Recognition Responsibility And Rights:

Liberal Rights and Responsibilities Christopher Heath Wellman, 2014 In this book Christopher Heath Wellman offers original theories of political legitimacy and our obligation to obey the law and then building upon these accounts defends a number of distinctive positions concerning the rights and responsibilities individual citizens separatist groups and political states have regarding one another Jurisdiction, Recognition and Enforcement in Matrimonial and Parental Responsibility Matters Cristina González Beilfuss, Laura Carpaneto, Thalia Kruger, Ilaria Pretelli, Mirela Župan, 2023-07-01 This authoritative Commentary on the recast Regulation 2019 1111 on matters of matrimonial and parental responsibility presents a deep analysis of the Regulation and is authored by leading experts in family law and private international law Employing a granular article by article approach the Commentary acts as a detailed reference point on the uniform jurisdiction rules for divorce legal separation and marriage annulment as well as for disputes over parental responsibility with an international element including child abduction

Regulating Family Responsibilities Jo Bridgeman, 2016-04-08 This collection brings together some of the most eminent and exciting authors researching family responsibilities to examine understandings of the day to day responsibilities which people undertake within families and the role of the law in the construction of those understandings The authors explore a range of questions fundamental to our understanding of responsibility in family life To whom and to what ends are family members responsible Is responsibility primarily a matter of care Can we fulfil our family responsibilities by paying those to whom we owe responsibility Or by paying others to fulfil our caring obligations for us In each of these circumstances the chapters in this collection explore what it means to have family responsibilities what constitutes an adequate performance of such responsibilities and the point at which the state intervenes At the heart of this collection is an interest in the way in which the changing family affects people's perception and exercise their family responsibilities and how the law attempts to regulate and understand those responsibilities The essays range across intact and separated or fragmented families from lone and shared parenting in single homes to caring across households and even across international boundaries to reflect on the actual caring responsibilities of family members and on the fulfilment of financial responsibilities in families This collection seeks to advance our understanding of the attempts of the law and its limits in regulating the responsibilities which family members take for each other

The Course of Recognition Paul Ricoeur, 2007-09-30 Recognition though it figures profoundly in our understanding of objects and persons identity and ideas has never before been the subject of a single sustained philosophical inquiry This work by one of contemporary philosophy's most distinguished voices pursues recognition through its various philosophical guises and meanings and through the course of recognition seeks to develop nothing less than a proper hermeneutics of mutual recognition Originally delivered as lectures at the Institute for the Human Sciences at Vienna the essays collected here consider recognition in three of its forms The first chapter focusing on knowledge of objects points to the role of recognition in modern epistemology the second

concerned with what might be called the recognition of responsibility traces the understanding of agency and moral responsibility from the ancients up to the present day and the third takes up the problem of recognition and identity which extends from Hegel's discussion of the struggle for recognition through contemporary arguments about identity and multiculturalism Throughout Paul Ricoeur probes the significance of our capacity to recognize people and objects and of self recognition and self identity in relation to the gift of mutual recognition Drawing inspiration from such literary texts as the Odyssey and Oedipus at Colonus and engaging some of the classic writings of the Continental philosophical tradition by Kant Hobbes Hegel Augustine Locke and Bergson The Course of Recognition ranges over vast expanses of time and subject matter and in the process suggests a number of highly insightful ways of thinking through the major questions of modern philosophy

