Over the Rooftops of Time Myra Sklarew, 2012-02-01 In this collection of essays stories and poems award winning poet and fiction writer Myra Sklarew traces a journey across the latter half of the twentieth century and into the twenty first Her point of view is Jewish though her subjects include science exile the future the Holocaust the remaining Jewish community of Morocco Yiddish poetry the visual arts and teaching Many of these pieces deal with personal subjects the search for a grandfather's birthplace the death of a mother the profound effect of a teacher the struggle of a woman to embrace Judaism Whether writing about medicine Messiah or the first speech of an infant Sklarew's work finds its roots in Judaism a Judaism fashioned in large part by the author's own hands Ultimately the book is about access about following one's own curiosity despite the obstacles that might appear along the way And it is about a kind of belief that nothing will be wasted that all that we can learn will have a place in our lives eventually though we may not know its purpose at the time
