From Sin to Amazing Grace Patrick S. Cheng, 2012-03-01 Throughout the history of Christianity lesbian gay bisexual and transgender LGBT or queer people have been condemned as unrepentant sinners who are in dire need of God s saving grace As a result of this condemnation LGBT people have been subjected to great spiritual emotional and physical abuse and violence This issue takes on a particular urgency in light of the ongoing harassment and bullying of LGBT young people by their classmates Cheng argues that people need to be liberated from the traditional legal model of thinking about sin and grace as a violation of divine and natural laws in which grace is understood as the strength to refrain from violating such laws Rather Cheng proposes a Christological model based upon the theologies of Irenaeus Bonaventure and Barth in which

sin and grace are defined in terms of what God has done for us in Jesus Christ This book serves as a useful resource for all people who struggle to make sense of the traditional Christian doctrines of sin and grace in the context of the 21st century

Undoing Theology Chris Greenough ,2018-05-31 The fundamental issue with queer research is it cannot exist in any definable form as the purpose of queer is to disrupt and disturb This book generates a process of undoing as central to queer research enquiries Aiming to engage in a process which breaks free from traditional academic norms the text explores three life stories an intersex identifying Catholic a former ex gay minister and a Christian who engages in bondage and fetishist practices Employing an undoing methodology which liberates the researcher and allows intuitive reflective and creative methods the book makes a significant contribution to the fields of gender sexuality and queer studies in religion both empirically and theoretically
