Records of Dispossession Michael R. Fischbach, 2003-11-26 No issue in the Arab Israeli conflict has proven more intractable than the status of the Palestinian refugees This work focuses on the controversial question of the property left behind by the refugees during the first Arab Israeli war in 1948 Beyond discussing the extent of the refugees losses and detailing the methods by which Israel expropriated this property the book also notes the ways that the property question has affected and in turn been affected by the wider Arab Israeli conflict over the decades It shows how the property question influenced Arab Israeli diplomacy and discusses the implications of the fact that the question remains unresolved despite numerous diplomatic efforts From late 1947 through 1948 more than 726 000 Palestinians over half the entire population were uprooted from their homes and villages Though some middle class refugees were able to flee with liquid capital the majority were small scale farmers whose worldly fortunes were the land livestock and crops they left behind This book tells for the first time the full story of how much property changed hands what it was worth and how it was used by the fledgling state of Israel It then traces the subsequent decades of diplomatic activity on the issue and publishes previously secret UN estimates of the scope and value of the refugee property Michael Fischbach offers a detailed study of Israeli counterclaims for Jewish property lost in the Arab world diplomatic schemes for resolving the conflict secret compensation efforts and the renewed diplomatic efforts on behalf of property claims since the onset of Arab Israeli peace talks Based largely on archival records including those of the United Nations Conciliation Commission of Palestine never before available to the public and kept under lock and key in the UN archives Records of Dispossession is the first detailed historical examination of the Palestinian refugee property question

Power and Possession in the Russian Revolution Anne

O'Donnell,2024-01-16 Most histories of economic life explore how markets are built This book looks instead at how they have been dismantled Soon after the Bolsheviks seized power in Russia they began the process of transforming the economy and indeed all of society in accordance with communist ideology Asserting their authority and creating a Soviet republic involved confiscating property and demolishing existing systems of exchanging goods At a national level industries like transport and banking were brought under state control At the local level everything from apartments to personal possessions were subject to seizure In analyzing the confiscation of property and its redistribution historian Anne O Donnell focuses on the lived experience of revolution drawing upon archival sources such as popular petitions neighborhood meeting transcripts audits of state agencies and testimony in court cases Telling the stories of both people who were dispossessed and the bureaucrats who inventoried and managed the property that now belonged to the state O Donnell reveals the making of an illiberal state arguing that Soviet statecraft was built upon imperfect attempts to install new forms of valuation consistent with communist principles through chaotic property seizures The work also offers a novel look at the everyday life of revolutionary Russia

Compensation to Palestinian Refugees and the Search for Palestinian-Israeli Peace Rex Brynen,Roula El-Rifai,2013-02-06

One of the core aspects of the Palestinian refugee question is that of compensation or reparations for Palestinian refugees forcibly displaced by the establishment of Israel The Nakba saw the displacement of 85% of the Palestinian Arab population and the descendants of these displaced peoples numbers almost 5 million Despite the gravity of the situation and the importance of restorative justice many of the complex technical issues compensation would entail have not received adequate attention Applying their expertise and looking at past examples of claims mechanisms a rich variety of contributors including Palestinian Israeli and international scholars analysts and former officials examine the topic from an array of legal economic and political perspectives Answering questions such as How would property losses be recovered What about displaced persons within Israel What would the Israeli response be to reparations The contributors cast new and important light on the way the issue has been approached in past negotiations the structure of possible compensation regimes and potential challenges and obstacles to implementation

