Higher Education in the Asia-Pacific Simon Marginson, Sarjit Kaur, Erlenawati Sawir, 2011-08-21 This survey provides unprecedented scope and detail of analysis on higher education in the Asia Pacific region In this era of global integration convergence and comparison the balance of power in worldwide higher education is shifting In less than two decades the Asia Pacific region has come to possess the largest and fastest growing higher education sector on Earth The countries of East and Southeast Asia and the Western Pacific together enrol 50 million tertiary students compared to 14 million in 1991 and will soon conduct a third of all research and development In China Hong Kong Taiwan Korea and Singapore world class universities are emerging at breakneck pace fostered by modernizing governments that see knowledge and skills as key to a future shaped equally by East and West and supported by families deeply committed to education But not all Asia Pacific countries are on this path not all reforms are effective and there are marked differences between nations in levels of resources educational participation research state controls and academic freedom

Multilateral Asian Security Architecture See Seng Tan, 2015-07-16 This book provides a comparative assessment of the material and ideational contributions of five countries to the regional architecture of post Cold War Asia In contrast to the usual emphasis placed on the role and centrality of the Association of Southeast Asian Nations ASEAN in Asia's multilateral architecture and its component institutions this book argues that the four non ASEAN countries of interest here

3 4 Australia Japan China and the United States 3 4 and Indonesia have played and continue to play an influential part in determining the shape and substance of Asian multilateralism from its pre inception to the present The work does not contend that existing scholarship overstates ASEAN s significance to the successes and failures of Asia s multilateral enterprise Rather it claims that the impact of non ASEAN stakeholders in innovating multilateral architecture in Asia has been understated Whether ASEAN has fared well or poorly as a custodian of Asia s regional architecture the fact remains that the countries considered here notwithstanding their present discontent over the state of that architecture are key to understanding the evolution of Asian multilateralism This book will be of much interest to students of Asian politics
