Reclaiming Identity Realist Theory And The Predicament Of Postmodernism:

Reclaiming Identity Paula M. L. Moya, Michael R. Hames-García, 2000-12-14 Identity is one of the most hotly debated topics in literary theory and cultural studies This bold and groundbreaking collection of ten essays argues that identity is not just socially constructed but has real epistemic and political consequences for how people experience the world Advocating a postpositivist realist approach to identity the essays examine the ways in which theory politics and activism clash with or complement each other providing an alternative to the widely influential postmodernist understandings of identity Although theoretical in orientation this dynamic collection deals with specific social groups Chicanas or African Americans gay men and lesbians Asian Americans and others and concrete social issues directly related to race ethnicity sexuality epistemology and political resistance Satya Mohanty's brilliant exegesis of Toni Morrison's Beloved serves as a launching pad for the collection The essays that follow written by prominent and up and coming scholars address a range of topics from the writings of Cherrie Moraga Franz Fanon Joy Kogawa and Michael Nava to the controversy surrounding racial program housing on college campuses and work toward a truly interdisciplinary approach to identity Reclaiming Identity: Realist Theory and the Predicament of Postmodernism Moya, Paula M. L. (ed.), 2001 Identities has become very important in today's world in which globalisation tends to wipe out differences between groups It is one of the most hotly debated topics in many disciplines including literary theory and cultural studies This bold and groundbreaking collection of essays argues that identity is not just socially constructed but has real epistemic and political consequences for how people experience the world Identity Politics Reconsidered L. Alcoff, M. Hames-García, S. Mohanty, Michael Hames-García, Paula M.L. Moya, 2006-01-09 Based on the ongoing work of the agenda setting Future of Minority Studies national research project Identity Politics Reconsidered reconceptualizes the scholarly and political significance of social identity It focuses on the deployment of identity within ethnic women's disability and gay and lesbian studies in order to stimulate discussion about issues that are simultaneously theoretical and practical ranging from ethics and epistemology to political theory and pedagogical practice This collection of powerful essays by both well known and emerging scholars offers original answers to questions concerning the analytical legitimacy of identity and experience and the relationships among cultural autonomy moral universalism and progressive politics (in)fusion Approach Ranjan Ghosh, 2006 In fusion theory challenges efforts to see theory as inhibiting by presenting an approach that is innovative eclectic and subtle in order to draw out competing and constellating ideas and opinions This collected volume of essays examines In fusion theory and demonstrates how the theory can be applied to the reading of various works of Indian English novelists Rethinking Postmodernism(s) Katrin Amian, 2008-01-01 Rethinking Postmodernism revisits three historical sites of American literary postmodernism the early postmodernism of Thomas Pynchon's V 1961 the emancipatory postmodernism of Toni Morrison's Beloved 1987 and the late or post postmodernism of Jonathan Safran Foer's Everything Is Illuminated 2002 For the first time it confronts these texts with the pragmatist philosophy of Charles Sanders Peirce staging a conceptual dialogue between pragmatism and postmodernism that historicizes and recontextualizes customary readings of postmodern fiction The book is a must read for all interested in current reassessments of literary postmodernism in new critical dialogues between seminal postmodern texts and in recent attempts to theorize the post postmodern moment Teaching Contested Narratives Zvi Bekerman, Michalinos Zembylas, 2014-01-30 In troubled societies narratives about the past tend to be partial and explain a conflict from narrow perspectives that justify the national self and condemn exclude and devalue the enemy and their narrative Through a detailed analysis Teaching Contested Narratives reveals the works of identity historical narratives and memory as these are enacted in classroom dialogues canonical texts and school ceremonies Presenting ethnographic data from local contexts in Cyprus and Israel and demonstrating the relevance to educational settings in countries which suffer from conflicts all over the world the authors explore the challenges of teaching narratives about the past in such societies discuss how historical trauma and suffering are dealt with in the context of teaching and highlight the potential of pedagogical interventions for reconciliation The book shows how the notions of identity memory and reconciliation can perpetuate or challenge attachments to essentialized ideas about peace and conflict Metamodernism Robin van den Akker, Alison Gibbons,, Timotheus Vermeulen, 2017-11-29 Metamodernism Historicity Affect Depth brings together many of the most influential voices in the scholarly and critical debate about post postmodernism and twenty first century aesthetics arts and culture By relating cutting edge analyses of contemporary literature the visual arts and film and television to recent social technological and economic developments the volume provides both a map and an itinerary of today s metamodern cultural landscape As its organising principle the book takes Fredric Jameson s canonical arguments about the waning of historicity affect and depth in the postmodern culture of western capitalist societies in the twentieth century and re evaluates and reconceptualises these notions in a twenty first century context In doing so it shows that the contemporary moment should be regarded as a transitional period from the postmodern and into the metamodern cultural moment The SAGE Handbook of Identities Margaret Wetherell, Chandra Talpade Mohanty, 2010-03-23 Overall its breaking of disciplinary isolation enhancing of mutual understanding and laying out of a transdisciplinary platform makes this Handbook a milestone in identity studies Sociology Increasingly identities are the site for interdisciplinary initiatives and identity research is at the heart of many transdisciplinary research centres around the world No single social science discipline owns identity research which makes it a difficult topic to categorize The SAGE Handbook of Identities systematizes this complex field by incorporating its interdisciplinary character to provide a comprehensive overview of its themes in contemporary research while still acknowledging the historical and philosophical significance of the concept of identity Drawing on a global scholarship the Handbook has four parts Frameworks presents the main theoretical and methodological perspectives in identities research Formations covers the major formative forces for identities such as culture globalisation migratory patterns biology and so on Categories reviews research on the core social categories central to identity such as ethnicity gender sexuality disability and intersections between these Sites and Context develops a series of case studies of crucial sites and contexts where identity is at stake such as social movements relationships work places and citizenship

