Reconstructing The Canadian Family:

Reconstructing the Canadian Family Nancy Mandell, Ann Duffy, 1988-01-01 Changing Women, Changing History Diana Lynn Pedersen, 1996 Changing Women Changing History is a bibliographic guide to the scholarship both English and French on Canadian s women s history Organized under broad subject headings and accompanied by author and subject indices it is accessible and comprehensive Telling Tales Catherine A. Cavanaugh, Randi R. Warne, 2011-11-01 Women played a vital role in the shaping of the West in Canada between the 1880s and 1940s Yet surprisingly little is known about their contributions or the differences sex and gender made to the opportunities and obstacles women encountered Telling Tales contributes to the rewriting of western Canada s past by integrating women into the shifting power matrix of class race and gender that undergirded its colonization and settlement This book cover a range of topics African American settlement on Vancouver Island prairie childbirth narratives and Mennonites as domestic servants are but three examples They focus on women of both minority and dominant cultures and reflect the West s characteristically mixed population Telling Tales challenges founding myths of the region and invites a retelling of the story of western Canadian colonization and settlement

Canadian Journal of Physics , 1993 Driven Apart Annis May Timpson, 2001 From the outset of second wave feminism in Canada women have advanced analyses of employment inequality that embrace their labour in both the public and domestic spheres Through campaigns task forces and direct engagement with government departments activists have argued that only when the Canadian state takes account of their roles as care providers can women s full potential as worker citizens be realized A Diversity of Women Joy Parr, 1995-01-01 Our perception of women s roles has changed dramatically since 1945 In this collection Joy Parr has brought together ten studies from a variety of disciplines examining changing ideas about women Mariana Valverde writes about teenage girls in the immediate postwar years and finds that stereotypes of a supposedly simple secure politically quiescent and sexually conformist life do not really hold Joy Parr follows women shoppers of the early 1950s in their sometimes comical encounters with male designers manufacturers and retailers in search of the tools and totems of modernity for their homes Increasingly these homes were in suburban subdivisions whose pleasures and possibilities for women Veronica Strong Boag reconsiders Joan Sangster reminds us that wage earning mothers were numerous in the fifties and sixties and through a juxtaposition of their own stories with contemporary studies tells much about these self denying women s lives Franca Iacovetta discusses the experiences of immigrant and refugee women in northwestern and south central Ontario experiences that were interpreted through their starkly different European wartime memories Based upon her work among the rural women of southwestern Ontario Nora Cebotarev charts the changes that transformed farm families and finances from the sixties to the eighties Ester Reiter compares the recollections of women who had worked together during the 1960s in an auto parts plant in the Niagara Peninsula with contemporary newspaper accounts of a strike and leads us into a complex narrative of gender and militancy Nancy Adamson reconsiders

the diversity of feminist organizing within the province over the decades since second wave feminism began she tracks the different needs and paths that brought women to the women's liberation movement and the ways in which their feminist analysis arose from their experience as community activists Linda Cardinal writes about Franco-Ontarian women charting the ways in which feminist activists challenged and were challenged as they worked with traditional farm and church-based women's groups in northern and eastern Ontario Marlene Brant Castellano and Janice Hill introduce us to four aboriginal women Edna Manitowabi Jeannette Corbiere Lavell Sylvia Maracle and Emily Faries whose work has been to reclaim and build upon the knowledge and responsibilities long entrusted to the women of Ontario's First Nations

Health Services Restructuring in Canada Charles M. Beach, Richard Chaykowski, Shortt, 2007-01-18 The recent Chaoulli Supreme Court decision and health care proposals by Quebec and Alberta have led to renewed debate on how best to restructure the Canadian health care system This volume offers a timely analysis of access and wait times alternative modes of health care delivery and funding methods from the perspective of evidence-based policy making

Reaction and Resistance Dorothy E. Chunn, Susan Boyd, Hester Lessard, 2011-11-01 The image of backlash is pervasive in contemporary debates about the impact of second wave feminism on law and policy But does it really explain the resistance to feminist initiatives for social change in contemporary culture In this timely volume contributors from various disciplines analyze reaction and resistance to feminism in several areas of law and policy child custody child poverty sexual harassment and sexual assault and in a number of institutional sites such as courts legislatures families the mainstream media and the academy Collectively their studies paint a more complicated often contradictory picture of feminism law and social change than the popular image of backlash suggests Reaction and Resistance offers feminists and other activists empirically grounded knowledge that can be used to develop legal and political strategies for change

