Sacred Place The Ancient Origin Of Holy And Mystical Sites:

The Sacred Place Paul Devereux, 2000 A unique presentation of why our ancestors perceived certain locations and landscapes as being powerful holy or places where they felt their spirits or deity were located or housed Earth Frequency Melissa Alvarez, 2025-08-05 Connect with Spiritual Energy in the Natural World Deepen your connection to the world around you expand your consciousness and grow spiritually by actively engaging with the earth's energy This groundbreaking book presents the various forms of earth frequency and how working with this energy leads to amazing improvements in your happiness self confidence and spirituality Melissa Alvarez becomes your personal tour guide to 250 power places and sacred sites all over the world from Antelope Canyon in Arizona to Mount Olympus in Greece Earth Frequency lets you explore many unique and interesting locations that are overflowing with the positivity of the planet's energy You'll also discover visualizations and exercises designed to increase your intuition and open you to the dynamic power of a place Featuring nine maps and location keys for major geographical areas as well as detailed information on the earth's chakra system this book will broaden your horizons and transform your nature based practice The Generation of Life Michael A. Susko, 2020-10-15 This work explores the meaning of imagery found on rocks especially from deep caves of the paleolithic era It approaches the problem of interpretation by focusing on a key concept that art and ritual generate life A novel hypothesis is also offered that creativity emerges from a tension between chaotic elements and more formed shapes Past interpretive frames statistical studies and indigenous parallels are summoned to examine these archetypal expressions We invite you to explore indigenous imagery as an adventure that opens up your own spiritual dimension and earliest roots Ecomysticism Carl von Essen, 2010-10-19 Explores the philosophy science and spirituality of nature mysticism and its Green calling Offers a solid bridge between spiritual practice and environmental activism Reveals how we can heal the environment by renewing our connection to it Shows how spiritual encounters in nature are healing the Nature Deficit Disorder of our psyches and bodies Many have been struck by a majestic moment in nature a sole illuminated flower in a shady grove an owl swooping silently across a wooded path or an infinitely starry sky and found themselves in a state of expanded awareness so profound they can feel the interconnectedness of all life These trance like moments of clarity unity and wonder often incite a call to protect and preserve the earth to support Nature as she supports us Termed nature mysticism people from all cultures have described such experiences However the ever increasing urbanization of the world's population is threatening this ancient connection as well as the earth itself In Ecomysticism Carl von Essen explores nature mysticism through the recorded experiences of outdoor enthusiasts as well as scientific studies in biology psychology and neuroscience Citing consciousness scholar William James and a variety of well known nature lovers such as Ansel Adams Henry David Thoreau and Ralph Waldo Emerson von Essen shows how the spiritual transcendence from an encounter in nature like other mystical experiences is healing the Nature Deficit Disorder of our psyches and bodies leading to an expansion of our worldview and a clearer understanding of our self and of our natural world Offering a solid bridge between spiritual practice and environmental activism von Essen s spiritual ecology reveals how only through a renewal of humanity s spiritual connection to nature can we effect true environmental healing

A Place More Void Paul Kingsbury, Anna J. Secor, 2021-02 This collection presents geography s most in depth and sustained engagements with the void to date demonstrating the extent to which related themes such as gaps cracks lacks and emptiness perforate geography s fundamental concepts practices and passions

Extraordinary Knowing Elizabeth Lloyd Mayer, 2008-02-26 In 1991 when her daughter s rare hand carved harp was stolen Lisby Mayer s familiar world of science and rational thinking turned upside down After the police failed to turn up any leads a friend suggested she call a dowser a man who specialized in finding lost objects With nothing to lose and almost as a joke Dr Mayer agreed Within two days and without leaving his Arkansas home the dowser located the exact California street coordinates where the harp was found Deeply shaken yet driven to understand what had happened Mayer began the fourteen year journey of discovery that she recounts in this mind opening brilliantly readable book Her first surprise the dozens of colleagues who d been keeping similar experiences secret for years fearful of being labeled credulous or crazy Extraordinary Knowing is an attempt to break through the silence imposed by fear and to explore what science has to say about these and countless other inexplicable phenomena From Sigmund Freud s writings on telepathy to secret CIA experiments on remote viewing from leading edge neuroscience to the strange world of quantum physics Dr Mayer reveals a wealth of credible and fascinating research into the realm where the mind seems to trump the laws of nature She does not ask us to believe Rather she brings us a book of profound intrigue and optimism with far reaching implications not just for scientific inquiry but also for the ways we go about living in the world