Twenty-First-Century Feminist Classrooms S. Sánchez-Casal,A. MacDonald,2002-09-13 This book is centrally concerned with crucial theoretical and practical aspects of teaching in the national and global borderlands of gender race and sexuality studies The cross cultural feminist focus of this anthology allows the contributors to consider the various ways in which global and national frameworks intersect in the classroom and in students thinking and also the ways in which power and authority are developed directed and deployed in the feminist classroom This volume provides a critical elaboration of provocative self reflexive questions for feminist cultural and intellectual practice for the 21st century In doing so the volume provides a site for engaged feminist self criticism for the specific purpose of reinvigorating a critical pedagogical practice grounded in multicultural feminist identities

Cultural Migrations and Gendered Subjects Silvia Castro-Borrego,Maria Isabel Romero Ruiz,2011-01-18 The present volume explores through cultural and literary representations the contributions of women to the construction of knowledge in an ever changing global world as migrant subjects The essays contained in this book also focus on the female body as a site of physical violence and abuse fighting prevalent stereotypes about women s representations and identities This collection intends to enter a forum of discussion in which the colonial past serves as a point of reference for the analysis of contemporary issues Women s strategies for building possible identities are seen to be based on their own experiences seeking the ways in which the public marking and marketing of the female body within the western male imaginary contributes to the making of women s social and personal identities The different articles contained in this volume examine issues of gender and boundaries the realities of women as colonial and postcolonial subjects and darker realities such as alienation and discrimination as a result of migration racism and colonization analysed through a variety of critical perspectives The gendered raced classed dimensions and mixed heritages not only of white women but also of women of the African Diaspora these are important issues for the construction of knowledge and identity in our present multicultural societies and can potentially change the ways we conceptualize situate and engage the humanities in our scholarly work and in our social and cultural policies These women their presumed sexuality and their capacity to produce hybrid subjects as well as their supposed irrationality make them a singularly disruptive figure in our contemporary world this interpretation has its roots in the treatment of women in colonial times especially when they were out of the margins of respectable society The volume is addressed to a wide readership both scholarly and those interested in investigating the dynamics of the social and cultural conceptualizations of our multicultural and multiethnic contemporary societies marked by the intercultural exchanges of migratory subjects from a gender perspective

