Landscapes of Power Sharon Zukin, 1993-03-12 The momentous changes which are transforming American life call for a new exploration of the economic and cultural landscape In this book Sharon Zukin links our ever expanding need to consume with two fundamental shifts places of production have given way to spaces for services and paperwork and the competitive edge has moved from industrial to cultural capital From the steel mills of the Rust Belt to the sterile malls of suburbia to the gentrified urban centers of our largest cities the creative destruction of our economy a process by which a way of life is both lost and gained results in a dramatically different landscape of economic power Sharon Zukin probes the depth and diversity of this restructuring in a series of portraits of changed or changing American places Beginning at River Rouge Henry Ford s industrial complex in Dearborn Michigan and ending at Disney World Zukin demonstrates how powerful interests shape the spaces we inhabit Among the landscapes she examines are steeltowns in West Virginia and Michigan affluent corporate suburbs in Westchester County gentrified areas of lower Manhattan and theme parks in Florida and California In each of these case studies new strategies of investment and employment are filtered through existing institutions experience in both production and consumption and represented in material products aesthetic forms and new perceptions of space and time The current transformation differs from those of the past in that individuals and institutions now have far greater power to alter the course of change making the creative destruction of landscape the most important cultural product of our time Zukin s eclectic inquiry into the parameters of social action and the emergence of new cultural forms defines the interdisciplinary frontier where sociology geography economics and urban and cultural studies meet

CONVERGENCE Shireen Naziree, 2013-09-05 Progressive societies place emphasis on the holistic development of its people in the cultivation of mind body soul and spirit Throughout history great civilizations are marked not only by material wealth but also the flourishing of artistic and cultural expressions PETRONAS role as custodian of the country's oil and gas resources encompasses its mission to develop and add value to Malaysia's petroleum assets while contributing to the wellbeing of the people and nation In support of this principle of holistic development PETRONAS is privileged to play its part in supporting arts and culture through GALERI PETRONAS as part of its greater commitment to the development of people of Malaysia In this respect GALERI PETRONAS as an important icon in the Malaysian art landscapes provides crucial arts engagement platform for Malaysian artists and audiences Since its inception GALERI PETRONAS has given continuous support for the development of emerging Malaysian artists art practices and expertise in art support infrastructure PETRONAS believe that by uplifting our Malaysian heritage of arts through GALERI PETRONAS we would inspire Malaysians to greater appreciation and awareness of the beauty and value inherent in our own artistic heritage We also encourage the appreciation of arts and culture from different societies as our philosophy centers on the promotion of a holistic individual and a progressive society able to interact as a global citizen Therefore our arts and culture programmes promote the sharing of traditions of various peoples and timeframes blending East and West modern and traditional Arts and culture are dynamic elements and while we seek to preserve them in their pure and authentic state we also work to develop a new generation of practitioners who refine and find new applications for the arts to create political and social awareness for healing and wellness to spark creativity intelligence and imagination to promote unity and harmony through greater understanding of our cultural identities and appreciation of the beauty in each other's customs and traditions In this manner the PETRONAS Art Collection has brought together traditional and contemporary artworks by established and emerging Malaysian artists and artworks of different mediums such as textiles crafts sculptures paintings and photography which are displayed and documented to create awareness and develop appreciation of the richness of Malaysian visual arts Over the last few decades the PETRONAS corporate art collection has grown considerably to include works from Malaysia's modern masters and as a corporate gallery it would be a difficult and challenging undertaking to exhibit our complete collection to the public and art enthusiast With the publication of the book Convergence Past Reality and Future it is hoped that we are able to widen the accessibility of our PETRONAS Art Collection to the people

Equally important is the pursuit of art development in Malaysia. A key component to this endeavour is the research and writing efforts that culminate into a book publication. These scholastic efforts in turn greatly assist the students of art where the publication will serve as a repository for future references and hopefully new knowledge. PETRONAS wishes to add our contribution through the publication of Convergence Past Reality and Future to this noble and sustainable cause. We hope that the publication Convergence Past Reality and Future will further make art in its various forms more accessible to the general public and will touch the lives of Malaysians from all walks of life and nurture a more sophisticated culturally aware and enlightened society. It is also our hope that the publication would be a good addition to the growing publication on Malaysia fine arts. Lastly, the book is our effort to recognize the Malaysian artistic talents and salute these artistic standards that have grown in tandem with the growth of Malaysia as a nation.

Writing in Red Nergis Ertürk, 2024-05-21. The republic of Turkey and the Soviet Union both emerged from the wreckage of empires surrounding World War I and pathways of literary exchange soon opened between the two revolutionary states. Even as the Turkish government pursued a friendly relationship with the USSR, it began to persecute communist writers. Whether going through official channels or fleeing repression, many Turkish writers traveled to the Soviet Union during the 1920s and 1930s, publishing original work, editing prominent literary journals, and translating both Russian classics and Soviet literature into Turkish. Writing in Red traces the literary and exilic itineraries of Turkish communist and former communist writers, examining revolutionary aesthetics and politics across Turkey and the Soviet Union from the mid 1920s through the 1960s. Nergis Ertürk considers a wide range of texts spanning genres such as erotic comedy, historical fiction, and film, and socialist realist novels and theater by writers including Nazım Hikmet, Vahide Nureddin, Nizamettin Nazif, Suat Dervi, and Abidin Dino. She argues that these works belong simultaneously to modern Turkish literature, a transnational Soviet republic of letters, and the global literary archive of world revolution alongside those of other writers who made the magic pilgrimage to Moscow. Exploring how Turkish communist writers on the run produced a remarkable transnational literature of dissent, Writing in Red offers a new account of global revolutionary literary culture.
