

Notes to the Reader

Before beginning, I must make a note on terminology throughout the thesis. This thesis utilizes first names when referring to any main figure, such as Ben, Virginia, Sage, Kamal, and Vida. Also, the restaurant “Ben’s Chili Bowl” will hereby be referred to as “the Chili Bowl” to maintain a distinction between the person Ben and the restaurant. Additionally, the term “IndoTrinidad[ian]” is featured throughout the thesis. I intentionally chose not to hyphenate the term, as it reflects a blending of two cultures rather than a break or conforming of one culture to another. Lastly, when referring to blackness, I capitalize “Black” only when alluding to a person, otherwise terms like “black community” and “blackness” are lowercase.

Throughout the thesis, I include photographs of main characters and events. These images are intended to illustrate the history of Ben and his Chili Bowl. The thesis features eleven images total.

Routledge Revivals: The Violence of Language (1990) Jean-Jacques Lecercle,2016-09-19 First published in 1990 this book argues that any theory of language constructs its object by separating relevant from irrelevant phenomena excluding the latter This leaves a remainder which consists of the untidy creative part of how language is used the essence of poetry and metaphor Although this remainder can never be completely formalised it must be fully recognised by any true account of language and thus this book attempts the first theory of the remainder As such whether it is language or the speaker who speaks is dealt with leading to an analysis of how all speakers are violently constrained in their use of language by social and psychological realities voluntary organizations over the past hundred years Louis Brenner uncovers the social and political processes that have produced new forms definitions and expressions of Islam that are patently different from those that prevailed a century earlier Brenner s study shows that Muslim society in Mali is religiously pluralistic and that it has developed different ways of relating religious obligations to prevailing social and political conditions Although they were heavily influenced by French and Middle Eastern models Brenner demonstrates that it was in opposition to French colonial authority that the first m dersas and voluntary associations appeared The complex array of power relations within which these institutions evolved under French colonial rule and in the postcolonial secularist state is revealed in this thoughtful book Controlling Knowledge makes a major contribution to our understanding of Muslim history in Mali and West Africa both in recent decades and over the long term
