Joeres, Elizabeth Mittman, 1993 The Politics of the Essay is that rare scholarly work that provides both a history of this relatively new field and of its formal characteristics and inspires its readers to want to participate in the making of this history Signs The first in depth study of the relationship between women and essays Employing gender race class and national identity as axes of analysis this volume introduces new perspectives into what has been a largely apolitical discussion of the essay Includes an original essay by Susan Griffin Primary Education, 1913 Colour Films in Britain Sarah Street, 2019-07-25 How did the coming of colour change the British film industry Unlike sound the arrival of colour did not revolutionise the industry overnight For British film makers and enthusiasts colour was a controversial topic While it was greeted by some as an exciting development with scope for developing a uniquely British aesthetic others were deeply concerned How would audiences accustomed to seeing black and white films which were commonly regarded as being superior to their garish colour counterparts react Yet despite this initial trepidation colour captivated many British inventors and film makers Using different colour processes these innovators produced films that demonstrated remarkable experimentation and quality Sarah Street's illuminating study is the first to trace the history of colour in British cinema and analyses the use of colour in a range of films both fiction and non fiction including The Open Road The Glorious Adventure This is Colour Blithe Spirit This Happy Breed Black Narcissus The Red Shoes The Tales of Hoffmann and Moulin Rouge Beautifully illustrated with full colour film stills this important study provides fascinating insights into the complex process whereby the challenges and opportunities of new technologies are negotiated within creative practice The book also includes a Technical Appendix by Simon Brown Kingston University UK which provides further details of the range of colour processes used by British film makers

Music in the Shadows Sheri Chinen Biesen, 2014-05 Welcome to the world of noir musical films where tormented antiheroes and hard boiled musicians battle obsession and struggle with their music and ill fated love triangles Sultry divas dance and sing the blues in shrouded nightclubs Romantic intrigue clashes with backstage careers This book explores musical films that use film noir style and bluesy strains of jazz to inhabit a disturbing underworld and reveal the dark side of fame and the American Dream While noir musical films like A Star Is Born include musical performances their bleak tone and expressionistic aesthetic more closely resemble the visual style of film noir Their narratives unfold behind a stark noir lens distorted erratic angles and imbalanced hand held shots allow the audience to experience a tortured disillusioned perspective While many musicals glamorize the quest for the spotlight in Hollywood's star factory brooding noir musical films such as Blues in the Night Gilda The Red Shoes West Side Story and Round Midnight stretch the boundaries of film noir and the musical as film genres collide Deep shadows dim lighting and visual composition evoke moodiness cynicism pessimism and subjective psychological points of view

Color It True Murray Pomerance, 2021-12-16 This often startlingly original book introduces a new way of thinking about color in film as distinct from existing approaches which tend to emphasize either technical processes and or histories of film coloration or the meanings of color as metaphor or symbol or else part of a broader signifying system Murray Pomerance's latest meditation on cinema has the author embed himself in various ways of thinking about color not ways of framing it as a production trick or a symbolic language but ways of wondering how the color effect onscreen can work in the act of viewing Pomerance examines many issues including acuity dreaming interrelationships saturations color contrasts color and performance color as a performance aid or even performance substitute and more The lavender of the photographer's seamless in Antonioni's Blow Up taken in itself as an explosion of color worked into form and then considered both as part of the story and part of our experience The 14 chapters of this book each discuss a single primary color as regards to our experience of cinema After opening the idea of such an exploration in terms of the history of our apperception and the variation in our experience that color germinates Color it True takes form Martin Scorsese Vincent LoBrutto,2007-11-30 Martin Scorsese s current position in the international film community is unrivaled and his name has become synonymous with the highest standards of filmmaking excellence He is widely considered America s best living film director and his Taxi Driver and Raging Bull appear frequently on worldwide surveys of the best films of all time Here in the first biographical account of this artist s life Vincent LoBrutto traces Scorsese s Italian American heritage his strict Catholic upbringing the continuing role of religion in his life and art his obsessive love of cinema history and the powerful impact that the streets of New York City had on his personal life and his professional career Meanwhile the filmmaker s humble soft spoken public persona tells only part of the story and LoBrutto will delve into the other side of a complex and often tortured personality Scorsese s intense passion his private relationships his stormy marriages and his battles with drugs and depression are all chronicled here and in many cases for the first time In addition the book includes an interview with the director as well as filmographies cataloging his work as a director producer actor and presenter As his Best Director award at the 2007 Oscars clearly demonstrated Scorsese has become something like Hollywood royalty in recent years finally enjoying the insider status and favor that eluded him for most of his career But these recent developments aside Scorsese is also notable as a distinctly American type of artist one whose work created in a medium largely controlled by commercialism and marketing has always been unmistakably his own and who thus remains a touchstone of artistic integrity in American cinema In Martin Scorsese A Biography readers can examine not only the work of one of the form s genuine artists but also the forces that have propelled the man behind it Participation Stories, Grades PK - 1 Flora,2010-05-18 Facilitate literacy in students in grades PK 1 using Participation Stories This 64 page book reaches auditory kinesthetic and visual learners with storytelling This resource includes everything teachers need to present the stories in three different ways traditional participation and prop Stories include traditional tales folk tales original tales tales from other countries and tales in rhyme Sidebars on each page connect stories to basic language concepts The book supports NCTE and NAEYC standards
