Reconstruction and Regional Diplomacy in the Persian Gulf H. Amirahmadi, N. Entessar, 2023-05-26 First Published in 1992 Reconstruction and Regional Diplomacy in the Persian Gulf goes beyond a description of the recent events by analysing the social political and economic patterns of interaction between the Gulf states The argument is strengthened by a consideration of the role of the superpowers in the region s political discourse and of religion as a force for a change Not only do the authors provide an easily accessible basis for explaining the current problems in the region but they also offer their own sometimes provocative policy prescriptions This book is an important read for scholars and researchers of Middle East politics and Middle East history

Balkan Reconstruction Daniel Daianu, Thanos Veremēs, 2001 Focusing scholarly attention on a little known area of Europe the book brings together analysts with an insider s view to examine the short and long term challenges facing the region the intricate relationship between politics and economics and the irrelevance of quick fixes in the postwar reform of Southeast Europe

The Impact of State Restructuring on Indonesia's Regional Economic Convergence Adiwan Fahlan Aritenang, 2016-06-15 The creation of ASEAN Free Trade Area AFTA in 1992 and decentralization in 1999 mark the state restructuring in Indonesia This book analyses the impact of state restructuring on regional economic development in Indonesia between 1993 and 2010 Regional economic analysis shows persistent and severe regional disparities throughout the period Particularly econometrics study found that decentralization has accelerated regional disparities whilst the AFTA effect is insignificant on regional economic growth Furthermore historical institutionalism analysis on two cities the manufacturing industry in Batam and the creative economy in Bandung shows that past and embedded local institutions provide the capacity to adapt and create new development paths The book suggests the importance of local specific policies that embrace local knowledge and institutions to develop regional specialization and competitive advantage This book fills the gap in Indonesian literature that lacks studies on the integrated impact of decentralization and trade liberalization both economically and politically Diversifying and Rebuilding Local Economies ,2000 In Place of Austerity: Reconstructing the economy, state and public services Dexter Whitfield,2012

Reconstructing Kobe David W. Edgington,2011-01-01 Six thousand people died and hundreds of thousands lost their homes when an earthquake hit Kobe in January 1995 The Hanshin Earthquake was the largest disaster to affect postwar Japan and one of the most destructive postwar natural disasters to strike a developed country Although the media focused on the disaster s immediate effects the long term reconstruction efforts have gone largely unexplored Based on fieldwork and interviews with planners activists and bureaucrats Reconstructing Kobe records the first ten years of reconstruction and recovery and offers detailed descriptions of the geography of crisis and opportunity Which districts were most vulnerable to the quake and why Did planners successfully exploit opportunities to revitalize the city and make it more sustainable and disaster proof David Edgington s intricate investigation of one of the largest redevelopments in recent history offers a compelling post disaster case study for planners and policy makers and is essential reading for students and scholars of Japanese urban and planning history Death Valley National Park, Reconstruction of the Furnace Creek Water Collection System ,2005

Rebuilding Devastated Economies in the Middle East L. Binder,2007-10-29 This book analyzes the political obstacles to economic recovery and the economic consequences of democratic political reforms The contributors focus on rulers of shaky states where civil strife has caused economic devastation If rebuilding requires regime change are we asking these governments to put themselves out of business Reconstructing Resilient Communities after the Wenchuan Earthquake Junko Otani,2023-10-24 Reconstructing Resilient Communities after the Wenchuan Earthquake Disaster Recovery in China looks at the changes in Chinese society following the 2008 earthquake in Sichuan from various perspectives ranging from reconstruction policy mental care for disaster victims tourism in disaster areas ethnic minorities and disaster prevention education The Wenchuan Earthquake which occurred three months prior to the Beijing Olympics attracted worldwide attention in May of 2008 Following this natural disaster the government in China conducted a delicate bargaining between government top down control and openness to its people and the international society in its effort to steer the reconstruction This book examines the globalization of modern society through examination of these events and considers what we have learned from this disaster subsequent reconstruction and issues that may arise in the future A Regional Approach to Industrial Restructuring in the Tomsk Region, Russian Federation OECD,1998-10-07 At the invitation of the regional authorities the OECD organised a conference in Tomsk on a regional approach to industrial