Erased from Space and Consciousness Noga Kadman,2015-09-07

Hundreds of Palestinian villages were left empty across Israel when their residents became refugees after the 1948 war their lands and property confiscated Most of the villages were razed by the new State of Israel but in dozens of others communities of Jews were settled many refugees in their own right The state embarked on a systematic effort of renaming and remaking the landscape and the Arab presence was all but erased from official maps and histories Israelis are familiar with the ruins terraces and orchards that mark these sites today almost half are located within tourist areas or national parks but public descriptions rarely acknowledge that Arab communities existed there within living memory or describe how they came to be depopulated Using official archives kibbutz publications and visits to the former village sites Noga Kadman has reconstructed this history of erasure for all 418 depopulated villages The Politics of Mass Violence in the Middle East Laura Robson,2020-09-17 The Middle East today is characterized by an astonishingly bloody civil war in Syria an ever more highly racialized and militarized approach to the concept of a Jewish state in Israel and the Palestinian territories an Iraqi state paralyzed by the emergence of class and region inflected sectarian identifications a Lebanon teetering on the edge of collapse from the pressures of its huge numbers of refugees and its sect bound political system and the rise of a wide variety of Islamist paramilitary organizations seeking to operate outside all these states The region s emergence as a zone of violence characterized by a viciously dystopian politics of identity is a relatively recent phenomenon developing only over the past century but despite these shallow historical roots the mass violence and dispossession now characterizing Syria Lebanon Israel Palestine and Iraq have emerged as some of the twenty first century s most intractable problems In this study Laura Robson uses a framework of mass violence encompassing the concepts of genocide ethnic cleansing forced migration appropriation of resources mass deportation and forcible denationalization to explain the emergence of a dystopian politics of identity across the Eastern Mediterranean in the modern era and to illuminate the contemporary breakdown of the state from Syria to Iraq to Israel Jewish Property Claims Against Arab Countries Michael R. Fischbach,2008-08-26 In the twenty years that followed the Arab Israeli war of 1948 800 000 Jews left their homes in Syria Egypt Iraq Yemen Libya Morocco and several other Arab countries Although the causes of this exodus varied restrictive governmental measures and an outburst of anti Semitic feeling during and after the war were major factors Some of these Mizrahi Jews most of whom were not active Zionists were forced to leave behind property of great financial and ancestral value property that was sometimes seized by the governments of the countries they fled In this book Michael R Fischbach who has dedicated years to studying land and property ownership in the context of the Arab Israeli conflict reconstructs the circumstances in which Jewish communities left the Arab world Conducting meticulous and exhaustive research in the archives of Washington D C Jerusalem London New York and elsewhere Fischbach offers the most authoritative estimates to date of the value of the property left behind He also describes the process by which various actors most importantly the State of Israel linked the resolution of Jewish property claims to the fate of Palestinian refugee property claims following the 1948 war Fischbach considers the implications of contemporary developments such as America s invasion of Iraq Israeli Palestinian negotiations and Libya s attempt to shed its international pariah status which have impacted pending claims and will affect claims in the future Overall he finds that many international Jewish organizations have supported the link between the claims of Mizrahi Jews and those of Palestinian refugees hindering serious efforts to obtain restitution or compensation Land Law and Policy in Israel Haim Sandberg,2022-07-05 As one of the smallest and most densely populated countries in the world the State of

Israel faces serious land policy challenges and has a national identity laced with enormous internal contradictions In Land Law and Policy in Israel Haim Sandberg contends that if you really want to know the identity of a state learn its land law and land policies Sandberg argues that Israel s identity can best be understood by deciphering the code that lies in the Hebrew secret of Israeli dry land law According to Sandberg by examining the complex facets of property law and land policy one finds a unique prism for comprehending Israel s most pronounced identity problems Land Law and Policy in Israel explores how Israel s modern land system tries to bridge the gaps between past heritage and present needs nationalization and privatization bureaucracy and innovation Jewish majority and non Jewish minority legislative creativity and judicial activism The regulation of property and the determination of land usage have been the consequences of explicit choices made in the context of competing and evolving concepts of national identity Land Law and Policy in Israel will prove to be a must read not only for anyone interested in Israel but also for anyone who wants to understand the importance of land law in a nation s life

Zionism and Land Tenure in Mandate Palestine Aida Essaid,2013-12-04 A fundamental aspect of the conflict between Palestinians and Israelis is the territorial dispute which began long before the State of Israel was established Analysing the land tenure system in Palestine under the administration of the British Mandate this book questions whether and to what extent the land tenure system in Palestine facilitated Zionist land acquisition The research uses benchmarks elaborated in the guidelines of the United Nations Human Settlements Programme as its analytical starting point and looks at the formation and implementation of the land tenure system in Palestine It goes on to place the penetration of Zionism into the land tenure system within the theoretical context of a colonial settler framework employing information from land registry records located at the Jordanian Department of Lands Providing a political historical analysis of the land tenure system from the end of Ottoman Rule until the end of the British Mandate this book will be of interest to scholars and students of Middle Eastern History Imperial and Colonial History and Middle Eastern Politics

Emptied Lands Alexandre Kedar,Ahmad Amara,Oren Yiftachel,2018-02-27 Emptied Lands investigates the protracted legal planning and territorial conflict between the settler Israeli state and indigenous Bedouin citizens over traditional lands in southern Israel Palestine The authors place this dispute in historical legal geographical and international comparative perspectives providing the first legal geographic analysis of the dead Negev doctrine used by Israel to dispossess and forcefully displace Bedouin inhabitants in order to Judaize the region The authors reveal that through manipulative use of Ottoman British and Israeli laws the state has constructed its own version of terra nullius Yet the indigenous property and settlement system still functions creating an ongoing resistance to the Jewish state Emptied Lands critically examines several key land claims court rulings planning policies and development strategies offering alternative local regional and international routes for justice
