up With Jesus Wanda Lynch, 2009-02-27 Saddle Up With Jesus is a book about life touched by the Master's hand. Most of the poems are centered around a cowboy on a cattle drive, his experiences and his conversation with the father about them. They describe him praising his heavenly father, faith in his miraculous power, spending quiet time with him and sharing him with others. Last but not least, the poems describe living with Jesus. They touch on the Bible, different people, church, sorrow, times of testing, cowboy gear and heaven. All of them are pictures in words of our daily ride through life with Jesus. Finally, the last poem in the book is a sharing of how some people in the world view our heavenly father. The title of the poem is 'What Would I Do Without Jesus'. I don't know the answer to the question, nor do I want to know the answer; I always want to be found in the saddle with Jesus.

National Cowboy Poetry Gathering Western Folklife Center, 2014-04-01 The National Cowboy Poetry Gathering is the granddaddy of all cowboy poetry events, proclaimed by the US Senate in 2000 in recognition of its pioneering role in the preservation and revitalization of this important American tradition. In conjunction with the 30th anniversary of the event, this commemorative volume collects 100 poems by various cowboy poets who have appeared at the gathering over the last three decades, from Baxter Black and Wallace McRae to Georgie Sicking and Paul Zarzyski. Representing the best contemporary cowboy poetry from the first gathering to the present, the poets and poems are culled for their importance and quality, with consideration for a wide range of topics that represent the richness and depth of this broad genre. In addition to poems that will make you smile, sigh or sit up straight in your saddle, the anthology features expressive photos of the contributors, biographical and explanatory headnotes, relevant artwork from the Western Folklife Center's extensive archives, and illuminating sidebars on various topics such as working cattle, life on the land, the relationship between cowboy poetry and song, gear, horses or cattle mentioned in poems, and profiles and photos of important cowboy poets from earlier times. Cowboy poet extraordinaire Baxter Black will provide a foreword, and Charlie Seemann, executive director of the Western Folklife Center, will write an introduction that gives context both to the event itself and to cowboy poetry in general, from the days of the trail drives in the nineteenth century to the lives of the hardworking men and women who still ranch and live on the land in the West today.
