The Poetics of Early Russian Literature D.S. Likhachev, 2014-03-13 This translation of Likhachev's Poetika Drevnerusskoy Literatury The Poetics of Early Russian Literature provides a description of the basic themes of early tenth to seventeenth century Russian literature Likhachev compares literary narrative with narrative used in the representational arts Furthermore Likhachev stresses the genre based character of medieval Russian literature and shows how choice of style in medieval times depended on a genre with its own specific etiquette and how innovation was discouraged The text contrasts medieval abstraction and modern realism as Likhachev shows how realisticness gradually breaks through in specific situations such as those of princely crimes Likhachev draws contrasts in three different areas the basic stock of symbols and comparisons used in early Russian literature with those used in modern literature artistic time in folklore and early Russian literature and artistic space in folklore and early Russian literature Likhachev traces the gradual development into modern artistic time through a comparison of the chronicle the first Russian play the seventeenth century writer Avvakum and three modern authors Goncharov Dostoevsky and Saltykov Shchedrin Finally the text gives a justification for studying early literatures This book will be invaluable for students of Russian medieval and comparative literature

Ideology and Rationality in the Soviet Model Kristian Gerner, Stefan Hedlund, 2022-02-13 First published in 1989 Ideology and Rationality in the Soviet Model assumes that since the October Revolution the development of the Soviet Union has essentially been a process of trial and error Economic rationality has been sacrificed to political expedients and the cultural sphere has been put to use as a legitimating and rationalizing device This book analyses the internal logic of this process from the 1917 Bolshevik Revolution to Gorbachev's revolution from above including coverage of the Stalin Khrushchev and Brezhnev eras The book focuses on the structural determinants of the Soviet Model thus seeking to reveal the specific rationalities that characterizes Soviet man Its conclusion casts serious doubt on the likelihood of new policies defeating seven decades of Bolshevik rule and social indoctrination It will be of interest to students of economics political science and history

Larmour, Paul Allen Miller, 2013-12-02 Russian Literature and the Classics attempts to fill a gap To date there has been no book length systematic study of the impact of antiquity on Russian literature and culture While by no means claiming to offer a comprehensive approach the authors focus on various aspects of the influence which the Classics have had on Russian literature at particularly significant junctures the beginning of the nineteenth century the age of the great Russian realist novel the Silver Age Stalin's terror the Thaw after 1956 and the period just before the collapse of Soviet society In their introductory essay the editors offer an overview of the Classical Tradition In it they provide an insight into the contrasting ways in which that tradition manifested itself in the literatures of Western Europe and of Russia

Russian Literature Andrew Baruch Wachtel, Ilya Vinitsky, 2013-05-08 For most English speaking readers Russian literature consists of a small number of individual writers nineteenth century masters such as Dostoevsky Tolstoy and Turgenev or a few well known works Chekhov's plays Brodsky's poems and perhaps Master and Margarita and Doctor Zhivago from the twentieth century The medieval period as well as the brilliant tradition of Russian lyric poetry from the eighteenth century to the present are almost completely terra incognita as are the complex prose experiments of Nikolai Gogol Nikolai Leskov Andrei Belyi and Andrei Platonov Furthermore those writers who have made an impact are generally known outside of the contexts in which they wrote and in which their work has been received In this engaging book Andrew Baruch Wachtel and Ilya Vinitsky provide a comprehensive conceptually challenging history of Russian literature including prose poetry and drama Each of the ten chapters deals with a bounded time period from medieval Russia to the present In a number of cases chapters overlap chronologically thereby allowing a given period to be seen in more than one context To tell the story of each period the authors provide an introductory essay touching on the highpoints of its development and then concentrate on one biography one literary or cultural event and one literary work which serve as prisms through which the main outlines of a given period's development can be discerned Although the focus is on literature individual works lives and events are placed in broad historical context as well as in the framework of parallel developments in Russian art and music
