Undoubtedly a memoir is significant because it can teach anyone about a part of the human experience even if the facts are not described without bias Through this sort of narrative the reader cannot help but enter into the memoirist s mind and therefore feel more empathy for them In doing so the reader can feel what the memoirist feels and see what the memoirist sees as clearly as is humanly possible In this way the historical events and life lessons become tangible and poignantly real to the reader Susy's sacrifice, by the author of 'Nettie's mission'.
