Bibliography on the Urban Crisis Jon K. Meyer, 1969 Public Health Service Publication, 1969 The New Deal and the Last Hurrah Bruce M. Stave, 1970-06-15 In studying the effect of New Deal on urban political machines Bruce M Stave challenges the traditional view of declining bossism in America from the 1930s through the 1950s Using Pittsburgh as his case study he demonstrates how political power was transferred from a once invincible Republican machine to the Democratic Party led by David L Lawrence Stave traces the consolidation of patronage control and grassroots voting support with a special emphasis on the interplay between politics and federal work relief during the depression decade

Congressional Committee Chairmen Andrée E. Reeves, 2021-12-14 Congress does most of its work in committee and no understanding of that body can be complete without an analysis of its committees and those who shape them Andr e Reeves now offers a rare glimpse into the workings of committee chairmanship over a span of thirty three years how three chairmen operated and how they influenced their committee and its impact As Reeves demonstrates the chair is the most important player in a congressional committee the one who holds more cards than his colleagues and can deal a winning hand or call a bluff His use of institutional and personal resources affects the committee the chamber and public policy As a case study Reeves compares the leadership of three disparate and strong House Education and Labor Committee chairmen who served from 1950 to 1984 Graham A Barden D NC Adam Clayton Powell D NY and Carl D Perkins D KY She delves into each chairman s background orientation and use of resources Each had his own brand of leadership she finds and a pronounced but different impact on Education and Labor The committee blocked progressive legislation under Barden facilitated Johnson s Great Society under Powell and fought tooth and nail to maintain its accomplishments under Perkins Reeves emphasizes also committee development including the effects of reforms the relationship between committee composition and policy output and committee voting patterns Rather than advancing smoothly and incrementally Education and Labor developed in stages that coincided with each chairmanship And over the years covered it evolved into a more complex decentralized and democratic organization This is an illuminating study of three men who made a difference in our nation's governance They left a legacy for succeeding chairmen and indeed for the House and their chairmanships have had a lasting impact on our society The Politics of Black Empowerment James Jennings, 2000-01-08 The Politics of Black Empowerment uses the experiences of grassroots activists to develop various conceptualizations and explanations of Black political behavior today In analyzing Black politics since the late 1960s James Jennings focuses on both the behavioral aspects such as individual and group characteristics of voting and nonvoting and elections as well as more fundamental philosophical and cultural questions regarding Black politics This study examines how the traditional face of Black politics and electoral activism interacts with a growing progressive face of Black politics While traditional Black political activists seek access or political incorporation another group aims for power sharing The traditional approach is sometimes satisfied with merely replacing white politicians with Blacks but the progressive constituency focuses on fundamentally changing the whole economic and political pie Activists desirous of Black empowerment are pursuing a political and economic orientation that goes beyond programs based on access to American institutional arrangements and attempting to change or alter given political arrangements and social relations between Blacks and whites on the basis of changing the social structure and the distribution of wealth and power Based on interviews with Black and Latino activists in several big cities as well as on a review of the literature and the Black newspapers around the country The Politics of Black Empowerment describes the characteristics of Black empowerment activism in America The Chicago NAACP and the Rise of Black Professional Leadership, 1910-1966 Christopher Robert Reed, 1997-11-22 The Chicago NAACP was one of the first branches created in an effort to attain first class citizenship for African Americans Through the first six decades of white resistance black indifference and internal group struggle the branch endured the effects of two world wars national depression the Cold War and growing class differentiation among blacks Ida B Wells Barnett Jane Addams Dr Charles E Bentley and Earl B Dickerson were some early reformers who influenced the development of the Chicago NAACP during these earliest days The New Deal's Black Congressman Dennis Sven Nordin, 1997 A biography of the first African American to be elected to the US Congress Contending that Nordin's 1883-1968 successes were due to questionable deeds and attitudes traces how he ingratiated himself with the political machine in Chicago to get elected and faithfully served them for many years in office Also documents how his patrons dropped him because of his support however belated of the NAACP and his legal action against racial discrimination Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR Making the Second Ghetto Arnold R. Hirsch, 2021-04-06 First published in 1983 and praised by the likes of Ta Nehisi Coates and Thomas Sugrue Arnold R Hirsch's Making the Second Ghetto is the rare book that has only become more piercingly prescient over the years Hirsch's classic and groundbreaking work of urban history is a revelatory look at Chicago in the decades after the Great Depression a period when the city dealt with its rapidly growing Black population not by working to abolish its stark segregation but by expanding and solidifying it Even as the civil rights movement rose to prominence Chicago exploited a variety of methods of segregation including riots redevelopment and a host of new legal frameworks that provided a national playbook for the emergence of a new kind of entrenched inequality Hirsch s chronicle of the strategies employed by ethnic political and business interests in reaction to the Great Migration of Southern Blacks in the mid twentieth century makes startlingly clear how the violent reactions of an emergent white population found common ground with policy makers to segregate first a city and then the nation This enlarged edition of Making the Second Ghetto features a visionary afterword by historian N D B Connolly explaining why Hirsch s book still crackles with blistering relevance for contemporary readers Critical White Studies Richard Delgado, Jean Stefancic, 1997-06-29 This work drawn from sociology law history cultural studies and literature presents an analysis of the emerging field of whiteness studies as the next step of critical race theory It investigates what it means to be white from both a nonwhite and a white perspective The African American Experience Arvarh E. Strickland, Robert E. Weems Jr., 2000-11-30 Compared to the early decades of the 20th century when scholarly writing on African Americans was limited to a few titles on slavery Reconstruction and African American migration the last thirty years have witnessed an explosion of works on the African American experience With the Civil Rights and Black Power movements of the 1960s came an increasing demand for the study and teaching of African American history followed by the publication of increasing numbers of titles on African American life and history This volume provides a comprehensive bibliographical and analytical guide to this growing body of literature as well as an analysis of how the study of African Americans has changed Politics at the Margin Susan Herbst, 1994-08-26 This book explores how a variety of historically marginalised groups create their own public spheres parallel to the mainstream public arena Since such groups have been excluded from conventional public discourse and activity they build their own infrastructures for opinion formation and expression The book draws upon theory in sociology philosophy political science and communications in order to understand communication patterns among the politically marginal at different points in history Three diverse historical case studies female operated salons of eighteenth century Paris the black press of the 1930s and the creation of The Masses and a contemporary analysis of the Libertarian Party illuminate the experiences of those who live on the fringe of the public sphere Through synthesis of existing scholarship and original archival research Politics at the Margin demonstrates the centrality of political communication to the study of social action American Far West in the Twentieth Century Earl S.

Pomeroy, 2008-10-21 In this richly insightful survey that represents the culmination of decades of research a leading western specialist argues that the unique history of the American West did not end in the year 1900 as is commonly assumed but was shaped as much if not more by events and innovations in the twentieth century Earl Pomeroy gathers copious information on economic political social intellectual and business issues thoughtfully evaluates it and draws a new and more nuanced portrait of the West than has ever been depicted before Pomeroy mines extensive published and unpublished sources to show how the post 1900 West charted a path that was influenced by but separate from the rest of the country and the world He deals not only with the West's transition from an agricultural to an urban region but also with the important contributions of minority racial and ethnic groups and women in that transformation Pomeroy describes a modern West increasingly urban transnational and multicultural that has overcome much of the isolation that challenged it at an earlier time His final book is nothing short of the definitive source on that West African Americans at the Crossroads Clarence Lusane,1994
