Russian and West European Women, 1860-1939 Marcelline J. Hutton,2001 This ambitious study provides a sweeping overview of the position of women in England France Germany and Russia USSR from 1860 1939 The book illustrates their struggles to realize their dreams and their resourcefulness in coping with often dreary hard even horrifying lives Deftly combining statistical data to underscore collective experiences and belles lettres to highlight the texture of individual women's lives the book assesses the significance of gender class nationality and religion This richly researched work traces common patterns and unique experiences in women's lives by showing how they defined themselves coped with daily life and confronted disaster with courage and resourcefulness Remarkable Russian Women in Pictures, Prose and Poetry

Marcelline Hutton,2013 Many Russian women of the late 19th and early 20th centuries tried to find authentic religious marital professional and political experiences Some very remarkable ones found these things in varying degrees while others sought unsuccessfully but no less desperately to transcend the generations old restrictions imposed by church state village class and gender Like a Slavic Downton Abbey this book tells the stories not just of their outward lives but of their hearts and minds their voices and dreams their amazing accomplishments against overwhelming odds and their roles as feminists and avant gardists in shaping modern Russia and indeed the twentieth century in the West In their own words and images and each in their own unique way these remarkable Russian women construct a fascinating tapestry of a culture at the crossroads of modernity and on the brink of catastrophe The American Historical Association's Guide to Historical Literature

Nineteenth-Century Photographs and Architecture Micheline Nilsen,2017-07-05 Eschewing the limiting idea that nineteenth century architecture photography merely reflects functionality the objective of this collection is to reflect the aesthetic intellectual and cultural concerns of the time The essays hold appeal for social and cultural historians as well as those with an interest in the fields of art history urban geography history of travel and tourism Nineteenth century photographers captured what could be seen and what they wanted to be seen Their images informed of exploration progress heritage and destruction Architecture was a staple subject for the first generation of photographers as it patiently tolerated the long exposures of the early processes During its formative decades photography responded to evolutionary cultural forces of market and artistic production Photographs of architecture reflected a specific political or social context modulated through individual points of view For this reason the examination of each photographic image as a primary visual document and an aesthetic object rather than a technical milestone on a chronological trajectory affords a richer multi faceted approach to the extensive and complex corpus of photographs taken by photographers all over the world This project acknowledges the importance of technique in the early decades of photography but focuses on the thematic content of the material It places the photography of architecture in an international context under the contemporary critical lens sharpened by theoretical and cultural examinations of the topic National Geographic the Old West Stephen Garrison Hyslop,2015 From Lewis and Clark s epic 1803 expedition to the showmanship of Buffalo Bill the story of the American West is epic in scope full of amazing tales of tragedy and triumph Illustrated with photographs and maps this book is a history of a time and place that forever lives in legend Through Soviet Jewish Eyes David Shneer,2011 Most view the relationship of Jews to the Soviet Union through the lens of repression and silence Focusing on an elite group of two dozen Soviet Jewish photographers including Arkady Shaykhet Alexander Grinberg Mark Markov Grinberg Evgenii Khaldei Dmitrii Baltermants and Max Alpert Through Soviet Jewish Eyes presents a different picture These artists participated in a social project they believed in and with which they were emotionally and intellectually invested they were charged by the Stalinist state to tell the visual story of the unprecedented horror we now call the Holocaust These wartime photographers were the first liberators to bear witness with cameras to Nazi atrocities three years before Americans arrived at Buchenwald and Dachau In this passionate work David Shneer tells their stories and highlights their work through their very own images he has amassed never before published photographs from families collectors and private archives Through Soviet Jewish Eyes helps us understand why so many Jews flocked to Soviet photography what their lives and work looked like during the rise of Stalinism during and then after the war and why Jews were the ones charged with documenting the Soviet experiment and then its near destruction at the hands of the Nazis Library Journal ,1980 Islamic Art in the 19th Century Doris Behrens-Abouseif,Stephen Vernoit,2006 This collection of essays provides a timely reassessment of nineteenth century Islamic art and architecture The essays demonstrate that the arts of that era were vibrant and diverse making ingenious use of native traditions and materials or adopting imported conventions and new technologies However traditionalists revivalists and modernists all referred in one way or another to an Islamic heritage whether to reinvent revive or reject it Beginning with an historical introduction and an assessment of changing attitudes towards the visual arts the following essays provide case studies of architecture and art in Ottoman Turkey Egypt Morocco sub Saharan Africa Iran Central Asia India and the Caribbean They examine such issues as patronage sources of artistic inspiration and responses to European art The essays have a relevance and importance for our understanding of the societies and attitudes of that time and have a direct bearing on the more general debate concerning cultural identity and the integration of modern ideas in the Muslim world The book is richly illustrated with very many illustrations in black and white and in full colour Whitaker's Cumulative Book List ,1983 Historical Abstracts ,2000
