John Maxwell Hamilton,2003-09-25 Edgar Snow 1905 1972 was one of the most notable Western journalists to report on China in both the revolutionary and postrevolutionary periods He first became famous in the mid 1930s when he broke through a Nationalist blockade and reached the Communists in northwest China For nearly a decade no foreign reporter had seen the Communists who were widely regarded as a ragtag bandit army Snow took them seriously as a national movement His reporting in the now famous book Red Star over China was major news even to the Chinese thousands of whom joined the Communists after reading it It has remained a seminal reference on the early Chinese Communist movement In this award winning biography journalist John Maxwell Hamilton follows Snow from his birth in Kansas City to his rise as a celebrated foreign correspondent for the Saturday Evening Post his ostracism during the cold war and his role as a singular journalistic bridge between Communist China and the United States With a new preface by the author this revealing portrait of the widely misunderstood Snow firmly establishes him as a model for the kind of committed reporting that is crucial to understanding our interdependent world Terre Haute's Notorious Red Light District

Tim Crumrin,2022-02-21 The author of Hidden History of Terre Haute and Wicked Terre Haute explores the home of sin in the Sin City Home to uproarious saloons swindling gambling dens and thriving brothels Terre Haute s infamous West End was so wild the Chicago Tribunecalled it the scene of a hundred all night carousings Pimps pickpockets and conmen roamed the crowded streets where legendary Madam Edith Brown's pleasure palace was the crown jewel of brothels. Yet more than a mere den in inequity, the West End was also a community that could put bickering differences aside and pull together to help their neighbors. And it wasn't only a place for seedy enterprise but also a place for stores, cafes, and homes. Historian Tim Crumrin presents the first complete history of this legendary area and separates myth from reality to reveal the very human side of the West End.

The Girl Who Circumnavigated Fairyland in a Ship of Her Own Making Catherynne M. Valente, 2011-05-10

One of the most extraordinary works of fantasy for adults or children published so far this century. Time magazine on the Fairyland series: Twelve-year-old September lives in Omaha and used to have an ordinary life until her father went to war and her mother went to work. One day September is met at her kitchen window by a Green Wind taking the form of a gentleman in a green jacket who invites her on an adventure, implying that her help is needed in Fairyland. The new Marquess is unpredictable and fickle and also not much older than September. Only September can retrieve a talisman the Marquess wants from the enchanted woods, and if she doesn't, then the Marquess will make life impossible for the inhabitants of Fairyland. September is already making new friends, including a book-loving Wyvern and a mysterious boy named Saturday. With exquisite illustrations by acclaimed artist Ana Juan, Fairyland lives up to the sensation it created when author Catherynne M. Valente first posted it online. For readers of all ages who love the charm of Alice in Wonderland and the soul of The Golden Compass, here is a reading experience unto itself, unforgettable and so very beautiful.

The Girl Who Circumnavigated Fairyland in a Ship of Her Own Making is a Publishers Weekly Best Children's Fiction title for 2011.
