Reclaimed Powers:

Reclaimed Powers David Gutmann, 1994 A unique feature of human development is that mothers and fathers are bound to a long period of child rearing during which the continuity of our species depends on the fulfilment of distinct parental roles and on the suppression of psychological potentials that conflict with those roles But once the parental emergency is over the author argues men and women can assert those parts of their personalities curbed by the restrictions of raising children It is this shift in roles a product of evolution found throughout our species that led David Gutmann to propose a new psychology of ageing based not on the threat of loss but on the promise of important new pleasures and capacities Reclaim Your

Lived Mission in 21st Century Britain Benjamin Aldous,2024-10-30 Nearly 30 years after South African missiologist David Bosch explored what he called elements of an emerging ecumenical missionary paradigm Lived Mission in 21st Century Britain propose that there is still work to be done ecumenically for missiology to inhabit rightfully its role as critical friend crosser of boundaries advocate for justice and intellectual ankle biter Bringing together a unique array of contributors the book considers what mission as practice looks like both through the eyes of those who are well established as theologians and reflective practitioners and those who are working on the ground and have written little on their daily lived experience Chapter authors include Jan Nowotnik Graham Adams Shemil Mathew Timothy Boniface Carroll Bisi Adenekan Elizabeth Joy Heather Major Tom Hackett James Woodward Raj Bhara Patta Paul Weller Niall Cooper Lisa Adjei Shermara Fletcher and Anupama Ranawana Bulletin University of Michigan. Museum of Art,1997 Yahweh's Coming of Age Jason Bembry,2011-06-30 In the Judeo Christian tradition the deity Yahweh is often portrayed as an old man One of the epithets used of Yahweh in the Hebrew Bible the Ancient of Days is a source for this depiction of God as elderly However when we look closely at the early traditions of biblical Israel we see a different picture God is relatively youthful a warrior who defends his people This book is an examination of the question How did God become old To answer this question Bembry examines the way that aging and elderly human beings are portrayed in the Hebrew Bible Then he makes a similar foray into the texts written in Ugaritic a language quite close to ancient Hebrew which provide a window into the ancient culture just north of Israel during the Late Bronze Age He finds that Israel s God shared attributes with the Ugaritic deities Baal and El One prominent aspect of the similar attributes was that Yahweh s depiction as a youthful warrior paralleled the way Baal was portrayed The transformation from young deity to Ancient of Days took place at the intersection of two trajectories in the traditions of Israel One trajectory is reflected in the way that apocalyptic traditions found in the book of Daniel recast the old Canaanite mythic imagery seen in the Ugaritic and early biblical texts This trajectory allows Yahweh to take on qualities such as old age that were not associated with him during most of Israel's history but were associated with El in the Canaanite traditions. The second trajectory, a depiction of Israel's God as elderly, is connected with the development of the idea of Yahweh as father. The more comfortable the biblical traditions became with portraying Yahweh as a father, a metaphor that was not embraced in the early traditions, the easier it became for the people of Israel to think of Yahweh as occupying a stage of the human life cycle. These two trajectories came together in the 2nd century B.C.E., the chronological backdrop for Daniel 7 and found expression in a new epithet for Yahweh: Ancient of Days.

In Her Own Time Jeanne Stevenson Moessner, 2000-05-17.
