Saddle The Wind:

Elmer Bernstein's The Magnificent Seven Mariana Whitmer, 2017-05-31 Released in late 1960 The Magnificent Seven was a Western reimagining of the 1954 Japanese film Seven Samurai Despite such stars as Steve McQueen Yul Brynner and Charles Bronson the film was not terribly successful when it premiered However in the years since the film has become recognized as a classic of the genre And though the movie received only one Academy Award nomination that honor was bestowed on Elmer Bernstein's rousing score Beyond the scope of the film the score has permeated American culture the music has been used in countless commercials and referenced on television shows like Cheers and The Simpsons But what makes this score so memorable In Elmer Bernstein's The Magnificent Seven A Film Score Guide Mariana Whitmer examines the creation and development of one of the most iconic soundtracks in the history of cinema Whitmer explores the significance of the familiar score through a variety of lenses first delving into the background of Elmer Bernstein and his emergence as one of the key composers of the Silver Age of film music The author then traces Bernstein's early musical endeavors and considers why he was attracted to Americana music which particularly influenced his scoring of The Magnificent Seven The book also summarizes Bernstein's early Western scores noting that although they are clearly in the mainstream of the genre's musical style they are also enhanced by Bernstein's own distinctive touches Providing unique insights into the creation of this iconic score which was deemed one of the ten greatest film scores of all time by the American Film Institute this book explains what makes this music so enduring Elmer Bernstein's The Magnificent Seven A Film Score Guide will be of interest to cinema and music scholars in general as well as to fans of film music and the work of one of Hollywood's finest composers

Western Film Highlights Henryk Hoffmann, 2015-07-11 Westerns may have had their heyday but they remain popular The greatest films from 1914 when The Squaw Man and The Virginian were among the genre's best through 2001 when American Outlaws and Texas Rangers were tops are the subject of this work For each year the author names the outstanding western films in the following categories picture screenplay original and adaptation direction cinematography music male and female leading roles and male and female supporting roles Also for each year the author lists the westerns that received Academy Award nominations and those that won makes note of the births and deaths of notable actors directors producers composers cinematographers authors and other such personalities and describes the genre's significant achievements

Monthly Weather Review, 1924 Saddle the Wind Jess Foley, 2010 Go Slow Michael Owen, 2017-07-01 It has been said that the records of singer and actress Julie London were purchased for their provocative full color cover photographs as frequently as they were for the music contained in their grooves During the 1950s and 60s her piercing blue eyes strawberry blonde hair and shapely figure were used to sell the world an image of cool sexuality The contrast between image and reality the public and the private is at the heart of Julie London's story Through years of research extensive interviews with family friends and musical associates and access to rarely seen or heard archival material author Michael Owen reveals the impact of her image on the direction of her career and how it influenced the choices she made including the ultimate decision to walk away from performing Go Slow follows Julie London's life and career through its many stages her transformation from 1940s movie starlet to coolly defiant singer of the classic torch ballad Cry Me a River of the 50s and her journey from Las Vegas hotel entertainer during the rock n roll revolution of the 60s to the no nonsense nurse of the 70s hit television series Emergency Screen Savers II: My Grab Bag of Classic Movies

John Dileo, 2015-04-19 Screen Savers II is John DiLeo's three part grab bag of classic movies beginning with his extensive essays about ten remarkable and underappreciated movies as in the first Screen Savers and representing a variety of genres and stars such as Barbara Stanwyck James Stewart Ginger Rogers and DiLeo favorite Joel McCrea Part Two collects and categorizes posts from DiLeo's classic film blog screensaversmovies.com containing his musings on classics revisited sleepers and stinkers films old and new plus his memorial tributes to Hollywood notables Part Three might be called a delayed bonus round to DiLeo's 1999 quiz book with all new matching quizzes Can you identify the films in which a character writes a book titled Hummingbird Hill Fred Astaire dances with Betty Hutton a character named Sean Regan is important but never seen

