Overlooking Nazareth The Ethnography Of Exclusion In Galilee:

Overlooking Nazareth Dan Rabinowitz, 1997-01-16 A sophisticated and engaging ethnographic account of the Palestinian citizens of Israel and the first since the 1970s Overlooking Nazareth examines specific situations of friction conflict and co operation in Natzerat Illit This Israeli new town is built on formerly Palestinian land just outside the biblical town of Nazareth and has a population of 25 000 Jewish Israelis and 3 500 Palestinians Dr Rabinowitz has written widely on the current political situation in Israel and has conducted extensive fieldwork in Galilee and he describes his study as a guided walk along a border a sketch of interfaces where the complex often paradoxical aspects of the border situation are negotiated and acted out most vividly He highlights the extent to which anti Palestinian sentiments for which the town is known actually reflect widespread views of most Israelis This is a major contribution to our understanding of the confrontation between Israelis and Palestinians It offers powerful critique of reflexive anthropology and offers fresh insights into notions of ethnicity and identity nationalism and liberalism A Multicultural Entrapment Michael Karayanni, 2020-12-17 The religion and state debate in Israel has overlooked the Palestinian Arab religious communities and their members focusing almost exclusively on Jewish religious institutions and norms and Jewish majority members Because religion and state debates in many other countries are defined largely by minority religions issues the debate in Israel is anomalous Michael Karayanni advances a legal matrix that explains this anomaly by referencing specific constitutional values At the same time he also takes a critical look at these values and presents the argument that what might be seen as liberal and multicultural is at its core just as illiberal and coercive In making this argument A Multicultural Entrapment suggests a set of multicultural qualifications by which one should judge whether a group based accommodation is of a multicultural nature Ethnographic Encounters in Israel Fran Markowitz, 2013-06-11 Essays on the challenges of anthropological work in a complicated country A compelling anthology Ruth Behar Israel is a place of paradoxes a small country with a diverse population and complicated social terrain Studying its culture and social life means confronting a multitude of ethical dilemmas and methodological challenges These first person accounts by anthropologists engage contradictions of religion politics identity kinship racialization and globalization to reveal fascinating and often vexing dimensions of the Israeli experience Caught up in pressing existential questions of war and peace social justice and national boundaries the contributors explore the contours of Israeli society as insiders and outsiders natives and strangers as well as critics and friends Israeli-Palestinian Activism Alexander Koensler, 2016-03-09 When do words and actions empower When do they betray Based on ethnographic fieldwork this volume tracks the repercussions of advocacy activism against house demolitions in unrecognised Arab Bedouin villages in Israel s southern internal frontier It highlights the repercussions of activism for victims fund raisers and activists The ethnographic episodes show how humanitarian aid intervention and indigenous identity politics can turn into a double edged sword Ironically institutional lobbying for coexistence and its interpretative categories can sometimes perpetuate different forms of subjugation The volume also shows how beyond the institutional lobbying novel figures of activism emerge informal networks create non sectarian cross cutting countercultures and rethink human environment relationships These experimental political subjects redefine the categories of the conflict and elude the logic of zero sum games they point towards a shifting paradigm in current ethnopolitics Koensler outlines an ethnographic approach for the study of social movements that follows multiple relations around mobilisations rather than studying activism in itself This perspective thus becomes relevant for scholars and activists engaged with the Israeli Palestinian conflict and those interested in global rights discourses

Flavius Josephus: Translation and Commentary, Volume 1B: Judean War 2 Steve Mason, 2008-10-16 Volume 1b in Brill's Josephus Project contains Book 2 of Josephus Judean War translation and commentary This book deals with a period of enormous consequence from King Herod's death 4 BCE to the first phase of the war against Rome 66 CE It covers the succession struggle the governments of Herod's sons Judea's incorporation as a Roman province some notable governors including Pilate Kings Agrippa I and II the Judean philosophical schools featuring the Essenes various rebel movements and the Sicarii tensions between Judeans and their neighbors events leading up to the revolt the failed intervention of the Syrian legate Cestius Gallus and preparations for war in Judea and Galilee The commentary aims at a balance between historical and literary issues

