world screens by examining a range of films videos and digital works associated with global Chinese culture The ways in which the world has imagined China and the images the Chinese have used to depict themselves have changed dramatically since 1989 The media spotlight placed on Beijing during the spring of 1989 created repercussions that continue to affect how China is seen globally how it sees itself and how the Chinese outside the People s Republic see themselves The films and other texts included in this book represent a range of work by media artists working within China Hong Kong Taiwan Singapore and on transnational co productions involving those places The book also features media from other positions within the Chinese diaspora including Chinese America and work produced on China by non Chinese Highlighting questions of the circulation of images people and commodities the book explores the important interconnections involving questions of race ethnicity gender and sexuality on global screens Beginning and ending with Tian anmen and world image culture a portrait emerges of momentous change and persistent challenges facing media artists and filmmakers working within Greater China

Critical Race Counterstories along the Chicana/Chicano Educational Pipeline Tara J. Yosso, 2013-02-01 Chicanas/os are part of the youngest largest and fastest growing racial ethnic minority population in the United States yet at every schooling level they suffer the lowest educational outcomes of any racial ethnic group Using a counterstorytelling methodology Tara Yosso debunks racialized myths that blame the victims for these unequal educational outcomes and redirects our focus toward historical patterns of institutional neglect She artfully interweaves empirical data and theoretical arguments with engaging narratives that expose and analyse racism as it functions to limit access and opportunity for Chicana/o students By humanising the need to transform our educational system Yosso offers an accessible tool for teaching and learning about the problems and possibilities present along the Chicana/o educational pipeline
