Chang,1999-01-30 One of the most tumultuous periods in modern Chinese history the Cultural Revolution affected virtually all Chinese people and all aspects of Chinese life including art music and drama education factory management economic planning and medical care Studies of the Cultural Revolution in both Chinese and Western languages have burgeoned over the past three decades This comprehensive easy to use bibliography provides a guide to published English language sources on the Cultural Revolution With over a thousand entries it includes books monographs dissertations and audio visual materials on a broad range of topics from the military education religion and economics to foreign relations population art literature and drama Including titles published through the end of 1997 and a few in 1998 the book provides a general overview of the literature on the Chinese Cultural Revolution and its impact on China Its scope and coverage make it a useful resource for any library whose readers have an interest in modern Chinese history Reading Globally, K8 Barbara A. Lehman,Evelyn B. Freeman,Patricia L. Scharer,2010-09-20 In Reading Globally K 8 the authors make the case for why it is necessary to be globally literate and multiculturally aware in today s shrinking world and they provide the tools teachers need to incorporate appropriate reading selections into primary and secondary school classrooms By using books from or about other countries teachers empower students to view the world in a more positive manner enriching and broadening their students lives and ultimately preparing them for life in a global economy and culture This reader friendly resource guides teachers and reading programme coordinators in selecting quality books for their classrooms incorporating global literature into different content areas and facilitating the discussions that follow Practical guidance is provided on how to Integrate the reading of global texts across the curriculum with specific application to language arts social studies science maths and the arts Locate and evaluate the authenticity and literary merit of potential books avoiding those that depict stereotypes Get started with an annotated list of children s books samples of student work and classroom vignettes from teachers Begin Here Rocio G. Davis,2007-01-31 An analytically innovative work Begin Here widens the current critical focus of Asian North American literary studies by proposing an integrated thematic and narratological approach to the practice of autobiography It demonstrates how Asian North American memoirs of childhood challenge the construction and performative potential of national experiences This understanding influences theoretical approaches to ethnic life writing expanding the boundaries of traditional autobiography by negotiating narrative techniques and genre and raising complex questions about self representation and the construction of cultural memory By examining the artistic project of some fifty Asian North American writers who deploy their childhood narratives in the representation of the individual processes of self identification and negotiation of cultural and national affiliation this work provides a comprehensive overview of Asian North American autobiographies of childhood published over the last century Importantly it also attends to new ways of writing autobiographies employing comics blending verse prose diaries and life writing for children and using relational approaches to self identification among others Booktalking Around the World Sonja Cole,2010-10-21 This text contains convenient ready to go booktalks for contemporary fiction and nonfiction books set in every continent around the globe useful for librarians and other educators of grades three through nine A public librarian introducing young readers to stories from around the world A social studies teacher wanting to offer students extra credit on a unit about ancient Greece A Spanish teacher who needs to generate some excitement and interest about Hispanic culture All of these educators can achieve their goals by utilizing the internationally themed booktalk suggestions in this text Booktalking Around the World Great Global Reads for Ages 9 14 This collection of booktalks and book lists is designed to be an invaluable resource for teachers as well as school and public librarians seeking geographically themed booktalks for newer books published from 2000 2010 Because studying the countries of the world is a major part of most school curricula this book will support or extend this important curricular area All the booktalks in this collection are aimed at children aged 9 14 All seven continents are represented but the United States is excluded Mao Zedong's China, 2nd Edition Kathlyn Gay,2012-08-01 In 1949 Mao Zedong came to power in China after a long and brutal civil war He and his Chinese Communist Party immediately set out to transform their nation into a Communist state They seized land from wealthy and middle class farmers and distributed it to poor peasant farmers The government also took over ownership of all industries Citizens who resisted these changes were branded counterrevolutionaries and thousands were imprisoned or executed Within a few years Mao had turned China into a totalitarian state controlling all aspects of his citizens daily lives In the 1960s he sought to wipe out what remained of traditional Chinese society by launching the Cultural Revolution Millions died as the country erupted into spasms of mob violence Yet despite the tumult Chairman Mao remained a revered almost godlike figure worshiped by his people How did he do it Learn more about one of the most powerful and controversial figures of the 20th century

Securitization of Human Rights Mikyoung Kim,2012-02-24 This important book focuses on North Korean refugee human rights issues a topic largely ignored in favor of addressing North Korea s domestic politics and deterrence of Pyongyang s nuclear threat The first book of its kind Securitization of Human Rights North Korean Refugees in East Asia examines the complex problem of what to do with North Korea specifically regarding human rights issues and treatment of North Korean refugees The book spotlights four key countries China Japan South Korea and the United States with regard to their policy stance towards North Korean human rights issues analyzing the dynamic tension between realpolitik and moral principle by looking at the regional governments responses Rather than focusing only on politics and foreign policy this book is about the people involved describing the plight of North Korean refugees the perspective of South Korean citizens and the quandary facing power elites in the regional governments
