Globalization in Africa Etham B. Mijah, Moses E. U. Tedheke, Usman A. Tar, 2016-10-28 This book presents critical perspectives on the impacts of globalization in Africa with particular reference to the crisis of development and governance the crisis of peace and security and the environmental crisis It explores both global and local factors that exacerbate these crises and seeks solutions to these challenges With a strong slant on African experience and perspectives the book reveals that globalization has presented Africa with both challenges and opportunities for governance and existence in an increasingly inter connected planet

Pedagogy and the University Monica McLean, 2006-06-13 The question of what form of pedagogy should be used at university is a complex and important one So too is the question of how the contemporary university should develop In this book Monica McLean advances fresh and lucid arguments concerning both Drawing on the theories of Jurgen Habermas she demonstrates how these two apparently disparate questions are in fact closely linked In the process McLean provides unique insights into the relationship between macro and micro issues in higher education

EBOOK: E-Learning Groups and Communities David McConnell, 2006-03-16 How can we design networked e learning courses to ensure students participate in them and engage in quality learning outcomes What happens in an e learning course that is designed to foster group work and a sense of community How can we research e learning practice in ways that will enhance the processes of learning and teaching This book outlines approaches to networked e learning course design that are underpinned by a belief that students learn best in these contexts when they are organised in groups and communities As such the book is one of the first to provide a detailed analysis of what goes on in e learning groups and communities But how do students react to working in e learning groups and communities What determines their willingness to adopt new forms of learning in order to participate in these new courses What actually happens in an e learning community and what impact does this have on students and tutors This book examines these key questions through a variety of research approaches aimed at exploring the experience of e learners as they participate in successful e groups and communities It also offers ways in which learning outcomes may be achieved in these communities and outlines the specific skills that students would develop through e learning

E learning Groups and Communities is essential reading for teachers trainers managers researchers and students involved in e learning courses as well as people interested in improving the quality of the learning experience

Authenticity in and Through Teaching in Higher Education Carolin Kreber, 2013 In developing the notion of the scholarship of teaching as an authentic practice the author draws on several complementary philosophical ideas to explore the nature of this practice why it is imperative for universities to engage in it what meaningful engagement would look like and the conditions under which it might qualify as authentic Core constructs employed include practice virtue communicative action being power critical reflection and transformation The scholarship of teaching is described as a practice sustained through critical reflection and critical self reflection Being a scholar of teaching is viewed as an ongoing transformative learning process a process of becoming authentic the latter ultimately aimed at both helping students to become authentic and creating a better world in which to teach learn and live

Power, Knowledge and the Academy V. Gillies, H. Lucey, 2007-08-24 This book takes a close up and critical look at both the elusive and blatant workings and consequences of power in a range of everyday sites in universities Chapters focus on specific locations in which power shapes personal and institutional knowledge including student supervisor relationships research teams networking and literature reviews

The Emergence of Postfeminist

Identities in Higher Education Eleftheria Atta, 2021-05-16 By drawing on qualitative research conducted in universities in Cyprus this book presents an account of life in the academy from a feminist perspective In doing so the texts uncover new gendered identities emerging as a result of neoliberal and postfeminist discourses in Higher Education Adopting a psychosocial lens and drawing on theories of affect and performativity this volume explains academics responses to growing levels of stress anxiety precarity and competition in their professional environment Chapters offer rich observation of how academic staff and faculty negotiate aspects of femininity and masculinity within the academy and so highlights the performance of gendered academic subjectivities as a way in which academics deal with increasing pressures and anxiety Ultimately proposing a typography of emergent affective identities including industry academics fossilised family and wannabe academics the volume yields important insights into the current workings of Higher Education and shows the personal and professional impacts of neoliberal dynamics This volume will prove to be a useful resource for researchers and high level scholars in the fields of education sociology of education and gender studies More generally scholars and academics with an interest in the changing face of contemporary Higher Education will find this book informative

Reconceptualising Evaluative Practices in HE Murray Saunders, Paul Trowler, Veronica Bamber, 2011-06-01 I congratulate the authors on what I believe will be a very interesting and useful book The language is accessible and the structure of the argument is coherent and consistent This is a very interesting and significant contribution to the field of higher education in general and scholarship in evaluative practices in particular Judyth Sachs Deputy Vice Chancellor and Provost at Macquarie University Sydney Australia With an increasing and arguably troubling confidence in the use of international league tables student surveys and research ratings to evidence the value of higher education such scrutiny of higher education evaluation practices has never been more timely I believe the book may contribute most in empowering evaluators themselves to ensure that the outcomes of evaluation can be used to inform strategic priorities and decisionmaking in more meaningful ways Higher Education Review Vol 44 No 1 October 2011 A considerable amount of time and effort is invested in attempts to control change and improve the higher education sector These attempts involve evaluative practice but we have not yet conceptualised the evaluations that take place so therefore the opportunity to understand the value and nature of different types of intervention is frequently missed This book seeks to dismantle traditional boundaries in approaches to evaluation assessing how value and worth is attributed to activities in higher education It looks at evaluative practice in Higher Education rather than the evaluation of Higher Education Reconceptualising Evaluation in Higher Education aims to aid understanding drawing on a set of evaluative practices from the UK and internationally The book will be of value and relevance to higher education providers and policy makers within higher education Contributors Veronica Bamber Margo Blythman Val Chapman Bernadette Charlier Rob Cuthbert Harry Hubball Kerri Lee Krause Neil Lent Alan McCluskey Ian McNay Joan Machell John M Owen Marion L Pearson Michael

Prosser Christoph Rosenbusch Murray Saunders Uwe Schmidt Alison Shreeve Paul Trowler Massimiliano Vaira Christine Winberg Being an Academic Joëlle Fanghanel, 2011-08-26 The role of academics in universities worldwide has undergone unprecedented change over the past decade In this book Fanghanel explores concepts of what it means to be an academic in the 21st century Higher Education Management and Operational Research Gary Bell, Jon Warwick, Peter Galbraith, 2013-02-11 Higher Education in the UK operates in a rapidly changing and highly complex environment Universities need to adapt quickly to this environment and managers must begin to explore new angles and approaches in addressing the challenges they are now facing This book offers a tool box of metaphors and associative Operational Research OR approaches Metaphors are a powerful way of seeing but also a way of not seeing Furthermore the OR discipline has significantly evolved over the last 30 years which has led to the emergence of three distinctive intellectual areas namely Hard OR Soft OR and Methodological Pluralism OR Drawing on these intellectual areas and on the experience of educational and OR practitioners the book highlights the use of various OR approaches to a variety of complex and uncertain problems encountered in higher education management The book aims to explore new perspectives in HE management thinking and to describe and illustrate the use of OR methodologies methods and techniques in helping HE managers to make informed management decisions The Knowledge Business Rob Imrie, 2016-03-03 This book provides a critique of the knowledge business and describes and evaluates its different manifestations in and impacts on the university sector Its focus is the social sciences and in particular housing and urban studies Drawing on a wide range of experiences both in the UK and elsewhere it illustrates the changing management of the academy and the development by university managers of instruments or techniques of control to ensure that academics are disciplined in ways that are commensurate with achieving commercial goals The individual chapters highlight the different ways in which the academy is being put to work for commercial gain and they evaluate how far the public service ethos of the universities is coming apart in a context in which what is to be serviced is increasingly a private clientele defined by their ability to pay The Knowledge Business examines the contradictions and tensions associated with these processes highlighting the implications for the academic labour process and the future of the academy
