Mission Accomplished Robert Uda,2004-02 Most returned missionaries say that their missions have been the most rewarding experience of their lifetime It is no wonder their maturity testimony and knowledge grow phenomenally There is no greater feeling than to teach convert and baptize a new family into the Church The miraculous changes that occur in people as they accept live and progress in the Gospel are worth all of the missionaries personal sacrifices If we lovingly encourage and prepare our sons to serve full time missions they will accept the challenge They will happily prepare themselves and look forward with great anticipation to serve the Lord anywhere in the world for two years If you do the things suggested in Mission Accomplished you will have successful missionaries who serve honorable missions You will be showered with never expected blessings Indeed the windows of heaven will open wide to pour out innumerable blessings from on high I recommend the following to parents of all currently serving missionaries Pray for them daily Write to them weekly keep letters positive and encouraging Send them periodic care packages Do not call them unless permitted by the mission president Help them complete an honorable mission If you do these things you will reap blessings galore Your missionaries rely on the support they receive from home They need your support They look forward to your support Don t let them down

Navigate Your Faith Ron Pratt,2019 What s the point of being a Christian anymore Many Christians today are feeling unfulfilled in their walk with God and they have no idea it s because of the little decisions they re making each day that are leading them into lives of compromise In Navigate Your Faith Ron Pratt uses a fictional American family to expose how the enemy lures believers into prioritizing their own pleasure entertainment or career goals over their relationship with Christ This erodes their passion for Jesus and causes them to become spiritually bored and have powerless Christian lives Rather than claiming that God will approve of Christians no matter what they do as some modern ministers do Navigate Your Faith challenges readers to take a hard look at their lives and see if they re simply incorporating Jesus into their lifestyles or allowing Him to set them on a course of His choosing With proven strategies to rebuild lost intimacy with God this book will help Christians recognize the deceptive tactics of the enemy break out of complacency and make a greater impact on the world around them This book will help you recognize and avoid the deception of today s nominal Christian culture

Barker, 2022-08-12 The Gospel of John's relationship to the Synoptic Gospels is a perennial question For centuries the Gospel of Matthew has been considered the least likely of possible written sources of the Fourth Gospel In an ambitious reappraisal James Barker demonstrates John's use of the redacted Gospel of Matthew After reviewing the history of interpretation on the question Barker develops three case studies Concerning ecclesial authority Barker contends that John's saying concerning forgiving and retaining sins derives from Matthew's binding and loosing logion Regarding proof from prophecy he argues that John relies on Matthew for Zechariah's oracle about Israel's king entering Jerusalem on a donkey Finally he argues that John's inclusion of Samaritans contrasts sharply with Matthew's exclusion of Samaritans from the early church Although John's engagement with Matthew was by no means uncritical Barker at last concludes that John intended his Gospel to be read alongside not instead of Matthew      Media and The City Chiara Giaccardi, Matteo Tarantino, Simone Tosoni, 2014-07-18 The percentage of people living in cities and the adoption rates of communication technologies continue to grow across the planet Our age has come to be defined as one of urbanism and communication but how are those two intertwined How do they shape each other Where and in which ways do they diverge support or fold into each other As new tensions emerge and old ones find new solutions social sciences are forced into a dialogue with media studies and urban studies in order to make sense of the new reality New theoretical and methodological paradigms are urgently needed and can be produced only through a fertile and eclectic dialogue This volume presents some of the latest research in this exciting cross disciplinary field Issues of conflict mobility crime art memory ethnicity identity and city marketing and branding come under rigorous scrutiny in their mutual and constitutive relationship with urban space and communicative technologies and practices The volume is divided into three broad sections The first section deals with the role of media in the social production of urban space that is with how media interact with other forces in giving shape to the materiality of the city The second section deals with how urban space acts as a context for a variety of media related practices especially in relation to the popularization of mobile geo localization technologies which have given us mass phenomena such as Foursquare The third and final section deals with how urban space is mediatized and communicated through ICTs or in other terms how urban space is represented by specific media
