Five Meditations on Death François Cheng, 2016-06-16 Philosophical discussions on the ways that death makes life meaningful and sacred Reveals how being conscious of death gives our fate its full meaning inviting the reader to contemplate life in the light of their own death Examines the author's experience of ancestor worship in his native China and the beliefs that underlie it Explains how death is a transition in a longer living process not visible from the modern black and white view of life and death Translated by award winning translator Jody Gladding Born from intimate discussions with friends these five meditations on death from poet philosopher François Cheng examine the multiple ways the prospect of death significantly shapes life and is in fact what makes life meaningful and sacred Written at the age of 84 in the twilight of life these meditations each approach the human understanding of death from different yet intertwined perspectives effortlessly returning to certain themes and ideas questioning them again more deeply with each passing The author shows that death is a transition in a longer living process not visible from the modern black and white view of life and death He examines his experience of ancestor worship in his native China and the beliefs that underlies it Our ancestors are alive in another form that what is living can never die and what is dead has never lived Cheng looks at the consequences of a world that has abandoned the sacred and avoids the mention of death a world now blindly staggering through the chaos it has created yet which can return to balance if we once again embrace the essential sacredness of life as well as death Throughout these five heart baring meditations Cheng invites us to contemplate life in the light of our own death He reveals that to be conscious of death gives our fate its full meaning

Reconstructing the Confucian Dao Joseph A. Adler, 2014-03-27 Zhu Xi the twelfth century architect of the neo Confucian canon declared Zhou Dunyi to be the first true sage since Mencius This was controversial as many of Zhu Xi's contemporaries were critical of Zhou Dunyi's Daoist leanings and other figures had clearly been more significant to the Song dynasty Confucian resurgence Why was Zhou Dunyi accorded such importance Joseph A Adler finds that the earlier thinker provided an underpinning for Zhu Xi's religious practice Zhou Dunyi's theory of the interpenetration of activity and stillness allowed Zhu Xi to proclaim that his own theory of mental and spiritual cultivation mirrored the fundamental principle immanent in the natural world This book revives Zhu Xi as a religious thinker challenging longstanding characterizations of him Readers will appreciate the inclusion of complete translations of Zhou Dunyi's major texts Zhu Xi's published commentaries and other primary source material
