Sacred Song of the Hermit Thrush Tehanetorens, David Fadden, 2020-08-19 Long ago when the birds had no songs only man could sing When the Great Spirit walked on the Earth he noticed a great silence He realized the birds had no songs He devised a challenge and told the birds who ever could fly the highest would receive a very beautiful song But not all the birds were honest In his desire to win the game the small hermit thrush jumped on the back of the great eagle The eagle flew higher than any of the birds but when he came back to land the Great Spirit said the hermit thrush had gone the highest since he was on eagle s back Hermit Thrush was awarded a beautiful song but in his shame for not being honest he flew into the deep woods To this day you may hear the lovely song of the hermit thrush but you may not ever see him Sacred

Comprising the Mohawk Oneida Onondaga Cayuga Seneca and Tuscarora nations citizens of the Six Nations Confederacy collectively refer to themselves as Haudenosaunee which means we build the house Theresa McCarthy critiques settler colonial narratives of Haudenosaunee decline used to rationalize land theft and political subjugation In particular McCarthy illustrates that current efforts to discredit the reclamation continue to draw on the flawed characterizations of Haudenosaunee tradition factionalism and failed self government popularized by conventional scholarship about the Iroquois Countering these narratives of decline and failure McCarthy argues that the 2006 reclamation ushered in an era of profound intellectual and political resurgence at Six Nations propelled by the contributions of Haudenosaunee women Centering Haudenosaunee intellectual traditions In Divided Unity provides an important new model for community based activism and scholarship Through the active practice and adaptation of ancient teachings and philosophies McCarthy shows that the Grand River Haudenosaunee are continuing to successfully meet the challenges of reclaiming their land political autonomy and control of their future Basic Call to Consciousness Akwesasne Notes ,2021-12-24 Representatives of the Six Nation Iroquois delivered three position papers titled The Haudenosaunee Address to the Western World at a conference on Discrimination Against the Indigenous Populations of the Americas held in Geneva Switzerland in 1977 hosted by Non Governmental Organizations at the United Nations in Geneva Switzerland in 1977 This document is presented in its entirety Contributions by John Mohawk Chief Oren Lyons and Jose Barreiro give added depth and continuity to this important work
