

INTRODUCTION TO CRIMINOLOGY

LARGE GROUP 5

Student Guide

Sexuality and queer criminology

Context

This large group has links with Unit 1, where you considered issues such as criminalisation, decriminalisation, social harm, moralism and paternalism, and Unit 4, where you considered gender, feminist theories and the links between being a victim and being an offender. There are also links with moral panics, labelling and othering that we covered in Unit 2, and intersectionality that we covered in Unit 3.

We will be considering another criminological theory linked with gender- queer criminology. This is a form of critical criminology and it focuses on the experiences of LGBTQ+ people in the criminal justice system, both as victims and as offenders, and also provides a critique of how the law has been used to criminalise and oppress LGBTQ+ people.

We will be looking at these issues, particularly in relation to the development of the law on homosexuality over time and at issues relating to criminalisation and decriminalisation.

1. Queer criminology

1.1 problems with mainstream criminology

homophobia – saw LGBTQ people as deviant

invisibility – ignored LGBTQ people completely lack of criminological research on LGBTQ people either as offenders or as victims.

1.2 queer criminology – definition

- relatively new branch of criminology
- can be seen as a type of critical criminology
- definition by Carrie Buist and Emily Lenning in 'queer criminology' 2016
- theoretical and practical approach
- highlights the stigmatization, criminalisation and rejection of LGBTQ people, as both victims and offenders, by academia and by the criminal justice system

1.3 aims of queer criminology

- a. to be critical of the role of the state in criminalising sexuality and gender identity and to look at how the criminal justice system has been used to oppress LGBTQ people
