The Lord of Horses Diana L. Paxson,1997-01-01 Gundrun the grieving widow of the legendary warrior Sigfrid agrees to wed Attila the Hun in order to save her people but she secretly plots her revenge against the murderous treachery that stole her beloved Sigfrid from her Reprint PW AB Spurgeon's Sermons Volume 07: 1861 Charles Haddon

Spurgeon,2017-05-06 Charles Spurgeon was one of the most evangelical and puritan of protestant minister s in the 19th century In the seventh volume of these series of sermons these charismatic and inspiring sermons are enough to encourage convict and inspire anyone who seeks a closer and more intimate relationship with God Tour of Duty Constantine Nomikos Vaporis,2009-11-12 Alternate attendance sankin kotai was one of the central institutions of Edo period 1603 1868 Japan and one of the most unusual examples of a system of enforced elite mobility in world history It required the daimyo to divide their time between their domains and the city of Edo where they waited upon the Tokugawa shogun Based on a prodigious amount of research in both published and archival primary sources Tour of Duty renders alternate attendance as a lived experience for not only the daimyo but also the samurai retainers who accompanied them Beyond exploring the nature of travel to and from the capital as well as the period of enforced bachelorhood there Constantine Vaporis elucidates for the first time the significance of alternate attendance as an engine of cultural intellectual material and technological exchange Vaporis argues against the view that cultural change simply emanated from the center Edo and reveals more complex patterns of cultural circulation and production taking place between the domains and Edo and among distant parts of Japan What is generally known as Edo culture in fact incorporated elements from the localities In some cases Edo acted as a nexus for exchange at other times culture traveled from one area to another without passing through the capital As a result even those who did not directly participate in alternate attendance experienced a world much larger than their own Vaporis begins by detailing the nature of the trip to and from the capital for one particular large scale domain Tosa and its men and goes on to analyze the political and cultural meanings of the processions of the daimyo and their extensive entourages up and down the highways These parade like movements were replete with symbolic import for the nature of early modern governance Later chapters are concerned with the physical and social environment experienced by the daimyo s retainers in Edo they also address the question of who went to Edo and why the network of physical spaces in which the domainal samurai lived the issue of staffing political power and the daily lives and consumption habits of retainers Finally Vaporis examines retainers as carriers of culture both in a literal and a figurative sense In doing so he reveals the significance of travel for retainers and their identity as consumers and producers of culture thus proposing a multivalent model of cultural change The Strand Magazine ,1901 Land of the Golden River Brenda E. F. Beck,2023-04-27 A Journey through Story to Po iva a N u An Ancient Tamil Kingdom This remarkable epic length legend presents a rich and well rounded view of local South Asian folk history masterfully interwoven with many social themes and multiple layers of religious tradition The text provides a lively read and can be enjoyed by students of all backgrounds and levels This richly decorated oral telling combines numerous poetic songs with direct conversations and detailed narrative passages The descriptive segments help to advance a broader story trajectory leading the reader towards a long foretold yet still surprising conclusion In 1965 a highly respected troubadour duo C R mac mi of Eruca amp ayam and his nephew Pa a ic mi sang this magnificent legend in front of a live South Indian village audience It took them eighteen nights to complete this tale Weeks later the senior performer R mac mi patiently dictated this same story to a local assistant who was working for the translator at the time The text was meticulously written down by hand phrase by phrase over many days Both bards wanted to preserve a story they knew in their hearts was truly unique and sacred Each gave the present collector permission to share the words of this tale They wanted the whole world to learn about a great legend they had themselves spent years learning This story is about the potential for social renewal and those two singers believed it could better the lives of all who listened to it Fifty five years later following in the footsteps of these two men their enthusiasm has now born fruit in a book they had both hoped for but could never have written themselves Michel and Angèle.
