largely untold story of how Arabic often understood in Africa and Asia as a language of Islamic ritual and precolonial commerce assumed a transregional role as an anticolonial literary medium in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries By examining how major writers and intellectuals across several generations grappled with the cultural asymmetries imposed by imperial Europe Lienau shows that Arabic as a cosmopolitan interethnic and interreligious language complicated debates over questions of indigeneity religious pluralism counter imperial nationalisms and emerging nation states Unearthing parallels from West Africa to Southeast Asia Sacred Language Vernacular Difference argues that debates comparing the status of Arabic to other languages challenged not only Eurocentric but Arabocentric forms of ethnolinguistic and racial prejudice in both local and global terms Lives of the Great Languages Karla Mallette,2021-09-17 The story of how Latin and Arabic spread across the Mediterranean to create a cosmopolitan world of letters In this ambitious book Karla Mallette studies the nature and behaviors of the medieval cosmopolitan languages of learning classical Arabic and medieval Latin as they crossed the Mediterranean Through anecdotes of relationships among writers compilers translators commentators and copyists Mallette tells a complex story about the transmission of knowledge in the period before the emergence of a national language system in the late Middle Ages and early modernity Mallette shows how the elite languages of learning and culture were only tenuously related to the languages of everyday life These languages took years of study to master marking the passage from intellectual childhood to maturity In a coda to the book Mallette speculates on the afterlife of cosmopolitan languages in the twenty first century the perils of monolingualism and the ethics of language choice The book offers insight for anyone interested in rethinking linguistic and literary tradition the transmission of ideas and cultural expression in an increasingly multilingual world Language, Society and Ideologies in Multilingual Egypt Valentina Serreli,2024-03-18 The book explores the change over time in language society relations in a multilingual periphery of Egypt It examines the role of language ideologies in the construction and negotiation of social identities in the processes of contact maintenance and shift typical of multilingualism Based on extensive fieldwork and interviews it is the first of its kind to portray the inventory of linguistic and accompanying non linguistic behaviors observed within and between different ethnolinguistic groups in the Siwa Oasis It provides first hand information about the linguistic habits of Siwan women an aspect which is generally difficult to access in this gender segregated community The book sheds light on Berber Arabic contact at the core of the Arab world and at a critical time when individual linguistic repertoires are expanding and Arabic is emerging as a powerful resource Modern Arab Journalism Noha Mellor,2007-11-30 Modern Arab Journalism offers a new outlook in studying Arab news media It approaches its subject from an innovative angle asking a series of key questions How is Arab journalism different from or similar to journalism in other countries What defines the tasks of journalists Who has access to this field How is power distributed inside the field of Arab journalism When were the media programs launched at Arab universities and what characterizes them Although the field of Arab journalism has received tremendous attention from the public as well as journalistic circles around the world in recent times this book presents the first detailed exploration of the area opening up a new research agenda and challenging the concepts taken for granted in Arab media scholarship
