Memory and the Built Environment in 20th-Century American Literature Alice Levick, 2021-05-20 From the paving of the Los Angeles River in 1938 and the creation of the G I Bill in 1944 to the construction of the Interstate Highway System during the late 1950s and the brownstoning movement of the 1970s throughout the mid 20th century the United States saw a wave of changes that had an enduring impact on the development of urban spaces Focusing on the relationship between processes of demolition and restoration as they have shaped the modern built environment and the processes by which memory is constructed hidden or remade in the literary text this book explores the ways in which history becomes entangled with the urban space in which it plays out Alice Levick takes stock of this history both in the form of its externalised concretised manifestation and its more symbolic representation as depicted in the mid 20th century work of a selection of American writers Calling upon access to archival material and interviews with New York academics authors local historians and urban planners this book locates Freud's Uncanny in the cracks between the absent and present invisible and visible memory and history as they are presented in city narratives demonstrating both the passage of time and the imposition of 20th century modernism With reference to the works of D J Waldie Joan Didion Hisaye Yamamoto Raymond Chandler Marshall Berman Gil Cuadros Paule Marshall L J Davis and Paula Fox Memory and the Built Environment in 20th Century American Literature unpacks how time becomes visible in Los Angeles Sacramento Lakewood and New York in the decades just before and after the Second World War questioning how these spaces provide access to the past in both narrative and spatial forms and how at times this access is blocked

Dynamic Form traces how intermedial experiments shape modernist texts from 1900 to 1950 Considering literature alongside painting sculpture photography and film Cara Lewis examines how these arts inflect narrative movement contribute to plot events and configure poetry and memoir As forms and formal theories cross from one artistic realm to another and back again modernism shows its obsession with form and even at times becomes a formalism itself but as Lewis writes that form is far more dynamic than we have given it credit for Form fulfills such various functions that we cannot characterize it as a mere container for content or matter nor can we consign it to ignominy opposite historicism or political commitment As a structure or scheme that enables action form in modernism can be plastic protean or even fragile and works by Henry James Virginia Woolf Mina Loy Evelyn Waugh and Gertrude Stein demonstrate the range of form's operations Revising three major formal paradigms spatial form pure form and formlessness and recasting the history of modernist form this book proposes an understanding of form as a verbal category as a kind of doing Dynamic Form thus opens new possibilities for conversation between modernist studies and formalist studies and simultaneously promotes a capacious rethinking of the convergence between literary modernism and creative work in other media Maverick

Jopi Nyman, 2022-02-28 This study examines masculinity and individualism in four American novels of the 1920s and 1930s usually regarded as belonging to the genre of hard boiled fiction The novels under study are Red Harvest by Dashiell Hammett The Postman Always Rings Twice by James M Cain They Shoot Horses Don t They by Horace McCoy and To Have and Have Not by Ernest Hemingway In this first full length study of gender in hard boiled fiction the genre is discussed as a representation of the ideologies of masculinity and individualism Hard boiled fiction is located in its historical and cultural context and it is argued that the genre with its explicit emphasis on masculinity and masculine virtues attempts to reaffirm a masculine order The study argues that this emphasis is a counter reaction to more general changes in the gender relations of the period Indeed hard boiled fiction is argued to be an attempt to reconstruct a masculine identity based on anti modern values generally accepted in the cultural context of the genre Western American Literature ,1987
