aspects of the field as a profession Ecotourism Third Edition David A. Fennell, 2007-11-14 Focusing on an array of economic social and ecological inconsistencies that continue to plague ecotourism in theory and practice this book examines ecotourism in reference to other related forms of tourism impacts conservation sustainability education and interpretation policy and governance and the ethical imperative of ecotourism as these apply to the world's greenest form of tourism This revised edition includes new information on the magnitude of the tourism industry nature based tourism and the pros and cons of mass ecotourism revised chapters on development economics marketing policy ecotourism in practice and biodiversity conservation a section on governance models ecotourism programmes operators and guides interpretation certification and ecolodge design a discussion of ecotourism as an ethical or responsible form of tourism approximately 300 new references It includes case studies and considers the perspectives of many adjacent fields including geography economics business philosophy biology and environmental studies Leisure Program Planning and Delivery Ruth V. Russell, Lynn Marie Jamieson, 2008 This course textbook provides a comprehensive three step plan for successful programming of services programme leadership and understanding operational management in recreation and leisure organisations Ecotourism Programme Planning David A. Fennell, 2002-01-01 Tourism is the world's largest industry In the past decade it is the natural resource based sector that has experienced the greatest growth In particular adventure cultural and ecotourism ACE tourism for example skiing white water rafting whale watching festivals and fairs This book provides an in depth overview of the different operations of ACE tourism It draws on theory from recreation and leisure studies tourism marketing and environmental management to demonstrate the importance of effective program planning This is especially significant as industry competition becomes more intense in this growth sector Management of Park and Recreation Agencies Betty Van der Smitten, 2005 Programming for Parks, Recreation, and Leisure Services Debra Jean Jordan, Donald G. DeGraaf, Kathy H. DeGraaf, 2005 Ecotourism David A. Fennell, 2025-08-01 The new sixth edition of Ecotourism focuses on an array of economic social and ecological inconsistencies that continue to plague ecotourism in theory and practice and examines the sector in reference to other related forms of tourism impacts conservation sustainability education and interpretation policy and governance and the ethical imperative of ecotourism as these apply to the world's greenest form of tourism Building on the success of prior editions the text has been revised throughout to incorporate recent research including ecotourism taking place in underrepresented world regions It includes new case studies on important themes in research and practice as well as learning objectives in each chapter David A Fennell provides an authoritative and comprehensive review of the most important issues including climate change and UN Sustainable Development Goals Ecotourism continues to be embraced as the antithesis of mass tourism because of its promise of achieving sustainability through conservation mindedness community development education and learning and the promotion of nature based activities that are sensitive to both ecological and social systems The book debates to what extent this promise has been realised An essential reference for those interested in ecotourism the book is accessible to students but retains the depth required for use by researchers and practitioners in the field This book will be of interest to students across a range of disciplines including geography economics business ethics biology and environmental studies
