Lord Who Are You:

Sentiments and Reflections of a Black Man Clint B. Walker, 2011-05-26 This book of poems were written in the attempt to get Gods message out I had a heavenly encounter with God and was taken out of body mind or spirit I can not really tell which but I know it was for the purpose of uniting all people for the common good Some of these poems deals with secular life and some are written from a more spiritual venue but as Jesus use parables to explain the good and bad of our actions so have I been instructed to do as well When we dabble in things that has no profit only destruction then there is an equal reaction to all actions These words are the inspired works of God and will truly bless all that read them They will offer inspiration courage guidance and wisdom If the reader keeps an open mind and let the Holy spirit talk to their subconscious Gods words do not go away into the void but they accomplish what they are sent out to accomplish This book will have a universal appeal to all its readers and will give all readers a greater insight into the mind of the author whom happens to be a black man but more important a child of God Its purpose is to unite all races to come together as one people There is no difference between the Jew and Greek bond nor free for whosoever calls on the name of the Lord will be saved I profess we all are whosoever whether red yellow black brown or white we are all precious in Gods sight Read these poems with an open mind and a receptive heart and I guarantee you will be truly blessed by reading them as I was blessed by writing them May God bless all of his children with good health happiness and prosperity is my hearts desire and prayer NKJV, Ultrastim Bible, Compact, Bonded Leather, Black, Red Letter Edition Thomas Nelson, Zondervan, 1999-03-28 Translation and explanatory notes JConcordance JRibbon marker and gift box Presentation page JRed letter JFull color study maps J1 184 pp

KIRKUS REVIEW Debut author Mark A Luther offers a memoir thats also a collection of meditations on popular Christian topics As the author explains in the introduction I am now at age forty five a man who loves God above all else because I am above all else loved by him In the pages that follow he tells of his time as a raging alcoholic and his eventual redemption through steady prayer and belief He divides his sentiments into chapters with titles such as Love Forgiveness and Trust incorporating frequent biblical quotes and prayers as well as the sentiments of other writers such as C S Lewis and T S Eliot The book overflows with earnest guidance for the weary soul aiming toward a simplicity backed by personal experience The author asserts what it means to be Christian quite clearly living a life spent pursuing intimate daily fellowship with Jesus Christ Addressing whether human suffering is an expression of Gods anger he assures readers that Trouble and hard times are not God punishing us Love is paramount he says Get out in the world and go love somebody be the hands and feet of Jesus he urges later noting that Nobody is beyond Gods desire to love or his ability to use them For instance a recovering alcoholic friend found him drinking in his car when he should have been at work moments like that illuminate this unique tale The author avoids any sort of holier than thou tone in this book allowing it to offer a truly inspiring message If turning to prayer could work for a man who experienced such a series of Rock Bottom moments readers may think perhaps it could work for anyone A heartfelt message about one mans embrace of Christianity