Arab Minority Nationalism in Israel Amal Jamal, 2011-03-17 National minorities and their behaviour have become a central topic in comparative politics in the last few decades Using the relationship between the state of Israel and the Arab national minority as a case study this book provides a thorough examination of minority nationalism and state minority relations in Israel Placing the case of the Arab national minority in Israel within a comparative framework the author analyses major debates taking place in the field of collective action social movements civil society and indigenous rights He demonstrates the impact of the state regime on the political behaviours of the minorities and sheds light on the similarities and differences between various types of minority nationalisms and the nature of the relationship such minorities could have with their states Drawing empirical and theoretical conclusions that contribute to studies of Israeli politics political minorities indigenous populations and conflict issues this book will be a valuable reference for students and those in policy working on issues around Israeli politics Palestinian politics and the broader Palestinian Israeli conflict

Consuming Tradition, Manufacturing Heritage Nezar Alsayyad, 2013-12-16 From the Grand Tour to today's packages holidays the last two centuries have witnessed an exponential growth in travel and tourism and as the twenty first century unfolds people of every class and from every country will be wandering to every part of the planet Meanwhile tourist destinations throughout the world find themselves in ever more fierce competition those places marginalized in today s global industrial and information economy perceiving tourism as perhaps the only means of surviving But mass tourism has raised the local and international passions as people decry the irreversible destruction of traditional places and historic sites Against these trends and at a time when standardized products and services are marketed worldwide there is an increasing demand for built environments that promise unique cultural experiences This has led many nations and groups to engage in the parallel processes of facilitating the consumption of tradition and of manufacturing tradition The contributors to this volume drawn from a wide range of disciplines address these themes within the following sections Traditions and Tourism Rethinking the Other Imaging and Manufacturing Heritage Manufacturing and Consuming Global and Local Their studies dealing with very different times environments and geographic locales will shed new light on how tourist gaze transforms the reality of built spaces into cultural imagery

The Linguistic Landscape In Israel Through Palestinian Eyes Rawia Hayik, 2025-07-24 This book uses a sociolinguistic framework to explore how language serves as a marker of national identity in conflict zones focusing on the dystopian representation of Arabic as a minority language in Israel through the perspectives of Israeli Palestinian students Using a documentary photography research tool PhotoVoice minoritized college students from Northern Israel were invited to document and reflect on the signage in their area Content analysis of students reflections revealed not only a problematic linguistic reality in which the presence of Arabic was limited and inaccurate but also their experience of the space as local inhabitants The book chapters shed light on their profound perceptions and aspirations as passers by toward the misrepresentation of their native language in the country The contribution of the book lies in demonstrating the potential of the innovative tool PhotoVoice in developing awareness of the explicit and implicit messages delivered through linguistic landscapes It encourages action for achieving utopian more inclusive linguistic realities where minority languages are appropriately represented

Mapping Exile and Return Alain Epp Weaver, 2014-01-01 One of the most persistent if vexing issues facing not just theology but also political theory sociology and other disciplines is the ongoing Palestinian Israeli conflict For theology the problem is especially nettlesome on account of the church s shared history and tradition with the Jewish people Palestinians including Palestinian Christians bear the brunt of suffering and dispossession in the current situation yet are burdened even more by Christian political appropriation of Zionism Through an analysis of Palestinian refugee mapping practices for returning to their homeland Alain Epp Weaver takes up the troubled issue of Palestinian dispossession and argues against the political theology embedded in Zionist cartographic practices that refuse and seek to eliminate evidence of co existence Instead Alain Epp Weaver offers a political theology of redrawing the territory compatible with a bi national vision for a shared Palestinian Israeli future