growing interest in a series of issues related to migration including identity formation and change the role of social capital and social networks ethnic discrimination racism and xenophobia socio political participation and mobilisation and the complex nature of the causal mechanisms linked to migration issues that are better highlighted and investigated using qualitative methods Moving away from the quantitative and empiricist positivist approaches that have often characterised migration research Qualitative Methods in Migration Studies explores in a concise but comprehensive way the key issues involved in researching migratory phenomena in a qualitative manner It addresses themes including the basic characteristics of contemporary migration qualitative research into social processes related to migration and the relationship between theory research design and practice Drawing upon empirical case studies and a series of real and hypothetical examples the book develops a critical realist alternative both to empiricism and interpretivist social constructionist and post structuralist relativism in qualitative migration research With special emphasis on the meta theoretical dimensions of qualitative research practice this volume connects qualitative findings to policy formation and politics making exploring the multiple dimensions involved in researching migratory phenomena such as ontology epistemology methodology ethics and research practice As such it will be of interest to students and researchers in migration across the social sciences     Advancing Critical Pedagogy and Praxis across Educational Settings ,2023-11-13 Advancing Critical Pedagogy and Praxis Across Educational Settings is both an inquiry and response of gratitude to the work of critical scholars educators practitioners and researchers who honor the complex realities of partnerships between school communities and institutions of higher education This volume centers the voices of those who explore across time and in between spaces to illuminate synergistic approaches pathways to new ideas and consciousness relationships of mutual respect and human centered perspectives This collective of narratives reveals the power of local schools and communities partnering with universities and organizations to disrupt inequitable social processes The authors interrogate the creation and permeation of boundaries to understand interconnectivity of educational practices community and the impact of social contexts     Identity Complex Michael Roy Hames-Garcia, Rethinking ideas about identity politics and critical thought     Red Land, Red Power Sean Kicummah Teuton,2008-06-03 A new interpretation of the literature of the Red Power movement that reconceives the role of identity in the political empowerment of Native Americans     Fugitive Thought Michael Roy Hames-Garcia,2004 In Fugitive Thought Michael Hames Garca argues that writings by prisoners are instances of practical social theory that seek to transform the world Unlike other authors who have studied prisons or legal theory Hames Garca views prisoners as political and social thinkers whose ideas are as important as those of lawyers and philosophers As key moral terms like justice solidarity and freedom have come under suspicion in the post Civil Rights era political discussions on the Left have reached an impasse Fugitive Thought reexamines and reinvigorates these concepts through a fresh approach to philosophies of justice and freedom combining the study of legal theory and of prison literature to show how the critiques and moral visions of dissidents and participants in prison movements can contribute to the shaping and realization of workable ethical conceptions Fugitive Thought focuses on writings by black and Latina o lawyers and prisoners to flesh out the philosophical underpinnings of ethical claims within legal theory and prison activism Michael Hames Garca is assistant professor of English and of philosophy interpretation and culture at Binghamton University State University of New York

Identity in Education S. Sánchez-Casal,2009-05-25 This volume explores the impact of social identity on teaching and learning The contributors argue from the perspective of diverse disciplinary and educational contexts that mobilizing identities in the classroom is a necessary part of progressive educators efforts to transform knowledge making and to create a more just and democratic society

The Self Examined Jenny McGill,2018-09-04 Through a fresh investigation of the relationship between faith and identity this diverse group of international contributors offers an engaging discussion of human identity and specifically Christian identity From a biblical foundation they address theological discussions of identity and contemporary cultural themes such as migration ethnicity embodiment attachment and gender Straightforward and thought provoking The Self Examined is an accessible guide to this wide ranging and important issue

Transnational Testimonios Patricia DeRocher,2018-10-16 The activist storytelling practice of testimonio long associated with Latin American struggles for justice forges coalitions across social differences for the purpose of social change Beyond Central and South America Patricia DeRocher examines testimonios from a wide range of geopolitical sites including Argentina Egypt Haiti India Jamaica and Trinidad as well as the United States and suggests that feminist testimonios offer a model for cross border feminist alliance building Transnational Testimonios focuses on the questions of translation knowledge and power that characterize the creation and reception of these life writings DeRocher demonstrates how these stories can mobilize social activism and intervene in epistemological impasses between the Global North and South offering vital tools for reimagining transnational feminist politics

Teaching AIDS Dilip K. Das,2019-02-18 This book approaches the subject of AIDS pedagogy by analysing the complex links between representation or discourse ideology power relations and practices of self understood from the perspective of embodiment While there is a fairly large amount of literature available on the social economic psychological and policy dimensions of the epidemic there is virtually nothing on its cultural politics As a critique of the national AIDS pedagogy this book attempts to fill the gap It addresses important issues in cultural studies body studies medical humanities disease control policy and behaviour change communication strategies This book will be of interest to researchers and students of culture studies and social sciences especially social anthropology community health health management and gender studies

Identity Gerald Izenberg,2019-03-08 Identity The Necessity of a Modern Idea is the first comprehensive history of identity as the answer to the question who or what am I It covers the century from the end of World War I when identity in this sense first became an issue for writers and philosophers to 2010 when European political leaders declared multiculturalism a failure just as Canada which pioneered it was hailing its success Along the way the book examines Erik Erikson's concepts of psychological identity and identity crisis which made the word famous the turn to collective identity and the rise of identity politics in Europe and America varieties and theories of group identity debates over accommodating collective identities within liberal democracy the relationship between individual and group identity the postmodern critique of identity as a concept and the ways it nonetheless transformed the social sciences and altered our ideas of ethics At the same time the book is an argument for the validity and indispensability of identity properly understood Identity was not a concept before the twentieth century because it was taken for granted The slaughter of World War I undermined the honored identities of prewar Europe and as a result the idea of identity as something objective and stable was thrown into question at the same time that people began to sense that it was psychologically and socially necessary We can't be at home in our bodies act effectively in the world or interact comfortably with others without a stable sense of who we are Gerald Izenberg argues that while it is a mistake to believe that our identities are givens that we passively discover about ourselves decreed by God destiny or nature our most important identities have an objective foundation in our existential situation as bodies social beings and creatures who aspire to meaning and transcendence as well as in the legitimacy of our historical particularity
