The Dream of the Red Chamber Jeannie Jinsheng Yi, 2004 BOOK DESCRIPTION Although dreams have been studied in great depth about this most influential classic Chinese fiction the study of all the dreams as a sequence and in relation to their structural functions in the allegory is undertaken for the first time in this book Major topics include Dream Sequence as the Narrative Framework The Co-existence of Dream and Reality Discourse on Love Daguan Yuan and Its Literary Lineage Medieval Allegory Its Origin and Its Representation Dream as Representation of Allegory The Roman de la Rose and Honglou meng THE AUTHOR Jeannie Jinsheng Yi earned her Ph.D degree in Asian Studies from Washington University Author of several books in both English and Chinese she has been writing extensively on topics related to China and Asia The American Short-horn Herd Book Lewis Falley Allen, William T. Bailey, 1900 The Red Door Iain Crichton Smith, 2013-11-07 When the breathing got worse he went into the adjacent room and got the copy of Dante All that night and the night before he had been watching the dying When a mirror was required to be brought she looked at it moving her head restlessly this way and that He knew that the swelling was a portent of some kind a message from the outer darkness an omen The Dying Although best known as one of Scotland's greatest modern poets Iain Crichton Smith was also prolific as a writer of short stories These pieces form a central part of his oeuvre demonstrating the full range and versatility of his literary talent From humour to tragedy from inner monologues to extrovert surrealism the diversity of his writing indicates the extraordinary range of his own reading and mental world Crichton Smith wrote short stories throughout his life Some are fragments others almost novellas and the best of them all show him to be an author of unique sensitivity and intelligence These two collections comprising the complete English stories include over 45 stories never before published in book form as well as others that have been out of print for many years thus making it possible to judge Crichton Smith's achievement as a writer in full. Incorporates stories from Survival Without Error, The Black and the Red and The Village. Better Red Constance Coiner, 1995 Better Red is an interdisciplinary study addressing the complicated intersection of American feminism and the political left as refracted in Tillie Olsen's and Meridel Le Sueur's lives and literary texts. The first book-length study to explore these feminist writers' ties to the American Communist Party, it contributes to a reenvisioning of 1930s U.S. Communism as well as to efforts to promote working-class writing as a legitimate category of literary analysis. At once loyal members of the male-dominated Communist party and emerging feminists, Olsen and Le Sueur exhibit in their writing tendencies both toward and away from Party tenets and attitudes at points subverting formalist as well as orthodox Marxist literary categories. By producing working-class discourse, Olsen and Le Sueur challenge the bourgeois assumptions often masked as classless and universal of much canonical literature, and by creating working-class women's writing, they problematize the patriarchal nature of the Left and the masculinist assumptions of much proletarian literature, anticipating the concerns of second-wave feminists a generation later. Interactive Storytelling Ido A. Iurgel, Nelson Zagalo, Paolo Petta, 2009-11-24 The rich programme of ICIDS 2009 comprising invited talks, technical presentations and posters, demonstrations and co-located post-conference workshops clearly underscores the event's status as premier international meeting in the domain. It thereby confirms the decision taken by the Constituting Committee of the conference series to take the step forward out of the national cocoons of its precursors ICVS and TIDSE and towards an itinerant platform reflecting its global constituency. This move reflects the desire and the will to take on the challenge to stay on the lookout, critically reflect upon and integrate views and findings and experiences and to promote interdisciplinary exchange while ensuring overall coherence and maintaining a sense of direction. This is a significant enterprise. The challenges sought are multifarious and must be addressed consistently at all levels. The desire to involve all research communities and stakeholders must be matched by acknowledging the differences in established practices and by providing suitable means of guidance and introduction, exposition and direct interaction at the event itself and of lasting and increasingly living documentation of which the present proceedings are but an important part.