Sovereignty & the Responsibility to Protect Luke Glanville, 2013-12-20 In 2011 the United Nations Security Council adopted Resolution 1973 authorizing its member states to take measures to protect Libyan civilians from Muammar Gadhafi's forces In invoking the responsibility to protect the resolution draws on the principle that sovereign states are responsible and accountable to the international community for the protection of their populations and that the international community can act to protect populations when national authorities fail to do so The idea that sovereignty includes the responsibility to protect is often seen as a departure from the classic definition but it actually has deep historical roots In Sovereignty and the Responsibility to Protect Luke Glanville argues that this responsibility extends back to the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries and that states have since been accountable for this responsibility to God the people and the international community Over time the right to national self governance came to take priority over the protection of individual liberties but the noninterventionist understanding of sovereignty was only firmly established in the twentieth century and it remained for only a few decades before it was challenged by renewed claims that sovereigns are responsible for protection Glanville traces the relationship between sovereignty and responsibility from the early modern period to the present Inter-American Yearbook on Human Rights / Anuario Interamericano de Derechos Humanos, Volume 38 (2022) (VOLUME IV) Inter-American Comm. on Human Rights, 2024-11-18 The 2022 Inter American Yearbook on Human Rights provides an extract of the principal jurisprudence of the Inter American Commission on Human Rights and the Inter American Court of Human Rights Part One contains the Decisions on the Merits of the Commission and Part Two the Judgments and Decisions of the Court The Yearbook is partly published as an English Spanish bilingual edition Some parts are in English or Spanish only NB This book is part of a four volume set Vol 1 ISBN 978 90 04 71518 9 Vol 2 ISBN 978 90 04 71520 2 Vol 3 ISBN 978 90 04 71522 6 Vol 4 ISBN 978 90 04 71524 0 Recognition in International Law Hersch Lauterpacht, 2012-11 Originally published by Hersch Lauterpacht in 1947 this book presents a detailed study of recognition in international law examining its crucial significance in relation to statehood governments and belligerency The author develops a strong argument for positioning recognition within the context of international law

reacting against the widely accepted conception of it as an area of international politics Numerous examples of the use of law and conscious adherence to legal principle in the practice of states are used to give weight to this perspective This paperback re issue in 2012 includes a newly commissioned Foreword by James Crawford Whewell Professor of International Law at the University of Cambridge and a Fellow of Jesus College Cambridge

Robert R. Williams, 1998-02-10 In this significant contribution to Hegel scholarship Robert Williams develops the most comprehensive account to date of Hegel's concept of recognition Anerkennung Fichte introduced the concept of recognition as a presupposition of both Rousseau's social contract and Kant's ethics Williams shows that Hegel appropriated the concept of recognition as the general pattern of his concept of ethical life breaking with natural law theory yet incorporating the Aristotelian view that rights and virtues are possible only within a certain kind of community He explores Hegel's intersubjective concept of spirit Geist as the product of affirmative mutual recognition and his conception of recognition as the right to have rights Examining Hegel's Jena manuscripts his Philosophy of Right the Phenomenology of Spirit and other works Williams shows how the concept of recognition shapes and illumines Hegel's understandings of crime and punishment morality the family the state sovereignty international relations and war A concluding chapter on the reception and reworking of the concept of recognition by contemporary thinkers including Derrida Levinas and Deleuze demonstrates Hegel's continuing centrality to the philosophical concerns of our age

The Multinational Challenge to Corporation Law

Phillip I. Blumberg, 1993-04-08 Modern multinational corporate groups of incredible complexity conducting world enterprises through numerous subsidiaries have rendered traditional corporation law archaic The traditional concept of each corporation as a separate legal unit clashes with modern economic realities and frustrates effective regulation when applied to affiliated corporations collectively conducting a common enterprise In response there is emerging a law of corporate groups directed at the enterprise rather than its corporate components As national legal systems begin to apply enterprise law to multinationals including their foreign companies the resulting extraterritorial application of national law inevitably leads to international controversy Resolution of the problems presented by conflicting national regulation of multinational enterprises presents a major challenge to international law and foreign relations law as well as to corporation law This volume is a comprehensive review and analysis of these major legal developments and their economic and political implications It concludes with a pathbreaking analysis of the jurisprudential implications of the changing corporate personality in enterprise law focusing on economic organization rather than on the conceptualized legal entity of yesterday

Age Discrimination And Children's Rights Claire Breen, 2006 One of the aims of the United Nations Convention on the Rights of the Child is to accord due recognition to the fact that the child by reason of his physical and mental immaturity needs special safeguards and care including appropriate legal protection before as well as after birth However a question mark hangs over the extent to which special safeguards and care can negatively impact on the rights of the child and result in discrimination against the child in the guise of his physical and mental immaturity This volume explores the extent to which children's rights are secured at the national level and the reasons why children's rights have or have not been recognised and secured by various states at the level of domestic law It also explores the difficulties inherent in the accordance of rights to children in order to ascertain whether they do in fact derive from the particular nature of children or whether they mask a reluctance of states to fulfil their domestic and international rights obligations to children and whether such reluctance constitutes discrimination against children The volume thus explores the theoretical and legal underpinnings of gender and race discrimination at both the domestic and international level and examines the extent to which these may be applied to the area of children's rights
