Ruth, Esther, Song of Songs, and Judith Lisa M. Wolfe,2011-11-01 This lively commentary encompasses four major books focusing on women in the Hebrew Bible and Apocrypha Each section in the volume addresses the biblical text in detail and draws connections from the world of ancient audiences to that of present day readers Wolfe s research is motivated by the usual inquiries of biblical scholarship as well as the questions raised by the many church Bible study groups she has taught Clergy and laity students and scholars will benefit from these contemporarily relevant reflections on Ruth Esther Song of Songs and Judith Ruth The foreign widow who sneaks onto the nighttime threshing floor to find survival for herself and her devastated mother in law Esther The Jewish orphan turned queen who turns Persian banqueting on its head in an effort to defend her people Song of Songs The proud and alluring lover who claims her sexuality as her own and joyfully shares it with her beloved Judith The pious and beautiful widow who lets the enemy commander s appetite become his downfall in order to save her besieged city This volume is an opportunity to engage these women s suspense filled stories which have sustained faith communities since ancient times _____ Lisa Wolfe is also the author of a DVD Bible study series Uppity Women of the Bible Living the Questions 2010 which is a companion to this book To purchase a copy of the DVD series please visit the following link at Living the Questions <http://www.livingthequestions.com/xcart/home.php/cat/461> Believer's Bible Commentary William MacDonald, 2016-08-16 Make Bible study a part of your daily life with the thorough yet easy to read commentary that turns complicated theology into practical understanding The second edition of Believer s Bible Commentary is a one volume guide that helps the average reader develop basic knowledge of the Bible This commentary written by the late William MacDonald explores the deeper meanings of every biblical book and tackles controversial issues from a theologically conservative standpoint while also presenting alternative views Serving as a friendly introduction to Bible study Believer s Bible Commentary gives clarity and context to scripture in easy to understand language Features Introductions notes and bibliographies for each book of the Bible A balanced approach to linguistic studies and useful application Comments on the text are augmented by practical applications of spiritual truths and by a study of typology where appropriate Colorful maps of the Holy Land and other useful study helps Can be used with any Bible translation but is best used with the New King James version Ruth and Esther Bruce G Epperly, 2016-01-12 How does one read the literature of a patriarchal society in a 21st century context Where can one find good role models for girls and women in the Bible All too often these questions are answered by presenting the answers given by patriarchal society and not by looking for liberating examples It is all too easy to let God s message of setting the captives free ring forth but directed to a limited audience But Ruth and Esther provide strong counter examples of women who had to struggle against the cultural norms in order to live and to do great things for their people All too often these women are excluded from our studies or when included are portrayed as subordinate people But Dr Bruce Epperly pastor father grandfather and theology sees them as women of agency and adventure resourceful and proactive women in patriarchal cultures But despite being subject to the apparently arbitrary decisions of males with authority both women were agents in their destiny fulfilling their vocations in their particular culture If you are a Christian pastor or teacher you owe it to those in your circle of influence to let them experience these two Bible books in new ways to see them as liberating documents that let everyone know that God doesn t exclude them From these women of agency and adventure those who find themselves excluded from power can find encouragement to stand up and be the persons of agency and adventure that God created them to be no matter what restrictions others have placed upon them
