Maps of the Ancient Sea Kings Charles H. Hapgood, 1966 Hapgood utilizes ancient maps as concrete evidence of an advanced worldwide civilization existing many thousands of years before ancient Egypt Hapgood concluded that these ancient mapmakers were in some ways much more advanced in mapmaking than any people prior to the 18th century Hapgood believes that they mapped all the continents This would mean that the Americas were mapped thousands of years before Columbus Antarctica would have been mapped when its coasts were free of ice Hapgood supposes that there is evidence that these people must have lived when the Ice Age had not yet ended in the Northern Hemisphere and when Alaska was still connected with Siberia by the Pleistocene Ice Age land bridge Index to Educational Audio Tapes, 1974

Homesteading and Stump Farming on the West Coast 1880-1930 Barbara Ann Lambert, 2015-12-02 Imagine obtaining one hundred and sixty acres of land for FREE. Then comes the real payment the sweat and toil of living in a remote wilderness and clearing a landscape where the stumps left behind are so large and so numerous the best bet is to use dynamite to remove them. Beginning in 1859 such homesteading typified the arrival of white settlers in British Columbia. The Land Act set out rules by which British subjects could for agricultural purposes only pre-empt land. Along the Upper Sunshine Coast of those who took up the challenge only some succeeded in carving a life out of this wild land while many failed. Through prodigious research and the careful cultivation of interviews Barbara Ann Lambert tells the stories of those resourceful arrivals. Employing the day journals of homesteaders and interviews with their descendants Lambert conveys the rich history of the Sunshine Coast. From Saltery Bay to Lund she evokes the struggles and triumphs of those who once lived in this place Lambert calls paradise. Listening to Landscape Phil Hubbard, 2025-10-16 The first book length exploration of how English landscapes are represented in contemporary electronic and experimental music. Listening to Landscape ploughs its own furrow combining ideas from psychogeography hauntology and landscape studies to offer a distinctive take on the way contemporary music deals with the ghosts of an England that is fast disappearing. Away from the Top 40 and often circulating in the form of obscure cassette releases and limited vinyl runs acts including Belbury Poly Craven Faults epic45 Gilroy Mere Spaceship Vic Mars Warrington Runcorn New Town Development Plan and many others besides work in experimental genres including folktronica ambient modular synth drone post rock and noise. But all have an apparent preoccupation with summoning the essence of place often working with ideas of memory loss and thwarted futurity.

associated with disappearing or threatened English landscapes Moving deftly between cultural theory musicology and geography Listening to Landscape serves as a primer on the hauntological music scene that appears fixated on questions of landscape and Englishness It argues this music is no mere exercise in nostalgia but a provocation asking us to re imagine England s place in the world at a time of economic and environmental crisis Listening to Landscape speaks to urgent questions of national identity in the post Brexit era offering a distinctive take on the way contemporary culture deals with the ghosts and memories of Albion Includes a foreword by Justin P Hopper author of The Old Weird Albion
