Magill's Cinema Annual, 1983 Frank Northen Magill,1983 The Cinema of Francesco Rosi Gaetana Marrone,2020

Francesco Rosi is one of the great realist artists of post war Italian indeed post war world cinema In this book author Gaetana Marrone explores the rich visual language in which the Neapolitan filmmaker expresses the cultural icons that constitute his style and images Over the years Rosi has offered us films that trace an intricate path between the real and the fictive the factual and the imagined His films show an extraordinarily consistent formal balance while representing historical events as social emblems that examine shape and reflect the national self They rely on a labyrinthine narrative structure in which the sense of an enigma replaces the unidirectional path leading ineluctably to a designated end and solution Rosi's logical investigations are conducted by an omniscient eye and translated into a cinematic approach that embraces the details of material reality with the panoramic perspective of a dispassionate observer This book offers intertextual analyses within such fields as history politics literature and photography along with production information gleaned from Rosi's personal archives and interviews It examines Rosi's creative use of film as document and as spectacle It is also a study of the specific cinematic techniques that characterize Rosi's work and that visually compositionally express his vision of history and the elusive truth of past and present social and political realities Magill's Cinema Annual 1983 Ryan A Smith, Frank N. Magill,1983-12

Horror Films of the 1980s John Kenneth Muir,2010-07-28 John Kenneth Muir is back This time the author of the acclaimed Horror Films of the 1970s turns his attention to 300 films from the 1980s From horror franchises like Friday the 13th and Hellraiser to obscurities like The Children and The Boogens Muir is our informative guide Muir introduces the scope of the decade's horrors and offers a history that draws parallels between current events and the nightmares unfolding on cinema screens Each of the 300 films is discussed with detailed credits a brief synopsis a critical commentary and where applicable notes on the film's legacy beyond the 80s Also included is the author's ranking of the 15 best horror films of the 80s Hollywood Shot by Shot Norman K. Denzin, To what extent have Hollywood feature films shaped the meanings that Americans attach to alcoholics their families and the alcoholic condition To what extent has the mass culture of the movie industry itself been conceptually shaped by a broad external societal discourse Norman Denzin brings to his life long study of alcoholism a searching interest in how cultural texts signify and lend themselves to interpretation within a social nexus Both historical and diachronic in his approach Denzin identifies five periods in the alcoholism films made between 1932 and the end of the 1980s and offers a detailed critical reading of thirty seven films produced during these six decades Professor Denzin has produced a searching and provocative interpretation of more than a half century of Hollywood's social and personal construction of the problem drinker in America Readable by both lay persons and specialists Denzin's book provides us with the most comprehensive understanding of this topic to date Stanford M Lyman Robert J Morrow Eminent Scholar in Social Science Florida Atlantic University An eminent sociologist and leading authority on alcoholism Denzin also writes skillfully about films as films and is comfortable with postmodern interpretive theory a genuinely interdisciplinary work of the first order Robert L Carringer author The Making of Citizen Kane Denzin has gone on an exhaustive bar crawl through hundreds of movies returning with evidence that the film about drinking is a genre of its own He writes from sound knowledge about alcoholism which unlike other diseases is frequently viewed with bittersweet romanticism Roger Ebert Norman K Denzin is professor of sociology cinema studies and interpretive theory at the University of Illinois Urbana Champaign He was awarded the George Herbert Mead Award for Lifetime Achievement from the Society for the Study of Symbolic Interaction He is the author of several books including Screening Race Hollywood and a Cinema of Racial Violence The Recovering Alcoholic Interpretive Ethnography Images of Postmodernism Social Theory and Contemporary Cinema and Interpretive Interactionism Images of Aging Mike Featherstone, Andrew Wernick, 2003-09-02 We all have a finite life span We are born we get old and we die Given the universality of the ageing process it is remarkable that there is almost a complete absence of study of culture and self image of the middle aged and old Images of Ageing Cultural Representations of Later Life changes this The contributors discuss images of ageing which have come to circulate in the advanced industrial societies today They address themes such as body and self image in everyday interaction experience and identity on old age advertising and consumer culture images of the elderly images of ageing used by Government agencies in health education campaigns the diversity of historical representations of the elderly gender images of ageing images of senility and second childhood images of health illness and death Cinema Arthuriana Kevin J.
