epicentre of motorcycling for a moment in history and details how the major races of the 70s were won and lost It also uncovers the fascinating story behind the birth of the world's first Superbike series that went global This book is tribute to the 1970s and how it shaped motorcycle racing in Australia and the world Enjoy the ride Melbourne Cup 1930 Geoff Armstrong, Peter Thompson, 19?? Phar Lap's assault on the Melbourne Cup generated unprecedented excitement across the country At the same time it filled many bookmakers with dread a victory for the favourite would cost them plenty He'd have to be stopped whatever the cost For the newspapers the twin stories of sporting greatness and seedy corruption were a sensational cocktail Readers lapped it up while for the poor punters suffering during the Great Depression a Phar Lap triumph was their best hope of turning one quid into two Melbourne Cup 1930 is the story of four days in November that became at the same time the most famous and infamous in Cup history It began with a gunman like something out of a Chicago gangster movie apparently trying to kill Phar Lap on a quiet suburban street With his life in danger and those closest to him terrified the champion was spirited away to a secret location while one of the city's most celebrated detectives searched for the culprits Meanwhile the other horses owners trainers and jockeys were preparing for the biggest race of their lives Their many diverse stories and the memories they invoke of Cups gone by are an integral part of this unique tale An hour before the jump Phar Lap's whereabouts remained a mystery Finally he arrived at Flemington to go almost immediately to the start as a huge crowd cheered him on The police had been told to put men down the back of the track in case the gunman tried one last time but they now believed that the original assassination attempt might not have been all that it seemed Nothing it appears could stop Phar Lap now Shannon Jessica Owers, 2014 The extraordinary life of Australia's first international racehorse from creating new records in Australia to his life in California where he won the Hollywood Gold Cup In wartime Sydney a small and weedy racehorse kicked his way through the top tier of Australian racing He was Shannon one of the fastest horses the nation had ever seen Between 1943 and 1947 Shannon broke record after record with his garrulous jockey Darby Munro When they sensationally lost the Epsom Handicap by six inches they forever were stamped by the race they didn't win Sold in August 1947 for the highest price ever paid at auction for an Australian thoroughbred Shannon ended up in America Through headline snatching pedigree flaws acclimatization and countless hardships he blitzed across the ritzy glitzy racetracks of 1948 California Smashing track records world records and records set by Seabiscuit the Australian bolted into world fame with speed and courage that defied all odds Long before Black Caviar So You Think and Takeover Target Shannon was Australia's first international racehorse Starring Hall of Fame trainers and jockeys Hollywood lawyers and legends Bernborough and Citation this is his tremendous story The Big Book of Australian Racing Stories Jim Haynes, 2015-11-18 The ultimate collection of great racing stories told in Jim Haynes's inimitable style Jim Haynes Australia's favourite tale teller loves the sport of kings as much as he loves Aussie yarns and bush verse From country picnic tracks to the thoroughbred racecourses of Sydney Brisbane and Melbourne from Archer to Black Caviar from the mysterious punter Louis the Possum to the great trainer Bart Cummings he brings these two great loves together in the biggest book of Australian racing stories ever In these stories full of the humour and romance of the track Jim reminds us of the great champions the tragedies and the unique characters equine and human of racing Here are stories of famous races and jockeys touts and urgers nose to nose battles and a rort or two as well as country race meeting where anything can happen This rich collection captures the heart and soul of the turf and reminds us exactly why a day at the races and having a punt are such an important part of the Australian spirit

Peter Pan Jessica Owers,2011-10-26 A wonderful forgotten racing story set in The Great Depression In 1932 they said there would never be another Phar Lap Yet within months there came a racehorse so wildly brilliant that he was instantly compared to the dead champion He was Peter Pan Within months of Phar Lap s death Peter Pan had won the Melbourne Cup and then two years later won it again the first horse in 72 years to take home a second The newspapers of the day called him a superhorse and declared another Phar Lap takes the stage But over the long years Australia forgot their new champion Peter Pan The Forgotten Story of Phar Lap s Successor is the tale of the horse that came next the brilliant speedy Peter Pan Casting off the shadow of Phar Lap this tells the story of triumph during the Great Depression and the coming of a champion when Australia least expected one It is time to restore the standing of our other great racing hero