Ecopoetics and the Global Landscape Isabel Sobral Campos, 2018-12-27 Ecopoetics and the Global Landscape Critical Essays surveys ecopoetry from a global perspective across different historical epochs Its comparative approach foregrounds the importance of ecopoetics within the context of distinct national literatures and cultures to reveal the ubiquitous intersection of poetry with ecocriticism The collection analyzes environmental problems resulting from the legacies of colonialism and focuses on issues of environmental justice and indigenous issues as well as on the intersection of genocide studies and environmentalism It also examines ecologically informed modes of relating to the world In particular it engages with interactions between the human and nonhuman as well as mind and matter Finally it broadens the scope of place to include both the absent land of exiled peoples and the urban built environment

Sublime Spaces and Visionary Worlds Leslie Umberger, 2007-10-04 The need to personalize our surroundings is a defining human characteristic For some this need becomes a compulsion to transform their personal surroundings into works of art The John Michael Kohler Arts Center in Sheboygan Wisconsin has undertaken the mission to preserve these environments which are presented for the first time in Sublime Spaces and Visionary Worlds This colorful and inspiring book features the work of twenty two vernacular artists whose locales personal histories and reasons for art making vary widely but who all share a powerful connection to the home as art Featured projects range from art environments that remain intact such as Simon Rodia's Watts Towers in California to sites lost over the years such as Emery Blagdon's six hundred elaborate Healing Machines made of copper aluminum tinfoil magnets ribbons farm machinery parts painted light bulbs beads coffee can lids and more Sublime Spaces and Visionary Worlds is the first book to explore these spectacularly offbeat spaces in detail From Original Rhinestone Cowboy Loy Bowlin's wall to wall glitter and foil living room to the concrete bestiary of witch of Fox Point Mary Nohl each artist and project is described in detail through a wealth of visuals and text Sublime Spaces and Visionary Worlds reminds us that our decorative choices tell the world not just what we like but who we are Integral Ecology Sean Esbjorn-Hargens, Ph.D., Michael E. Zimmerman, Ph.D., 2011-03-08 Today there is a bewildering diversity of views on ecology and the natural environment With more than two hundred distinct and valuable perspectives on the natural world and with scientists economists ethicists activists philosophers and others often taking completely different stances on the issues how can we come to agreement to solve our toughest environmental problems In response to this pressing need Integral Ecology unites valuable insights from multiple perspectives into a comprehensive theoretical framework one that can be put to use right now The framework is based on Integral Theory as well as Ken Wilber's AQAL model and is the result of over a decade of research exploring the myriad perspectives on ecology available to us today and their respective methodologies Dozens of real life applications and examples of this framework currently in use are examined including three in depth case studies work with marine fisheries in Hawaii i strategies of eco activists to protect Canada's Great Bear Rainforest and a study of community development in El Salvador In addition eighteen personal practices of transformation are provided for you to increase your own integral ecological awareness Integral Ecology provides the most sophisticated application and extension of Integral Theory available today and as such it serves as a template for any truly integral effort

Cultural and Heritage Tourism in the Middle East and North Africa Siamak Seyfi, C. Michael Hall, 2020-09-28 This is the first book to provide a comprehensive account of cultural and heritage tourism in the Middle East and North Africa MENA region and the many complexities that heritage sites and tourist attractions face The MENA region has long been regarded as the cradle of Western and Arab civilisation and is the home of many of the world's major religions Because of this the region is rich in heritage sites that serve as major tourist attractions and as icons of national cultural and religious identity However as this book examines heritage in the region is simultaneously highly contested and has even become a target for terrorism creating a situation that brought major challenges for heritage management and sustainable tourism development Many of the region's innumerable cultural sites are threatened in some cases by overuse in others by neglect and in many simply by the pressures of economic development This book is therefore of interest not only to heritage managers and policy makers but those academics who seek to address the delicate balance between tourism development communities and the tourists who visit such sites in a turbulent but highly significant region of the world Sacred Earth Martin Gray, 2007 Twenty years of photographs by photographer and anthropologist Martin Gray Accompanying each
