Losing Your Dog:

Losing Your Dog Mickie Gustafson,1992 The Loss of a Pet Wallace Sife, Ph.D.,2014-03-18 Understanding helps heal the hurt when you lose a pet A cherished pet gives you boundless unconditional love and occupies a special place in your routine your home and your heart When your pet dies that warm special place becomes a sad empty space This book helps you understand The grieving process including typical stages of grief and techniques for coping Grieving for a missing pet one you had to give up because of a change in life situation and other difficult circumstances Children and the death of a pet Euthanasia including important considerations Religion and the death of a pet with articles by various religious leaders Aftercare facilities including an extensive index of pet cemeteries crematories and memorial gardens This award winning book has been hailed as the seminal work in the field And now the fourth newly revised and expanded edition offers so much more to the bereaving pet owner This edition also includes a significant new way of considering the meaning of afterlife for us and our pets It discusses the topic from a twenty first century scientific perspective that is very different from existing religious or metaphysical ones offering a new comfort to skeptics and agnostics as well Losing My Best Friend Jeannie Wycherley,2018-04-20 Remember me with tears and laughter Remember me though it hurts to do so because the pain you have is equal to the love we shared There is no goodbye if you carry me in your heart Remember all the joy we shared because there was so much of it for both of us Herbie Longfellow Alderdice Are you a dog owner who is in the process of losing your best friend to illness Or have you lost your beloved friend and you are struggling to get over them Pet bereavement is tough Not everyone sympathises with you Jeannie Wycherley chose to write this book after the loss of her beloved boy Herbie because she was hurt by the repetition of the phrase he was just a dog She realised that her grief transcended that tired notion one tritely rolled out by people who think they re being helpful and supportive failing to realise the guilt and shame many pet owners already experience when they are locked deep in mourning Losing my Best Friend thoughtful support for those affected by dog bereavement or pet loss offers practical advice about what to do when your dog passes away including tips on helping your children or other pets cope with the loss designing your own ceremony to celebrate your dog s life and creating memorials In these pages Jeannie Wycherley has created a loving tribute to Herbie and delivers support with a light and loving touch that validates what you re going through Coping with the Loss of a Pet Christina M. Lemieux,1992 Loss of a Pet Wallace Sife,2014-03-18 Coping With The Loss Of A Dog: How To Deal With The Death Of Your Friend Richard Oliver,2015-08-06 When a beloved dog passes it leaves behind a hole in its family s life that s impossible to fill I ve written this book by drawing on my own experiences of the heart wrenching emotions that follow the death of a dog I ve lost four dogs and grieved for each one I still grieve for each one but in a different way now in a happier way a way that brings back fond memories that make me smile and not cry I hope this book will help you get closer to that place too a place where you can look back on the time you spent with your dog and laugh not cry I ve covered a few topics in this book including What is grief Dealing with guilt Understanding other people's reactions to the death of your dog Laying your dog to rest Coming to terms with the loss of your dog How to speak to children about the loss Memorialising your dog
