented are not found elsewhere in the necropolis and others have special points of interest or unique details linguistic iconographic and religious to offer This very important material has not previously been used by scholars and it has not been recognized that fragments of some of these vanished tombs can actually be traced to collections in museums and elsewhere
