such as art and music as well as in solving personal crises such as family disruption and patriarchal oppression The authors address the subject matter through analyses of the frequent and destructive failures of language or just noise to capture or express the nuances of the inner life of a person It is this very ineffability of self that renders the spiritual emotional and interior life of individuals beyond cognition and perception of the straightforward sorts embraced by most cognitive disciplines The contributors come from a variety of cross disciplinary fields to bring forth the possibilities for an intuitive and creative rich and growing inner life for a human This text appeals to students researchers and practitioners
