and thus live in conditions which are generally described as being poor or even below the poverty line and because of their longing for some luxuries and often bare necessities the poorer people become trapped into the credit card and loan systems on offer borrowing and buying often beyond their means enticed too by the many advertisements in the printed media and on TV telling them they can have everything they want now and pay for it later by borrowing up to the limits or against the equity of their homes often for goods or services they do not really need or want Others again take out mortgages to buy expensive homes beyond their means or ability to repay the often over valued and priced homes At times also through their sheer ignorance people are unaware of the consequences of their often impulsive actions and motives The reason for this in many cases is they are so involved in running their lives trying to make ends meet that they have no time to look outside the proverbial square Others again become involved in activities such as compulsive gambling drinking and smoking which consume a large proportion of their disposable income In our modern world it is also becoming more evident through the almost daily exposure of corrupt officials crooked trades people unethical businesses industries and service providers that honesty and ethics seem to have disappeared and have been replaced by the terminology me me me and profit profit profit at any cost People have to become more and more vigilant and aware of what is going on around them and protect them selves by whatever means available to them from the impact these outside influences have on their finances lives families and relationships Consequently many when realizing what is happening try to turn their lives around to break out of this vicious cycle of monetary enslavement but due to the circumstances they find themselves in very few actually can see a way out of their misery or manage to do something about it Many in their despair seek outside help by attending seminars and workshop that promise them they will change their lives and circumstances and more often than not pay enormous amounts of money to secure a seat at these sessions and when one listens to some of the talk it sounds quite logical and believable but does it work During the session people get all fired up heading for home to turn into practice what they have learned only to find that after a few weeks their situations and conditions have not changed leaving them with a feeling of disappointment and helplessness about their situation The facts are nothing will change unless people themselves make a personal effort commit them selves too and have the desire to make the changes and to see them through A favored saying which is often used is that you must believe you already have what you desire otherwise it cannot come into your life But how can you believe in something you know and through your eyes you can see it not to be true because in the process of co creation your mind is playing a very important part and when you can only see the opposite around you day after day and when whatever you try does not work how can you believe you already have what you want or desire Consequently when this happens people become disillusioned and start to believe that they have no power over what happens in their lives and many even stop trying altogether The contents of the book are based on events situations and conditions which actually occurred in the author's life and are happening to the average working families in Australia and world wide on a daily basis in their lives Through

Unwrapping Beloved's Gift, Co-Creating Soul's Song Isaura Barrera, 2019-04-10 I think the best way you could describe this text is as put it in the Introduction a meditative map I know for certain that I did not grasp everything and also that I could return to it over the years and read it again and again always finding something new or something that had before remained unseen due to my own place in my own unique spiritual journey Lauren Sapala writer blogger and coach One day unexpected and un hoped for the world we had thought irretrievably lost may be returned to us I Zaleski 2006 It began with reading John O Donohue's Anam Cara I remembered I had once known such a friend and reached out to reconnect Love opened the door hope kept it open and faith gave me the courage to walk through These words summarized my subsequent spiritual journey as I awakened to deep friendship with a human beloved as well as with Divine Beloved This book has two purposes to describe an inner spiritual journey inspired by deep friendship and to offer that description as a meditative map for others Isaura Barrera identifies five way stations that trace the path carved out by the song of love hope and faith evoked by her renewed friendship Each station is presented descriptively rather than prescriptively as an invitation to others on similar journeys Reflections at each station are linked to scriptural passages highlighting connections between deep friendship with a human beloved and deep friendship with Divine Beloved

The Souls of Mixed Folk Michele Elam, 2011-02-21 The Souls of Mixed Folk examines representations of mixed race in literature and the arts that redefine new millennial aesthetics and politics Focusing on black white mixes Elam analyzes expressive works novels drama graphic narrative late night television art installations as artistic rejoinders to the perception that post Civil Rights politics are bereft and post Black art is apolitical Reorienting attention to the cultural invention of mixed race from the social sciences to the humanities Elam considers the creative work of Lezley Saar Aaron McGruder Nate Creekmore Danzy Senna Colson Whitehead Emily Raboteau Carl Hancock Rux and Dave Chappelle All these writers and artists address mixed race as both an aesthetic challenge and a social concern and together they gesture toward a poetics of social justice for the mulatto millennium The Souls of Mixed Folk seeks a middle way between competing hagiographic and apocalyptic impulses in mixed race scholarship between those who proselytize mixed race as the great hallelujah to the race problem and those who can only hear the alarmist bells of civil rights destruction Both approaches can obscure some of the more critically astute engagements with new millennial iterations of mixed race by the multi generic cohort of contemporary writers artists and performers discussed in this book The Souls of Mixed Folk offers case studies of their creative work in an effort to expand the contemporary idiom about mixed race in the so called post race moment asking how might new millennial expressive forms suggest an aesthetics of mixed race And how might such an aesthetics productively reimagine the relations between race art and social equity in the twenty first century