Wild with Child Jennifer Bové, 2010-05-25 Wild with Child is a unique collection of true stories by parents who boldly head out into the wilderness with kids in tow or in the lead as the case may be These stories run the gamut of adventure winter camping climbing spelunking field research skiing llama trekking fishing hunting and searching for pirate treasure with children of all ages Readers should bundle up before they strike out into the Rocky Mountains with Mark Jenkins whose idea of quality time with the kids is camping in a snow cave Leslie Leyland Fields shares deep gratitude as her brood safely migrates to an Alaskan island by bush plane Maleesha Speer confides her personal evolution as she awakens to the wonder of her unborn child in bear country Whether just beginning the course of wild parenting or looking back at the trail they've taken these writers aren't willing to accept Disneyland as the final frontier Even the most civilized among them insist that their children grow up feeling grass between their toes and sun on their skin It's a healthy heritage giving kids a steady set of bearings making them strong and helping them rise to challenges Saddle the Wind Kate Irvine, 1990

Living with Grace Mark G. Boyer, 2025-09-11 The year 2027 marks the thirtieth anniversary of John Denver's death His spirituality was a way of life like biblical spirituality is the reader enters Denver's spirituality and biblical spirituality to reflect on ways one may live both together Denver's spirituality is based in nature and people He observed nature and thoughtfully interpreted his experiences of it recording his interpretations in lyrics and music Likewise after interpreting his relationships he recorded his thoughts in love songs Denver and biblical spirituality both begin with experience reflection upon it and a record of what the experience meant Biblical authors told stories recorded reflections narrated events or wrote psalms and poetry about their experiences This book compares chosen Denver themes to biblical themes and reflects on the parallel spirituality in an abecedarian format of sixty seven entries organized with 1 a title theme 2 a JD section explaining how Denver uses the theme to name his experience 3 a Scripture passage which illustrates the biblical use of the theme 4 a Meditation Journal exercise to guide the reader into meditating journaling to deepen the reader's spirituality and 5 a Psalm Response a few verses from a biblical psalm song that uses the theme in some way Canary Islands Mysteries

Run Into the Wind Lynn Hubbard,2010 Determined to take charge of her own life after her family is slaughtered before her eyes Sabrina Lovett heads west and disembarks from a train to start anew Hiding from her affluent brother she takes on the guise of a boy Everything is going well until the exasperating new sheriff comes to town Fast as the Wind Nat Gould,1918 Nathaniel Gould 21 December 1857 25 July 1919 commonly known as Nat Gould was a British novelist Gould was born at Manchester Lancashire the only surviving child of Nathaniel Gould a tea merchant and his wife Mary ne Wright Both parents came from Derbyshire yeomen families The boy was indulgently brought up and well educated His father died just before he was to have left school and Gould tried first his father s tea trade and then farming at Bradbourne with his uncles Gould became a good horseman but a poor farmer In 1877 in reply to an advertisement he was given a position on the Newark Advertiser gaining a good all round knowledge of press work After a few years he became restless and in 1884 sailed for Australia where he became a reporter on the Brisbane Telegraph in its shipping commercial and racing departments In 1887 after disagreements with the Telegraph management Gould went to Sydney and worked on the Referee as Verax its horse racing editor Later Gould worked for the Sunday Times and Evening News Then followed 18 months at Bathurst as the editor of the Bathurst Times during which time he wrote his first novel With the Tide which appeared as a serial in the Referee He returned to Sydney and the Referee and wrote another six other novels for the same paper In 1891 his first novel With the Tide was published in book form in England under the title of The Double Event and was an immediate success it sold over 100 000 copies in its first ten years and was still in print in 1919 It was dramatized in Australia and had a long run in 1893 In 1895 Gould returned to England he had been 11 years in Australia and he felt that his experiences had made a man of him Gould was a modest man who did not take himself or his work too seriously His advice to emerging writers was to write about men and things you have met and seen take your characters from the busy world and your scenes from Nature

But within its limits his work was very good He told a simple story exceedingly well in an unaffected way Many of his books were concerned with horse racing and no great originality of plot was to be expected but they were written with such flair and genuine interest that their countless readers took up each book as it was published confident in their belief that here was another rattling good story wikipedia org
