Sacred Spaces And Public Quarrels African Cultural Economic Landscapes:

Sacred Spaces and Public Quarrels Paul Tiyaambe Zeleza, Ezekiel Kalipeni, 1999 How do Africans conceive space How are places constructed and imagined How do the conceptions constructions imaginings of spaces and places affect and in turn are affected by social economic and political change These are some of the questions answered in this the first book of its kind to address systematically the themes of of space and spatiality African Cities Professor Garth Myers, 2011-04-14 In this groundbreaking book Garth Myers uses African urban concepts and experiences to speak back to theoretical and practical concerns He argues for a re visioning a seeing again and a revising of how cities in Africa are discussed and written about in both urban studies and African studies Cities in Africa are still either ignored banished to a different other lesser category of not quite cities or held up as examples of all that can go wrong with urbanism in much of the mainstream and even critical urban literature Myers instead encourages African studies and urban studies scholars across the world to engage with the vibrancy and complexity of African cities with fresh eyes Touching on a diverse range of cities across Africa from Zanzibar to Nairobi Cape Town to Mogadishu Kinshasa to Dakar the book uses the author s own research and a close reading of works by other scholars writers and artists to help illuminate what is happening in and across the region s cities

African Urban Economies D. Bryceson, D. Potts, 2005-12-16 Are Africa s most populous and economically dominant cities a force to reckon with in the twenty first century This book analyzes the economies of East and Southern Africa s apex cities probing how they have altered structurally over time and their current sources of economic vitality and vulnerability at local national and international levels Case study chapters focusing on Johannesburg Chitungwiza Gaborone Maputo Dar es Salaam Mombasa Nairobi Kampala and Mogadishu shed new light on contemporary African urban prospects and problems

Making Nations, Creating Strangers Paul Nugent, Daniel Hammett, Sara Dorman, 2007-08-31 Who belongs to the nation How is citizenship defined And why have such identities become so politically explosive in recent years This book explores the instrumental manipulation of citizenship and narrowing definitions of national belonging which refract recent political struggles in Zimbabwe Cote d Ivoire Cameroon Somalia Tanzania and South Africa Conflicts which have arisen over the resources of the post colonial state are increasingly legitimated through recourse to claims of nationhood and citizenship The contributors address the historical roots of national and ethnic identities the material and symbolic resources which are contested within states and the relative importance of elite manipulation and subaltern agency Contested Terrains And Constructed Categories George Clement Bond, 2018-02-19 Contested Terrains and Constructed Categories brings together intellectuals from a variety of fields backgrounds generations and continents to deepen and reinvigo rate the theoretical and intellectual integrity of African studies Building on recent debate within African studies that has revolved around the role of Africanists in the United States as gatekeepers of knowledge about Africa and Africans this volume of interdisciplinary essays focuses on the contested character of the production of knowledge itself In every chapter case studies and ethnographic materials drawn from such regions as South Africa Mozambique Zimbabwe the Malagasy Republic Angola Ghana and Senegal demonstrate the application of theory to concrete situations Black African Literature in English, 1997-1999 Bernth Lindfors, 2003 This volume lists the work produced on anglophone black African literature between 1997 and 1999 This bibliographic work is a continuation of the highly acclaimed earlier volumes compiled by Bernth Lindfors Containing about 10 000 entries some of which are annotated to identify the authors discussed it covers books periodical articles papers in edited collections and selective coverage of other relevant sources Food Insecurity in Informal Settlements in Lilongwe Malawi Emmanuel Chilanga, Liam Riley, 2017-09-26 Although there is widespread food availability in urban areas across the Global South it is not correlated with universal access to adequate amounts of nutritious foods This report is based on a household survey conducted in 2015 in six low income informal areas in Malawis capital city where three quarters of the population live in informal settlements Understanding the dimensions of household food insecurity in these neighbourhoods is critical to sustainable and inclusive growth in Lilongwe The survey findings provide a complementary perspective to the 2008 AFSUN survey conducted in Blantyre which suggested a level of food security in urban Malawi that was probably more typical of peri urban areas where many people farm Given that informal settlements house most of Malawis urban residents the Lilongwe research presents a serious public policy challenge for the countrys leaders Poverty is a profound problem in Malawis rapidly expanding cities Of particular concern is the poor quality of diets among residents of informal settlements Precarity of income reflected in the survey findings of frequent purchasing of staple foods and the need for food sellers to extend credit appears to be a key driver of food insecurity in these communities Economically inclusive growth with better prospects for stable employment and protection for informal sector workers appears to be the surest route to improved urban food security in Malawi Singing Culture Ezra Chitando, 2002 This study examines the historical development social political and economic significance of gospel music in Zimbabwe It approaches music with Christian theological ideas and popular appeal as a cultural phenomenon with manifold implications Applying a history of religious approach to the study of a widespread religious phenomenon the study seeks to link religious studies with popular culture It argues that gospel music represents a valuable entry point into a discussion of contemporary African cultural production Gospel music successfully blends the musical traditions of Zimbabwe influences from other African countries and music styles from other parts of the world BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved Suffering for Territory Donald S. Moore, 2005-09-12 An ethnographic study of Zimbabwe s land occupations that focuses on the effects of spatialized struggles on sovereignty and the nation state Popular Media in Kenyan History George Ogola, 2017-02-17 The book examines popular fiction columns a dominant feature in Kenyan newspapers published in the twentieth century and examines their historical and cultural impact on Kenyan politics The book interrogates how popular cultural forms such as popular fiction engage with and subject the polity to constant critique through informal but widely recognized cultural forms of censure The book further explores the ways we see and experience how the African subaltern through the everyday negotiate their rights and obligations with the self society and the state Through these columns and their writers the book examines the tensions that characterize such relationships how the formal and informal interpenetrate how the past and present are reconciled and how the local and transnational collide but also collude in the making of the Kenyan identity

Circular Migration in Zimbabwe & Contemporary Sub-Saharan Africa Deborah Helen Potts, 2010 The World Bank insists that the urban share of sub Saharan Africa s population is rapidly increasing this study shows that in many countries this is no longer true as migration strategies have adapted in response to economic and political change Circular migration whereby rural migrants do not remain permanently in town has particular significance in the academic literature on development and urbanization in Africa often having negative connotations in southern Africanist studies due to its links with an iniquitous migrant labour system Literature on other African regions often views circular migration more positively This book reviews the current evidence about circular migration and urbanization in sub Saharan Africa The author challenges the dominant view that rural urban migration continues unabated and shows that circular migration has continued and has adapted with faster out migration in the face of declining urban economic opportunities The empirical core of the book illustrates these trends through a detailed examination of the case of Zimbabwe based on the author s longstanding research on Harare The political and economic changes in Zimbabwe since the 1980s transformed Harare from one of the best African cities to live in over this period to one of the worst Harare citizens livelihoods exemplify in microcosm the central theme of the book the re invention of circulation and rural urban links in response to economic change Deborah Potts is a Senior Lecturer in the Geography Department of King s College London She works in the broad research field of urbanization and migration in sub Saharan Africa particularly southern Africa and has conducted research on these themes in Harare in Zimbabwe since 1985 Southern Africa South Africa Botswana Lesotho Swaziland Namibia and Zimbabwe University of Cape Town Press PB
