

RED

PAPERS ON MUSICAL SUBJECTS

by Carl Van Vechten

author of PETER WHIFFLE and THE TATTOOED COUNTESS

"Red is the colour of youth. Oxen and turkeys are always enraged when they see it."

—ROBERT SCHUMANN.

BEFORE Carl Van Vechten began to write novels he was widely known as an eminent and radical critic of music. This volume contains a collection of his best papers on that subject, three of which, together with the introduction, have never before appeared in a book. The remaining essays have been selected from Music and Bad Manners, Interpreters and Interpretations, The Merry-Go-Round, and In the Garret, all of which volumes are out of print.

Red Carl Van Vechten,1925 Subject Index of the Modern Books Acquired by the British Museum in the Years ... ,1927 From Psalm to Symphony Nicholas E. Tawa,2001 Examines for the first time New England's rich heritage of music making over a span of 350 years The Collected Letters of Robinson Jeffers, with Selected Letters of Una Jeffers James Karman,2011-10-12 The 1930s marked a turning point for the world Scientific and technological revolutions economic and social upheavals and the outbreak of war changed the course of history The 1930s also marked a turning point for Robinson Jeffers both in his career as a poet and in his private life The letters collected in this second volume of annotated correspondence document Jeffers rising fame as a poet his controversial response to the turmoil of his time his struggles as a writer the growth and maturation of his twin sons and the network of friends and acquaintances that surrounded him The letters also provide an intimate portrait of Jeffers relationship to his wife Una including a full account of the 1938 crisis at Mabel Dodge Luhan's home in Taos New Mexico that nearly destroyed their marriage The Letters of Gertrude Stein and Carl Van Vechten, 1913-1946 Gertrude Stein,Carl Van Vechten,2013 This monumental collection of correspondence between Gertrude Stein and critic novelist and photographer Carl Van Vechten provides crucial insight into Stein's life, art, and artistic milieu, as well as Van Vechten's support of major cultural projects such as the Harlem Renaissance. From their first meeting in 1913, Stein and Van Vechten formed a unique and powerful relationship, and Van Vechten worked vigorously to publish and promote Stein's work. Existing biographies of Stein, including her own autobiographical writings, omit a great deal about her experiences and thought. They lack the ordinary detail of what Stein called daily, everyday living: the immediate concerns, objects, people, and places that were the grist for her writing. These letters not only vividly represent those details but also showcase Stein and Van Vechten's private selves as writers. Edward Burns's extensive annotations include detailed cross-referencing of source materials.

The Lady with the Borzoi Laura Claridge, 2016-04-12 The untold story of Blanche Knopf, the singular woman who helped define American literature. Left off her company's fifth anniversary tribute but described by Thomas Mann as the soul of the firm, Blanche Knopf began her career when she founded Alfred A. Knopf with her husband in 1915. With her finger on the pulse of a rapidly changing culture, Blanche quickly became a driving force behind the firm, a conduit to the literature of Langston Hughes and the Harlem Renaissance. Blanche also legitimized the hard-boiled detective fiction of writers such as Dashiell Hammett, James M. Cain, and Raymond Chandler, signed and nurtured literary authors like Willa Cather, Elizabeth Bowen, and Muriel Spark, acquired momentous works of journalism by John Hersey and William Shirer, and introduced American readers to Albert Camus, André Gide, and Simone de Beauvoir, giving these French writers the benefit of her consummate editorial taste. As Knopf celebrates its centennial, Laura Claridge looks back at the firm's beginnings and the dynamic woman who helped to define American letters for the twentieth century. Drawing on a vast cache of papers, Claridge also captures Blanche's witty, loyal, and amusing personality and her charged yet oddly loving relationship with her husband. An intimate and often surprising biography, The Lady with the Borzoi is the story of an ambitious, seductive, and impossibly hardworking woman who was determined not to be overlooked or easily categorized.

Historical Dictionary from the Great War to the Great Depression Neil A. Wynn, 2013-12-16 The period from 1913 to 1933 is not often seen as a coherent entity in the history of the United States. It is more often viewed in terms of two distinct periods: with the pre-war era of political engagement, idealism, and reform known as progressivism, separated by World War I from the materialism, conservatism, and disengagement of the prosperous 1920s. To many postwar observers and later historians, the entry of the United States into the European conflict in 1917 marked not just a dramatic departure in foreign relations but also the end of an era of reform. This second edition of Historical Dictionary from the Great War to the Great Depression covers the history of this period through a chronology an introductory essay appendixes and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has more than 700 cross referenced entries on important personalities politics economy foreign relations religion and culture This book is an excellent access point for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about a vital period in U S history Canadian Bookman ,1924 Catalogue of Copyright Entries Library of Congress.
