Chicken Soup for the Entrepreneur's Soul Jack Canfield,Mark Victor Hansen,2012-09-04 Chicken Soup for the Entrepreneur's Soul is a compilation of short stories from entrepreneurs both large and small who share their experiences of success failure and courage with a little helpful advice mixed in      The Change Germaine Greer,2018-08-14 An updated edition of Germaine Greer's revolutionary discussion of menopause which the New York Times Book Review called a brilliant gutsy exhilarating bruising exasperating fury of a book A quarter of a century after the first publication of Germaine Greer's now canonical look at women's experience later in life the renowned feminist and prolific author updates and expands her essential book The Change Despite improvements over the last few years discussions about menopause are still hampered by a huge variance in conventional wisdom about what happens when it happens when it can be said to be over and how to deal with it After decades the same misinformation and ineffective methods are still being widely touted and proliferating at an alarming rate due to the rise of the Internet In this updated edition of her groundbreaking book Greer debunks stubborn myths and presents a vital new perspective on the emotional and physical changes including up to date medical details women face today when they go through what's known as the change Greer also addresses cultural changes that surround female aging today launching a clear and necessary protest against the notion that women should shrink into the background as they grow older She argues that menopause marks the point in a woman's life when she should be able to stop apologizing and bask in the freedom and joy that come with her later years Witty wise and timely this new edition of The Change offers a crucial twenty first century guide to the change that every woman faces      The Red Hat Society(R)'s Queens of Woodlawn Avenue Regina Hale Sutherland,2009-10-31 This official Red Hat Society romance is a story of a woman who puts her life back together with the help of her best friends three members of a bridge club Original      Embodied Resistance Chris Bobel,Samantha Kwan,2011-09-15 Ethnographies about transgressing social expectations of the body      To the Left of Inspiration Katherine Schneider,2005 When is the last time you've read an honest funny book about living with disabilities To the Left of Inspiration Adventures in Living with Disabilities is just such a book Fifty four million Americans have chronic illnesses or disabilities requiring them to make accommodations in the ways they live their lives You may have students customers and clients with disabilities and want to interact with them knowledgeably and sensitively Or perhaps you are adjusting to a new illness or disability and have accepted that it's a whole new world you are entering You'll learn from a woman blind from birth about activities of daily life like talking to children about disabilities traveling going to church and working Kathie's life experiences highlight the warmth and humor in everyone's struggles to be humane with each other whether we are temporarily able bodied or disabled. Disabilities can be more than adjusted to; they can be mined for pearls and Kathie shares some of hers with you. Kathie is a guide familiar with the territory who will walk beside you as you negotiate your new world. You won't learn how to overcome your disability but you will laugh in recognition and hope as you read To the Left of Inspiration. Come along with Kathie and her Seeing EyeT dog on their adventures; your life will be enriched. Katherine Schneider has been blind since her premature birth in 1949 and has had fibromyalgia for over ten years. She was the first blind student to graduate from the Kalamazoo Michigan public school system in 1967 and was a valedictorian as well as a National Merit scholar. Three years later she graduated with honors from Michigan State University with a BS in psychology. After receiving her PhD in clinical psychology from Purdue University, she has worked at four universities, three of them public and one private. She has taught psychology courses from freshman psychology to the graduate level and has counseled, supervised, and administered university counseling services. Kathie has presented papers at national professional meetings and authored articles and book chapters on such topics as counseling people with disabilities and religion and visual impairment. She has won awards for her professional work from the Courage Center, the University of Wisconsin Eau Claire, and the University of Wisconsin System Regents, among others. Katherine has recently retired and is enjoying serving on seven state and local boards. At least she's never bored reading novels and trying to live the Red Hat R philosophy. She is proud to have been a Seeing EyeT dog user for the past thirty years.

Kathryn Joyce's fascinating introduction to the world of the patriarchy movement and Quiverfull families examines the twenty-first-century women and men who proclaim self-sacrifice and submission as model virtues of womanhood and as modes of warfare on behalf of Christ. Here women live within stringently enforced doctrines of wifely submission and male headship and live by the Quiverfull philosophy of letting God give them as many children as possible so as to win the religion and culture wars through demographic means.
