The Neon Wilderness Nelson Algren, 1960 The Neon Wilderness Nelson Algren, 1962 20th Century Chicago Chicago Sun-Times, 2000 Story of 100 Chicago voices who either created history lived it or reported it The Neon Wilderness Nelson Algren, 2002-01-08 As rock and roll novelist Tom Carson writes in his introduction The Neon Wilderness is the pivotal book of Nelson Algren's career the one which bid a subdued but determined farewell to everything that had earlier made him no more than just another good writer and inaugurated the idiosyncratic bedevilled cantankerously poetic sensibility that would see him ranked among the few literary originals of his times Algren's classic 1947 short story collection is the pure vein Algren would mine for all his subsequent novels and stories The stories in this collection are literary triumphs that don't fade away Among the stories included here are A Bottle of Milk for Mother about a Chicago youth being cornered for a murder and The Face on the Barrage Floor in which a legless man pummels another man nearly to death the seeds that would grow into the novel Never Come Morning Algren's World War II stories whose final expression would be in the novel The Man with the Golden Arm are also part of this collection So Help Me Algren's first published work is here Other stories include The Captain Has Bad Dreams in which Algren first introduced the character of the blameless captain who feels such a heavy burden of guilt and wonders why the criminal offenders he sees seem to feel no guilt at all And then there is Design for Departure in which a young woman drifting into hooking and addiction sees her own dreaminess outlasting her hopes The Short Writings of Nelson Algren Richard F. the perception of Asians both as economic exemplars and as threats America's Asia explores a discursive tradition that affiliates the East with modern efficiency in contrast to more familiar primitivist forms of Orientalism Colleen Lye traces the American stereotype of Asians as a model minority or a yellow peril two aspects of what she calls Asiatic racial form to emergent responses to globalization beginning in California in the late nineteenth century when industrialization proceeded in tandem with the nation's neocolonial expansion beyond its continental frontier From Progressive efforts to regulate corporate monopoly to New Deal contentions with the crisis of the Great Depression a particular racial mode of social redress explains why turn of the century radicals and reformers united around Asian exclusion and why Japanese American internment during World War II was a liberal initiative In Lye's reconstructed archive of Asian American racialization literary naturalism and its conventions of representing capitalist abstraction provide key historiographical evidence Arguing for the profound influence of literature on policymaking America's Asia examines the relationship between Jack London and leading Progressive George Kennan on U S Japan relations Frank Norris and AFL leader Samuel Gompers on cheap immigrant labor Pearl S Buck and journalist Edgar Snow on the Popular Front in China and John Steinbeck and left intellectual Carey McWilliams on Japanese American internment Lye's materialist approach to the construction of race succeeds in locating racialization as part of a wider ideological pattern and in distinguishing between its different and sometimes opposing historical effects
