From Nothing To 90 Will Klein, 2024-09-23 In From Nothing to 90 Will Klein chronicles his life from hardscrabble beginnings as an adopted child in a Saskatchewan family struggling through the Dirty Thirties to early success as a newsboy and onto great business achievement despite numerous setbacks throughout his life In colourful humorous observant prose Will takes readers from Depression era Saskatchewan through his rise in business in the early days of television to his leadership in a storied public service organization that takes him around the world and into a whirlwind of political machinations that threatens to destroy him At its heart From Nothing to 90 is an inspiring story about Saskatchewan its history hardships and opportunities But it s also a book about individual initiative seizing opportunity and never giving up even after government betrayal and setbacks that might appear insurmountable      Manitoba Medicine Ian Carr, Robert E. Beamish, 1999-11-30 For many Canadians the state of our health care and medical system is at the top of the public agenda By following the growth and development of modern medicine in one Canadian province Manitoba Medicine provides an insight into where our present medical system came from and how it developed Beginning with a description of some early Aboriginal healing practices and of the physicians of the Red River Settlement Manitoba Medicine follows the struggles in the 1870s to establish what would become the first medical college and the first major hospitals in Western Canada It chronicles the fight for public health in the 1920s the development of health insurance and medicare after WWII and medicine s role in fighting the 1950 Winnipeg Flood and the polio epidemic of the late 1950s Manitoba Medicine also provides vivid accounts of many of the individuals who built Manitoba s medical system including early educators like Swale Vincent pioneering women physicians such as Charlotte Ross important researchers like Bruce Chown and colourful private practitioners such as Murrough O'Brien      St Mary's E.A. Heaman, 2003-05-08 Focusing on St Mary's hospital London's great teaching hospital and traditionally the pre eminent site for medical education in England E A Heaman traces the emergence of the modern scientific teaching hospital and the intellectual social and political forces shaping it Examining the social problems connected with health and the political debates around these problems at both the local parish level and on the national stage Heaman explains how and why hospitals like St Mary s originally charitable institutions for the poor began to admit middle class patients and eventually came under a national health insurance scheme     A History of Dentistry in Canada Donald W. Gullett,1971-12-15 Beginning with the earliest records available describing the dental health of the Indians before the arrival of European settlers Dr Gullett gives a detailed and carefully documented history of dentistry in Canada He describes the unscrupulous tramp dentists who roamed the countryside years ago as well as their respectable contemporaries and he traces the development of practice education and professional associations as dentistry developed from an art to a science The author spent five years gathering information for this book from public archives libraries personal interviews and the records of the profession The result is a lively and readable story told with a continuing concern for health services     Secondary Sources in the History of Canadian Medicine Charles G. nurses created divisions within nursing itself Focusing on the daily labours of ordinary nurses McPherson argues that the persisting sex typing of nursing as women s work has meant that gender consistently complicated nursing s easy categorization as either professional or proletariat Combining archival records and oral histories the author shows how nurses in their work activities and social and sexual attitudes sought recognition as skilled workers in the health care system Previously published by Oxford University Press      Community and Frontier John C. Lehr,2012-05-11 A social and economic history of one of the oldest Ukrainian settlements in Western Canada Established in 1896 the Stuartburn colony was one of the earliest Ukrainian settlements in western Canada Based on an analysis of government records pioneer memoirs and the Ukrainian and English language press Community and Frontier is a detailed examination of the social economic and geographical challenges of this unique ethnic community It reveals a complex web of inter ethnic and colonial relationships that created a community that was a far cry from the homogeneous ethnic block settlement feared by the opponents of eastern European immigration Instead ethnic relationships and attitudes transplanted from Europe affected the development of trade within the colony while Ukrainian religious factionalism and the predatory colonial attitudes of mainstream Canadian churches fractured the community and for decades contributed to social dysfunction      Brooklands, Winnipeg.