Reconstructed World Barbara Ann Roberts, 1996 The first biography of Gertrude Richardson 1875-1946 A Reconstructed World reveals her key role in the development of feminism and pacifism in England and Canada and her remarkable accomplishments as both an activist and a writer

Consuming Modernity Cheryl Krasnick Warsh, Dan Malleck, 2013-08-23 Positioning consumer culture in Canada within a wider international context Consuming Modernity explores the roots of modern Western mass culture between 1919 and 1945 when the female worker student and homemaker relied on new products to raise their standards of living and separate themselves from oppressive traditional attitudes Mass-produced consumer products promised to free up women to pursue other interests shaped by marketing campaigns advertisements films and radio shows Concerns over fashion personal hygiene body image and health reflected these new expectations This volume is a fascinating look at how the forces of consumerism defined and redefined a generation

Rebuilding Canadian Party Politics R. Kenneth Carty, William Cross, Lisa Young, 2012-01-01 Canadian party politics collapsed in the early 1990s This book is about that collapse about the end of a party system with a unique pattern of party organization and competition that had governed Canada's national politics for several decades and about the ongoing struggle to build its successor Rebuilding Canadian Party Politics discusses the breakdown of the old party system the emergence of the Reform Party and the Bloc Qu b cois and the fate of the Conservative and New Democratic Parties It focuses on the internal workings of parties in this new era examining the role of professionals new technologies and local activists To understand the ambiguities of our current party system the authors attended local and national party meetings nomination and leadership meetings and campaign kick off rallies They visited local campaign offices to observe the parties grassroots operations and conducted interviews with senior party officials pollsters media and advertising specialists and leader tour directors Written in a lively and accessible style this book will interest students of party politics and Canadian political history as well as general readers eager to make sense of the changes reshaping national politics today

Restructuring Canada's Health Systems: How Do We Get There From Here? Raisa B. Deber, Gail G. Thompson, 1992-12-15 Is the Canadian health care system becoming a victim of its own success It has done what it set out to do provide universal access to all medically necessary health services without financial barriers to patients but expanding technology an aging population and escalating costs strain its ability to continue It is time to explore ways to reorient and restructure the health care system and the services it provides At the Fourth Canadian Conference on Health Economics contributors of international reputation addressed these concerns Their papers collected in this volume consider a wide range of fundamental issues related to health care policies and structures They discuss new developments in health care delivery assess implications of such new policies as home care and health promotion and propose concrete alternatives for restructuring the present system to sustain universal medicine The League for Social Reconstruction Michiel Horn,1980-12-15 In 1931 the first organization of Canadian left wing intellectuals was founded Led by historian Frank Underhill of the University of Toronto and law professor and poet Frank Scott of McGill University the League for Social Reconstruction was critical of industrial capitalism and called for basic social and economic change through educational activity and parliamentary and constitutional channels In the first history of this unique organization Michiel Horn outlines the League s aims and accomplishments and its ideological influence on the CCF and the NDP Initially the LSR avoided the term socialism and remained uncommitted to any political part although its choice of J S Woodsworth as honorary president made its sympathies clear When not long after the LSR s establishment the CCF was founded many League members joined it An attempt to link the LSR openly with the CCF failed but the League soon became known as the CCF s brain trust and the manifesto and programme adopted by the party in 1933 clearly reflected the influence of the LSR members The League s own democratic socialist ideas were most fully stated in Social Planning for Canada 1935 Democracy Needs Socialism 1938 and in the pages of the Canadian Forum acquired by the LSR in 1936 With the disillusionment of the later 1930s the distraction of the war and most of all the increased support enjoyed by the CCF after 1940 the LSR disappeared as a formal organization but its ideas shaped a political tradition which found expression in the CCF and later the NDP Restructuring Public Schooling: Europe, Canada, America Rodney J. Reed, Fons van Wieringen, Stephen Lawton,Stephen B. Lawton,Rodney J. Reed, This volume offers an overview of educational restructuring its aims and possibilities in the European and North American context A conceptual analysis of educational policy systems and development in both continents is provided and empirical cases are presented within this framework Overviews are given of the national stage in Canada from several countries Reconstruction Canada.
