Scraps of Life Marjorie Agosín, Gay Allison, 1987 Scraps of Life Marjorie Agosin, 1987 Scraps of life Cola Franzen, 1987 Fray Julia Bryan-Wilson, 2021-02 In 1974 women in a feminist consciousness raising group in Eugene Oregon formed a mock organization called the Ladies Sewing Circle and Terrorist Society Emblazoning its logo onto t shirts the group wryly envisioned female collective textile making as a practice that could upend conventions threaten state structures and wreak political havoc Elaborating on this example as a prehistory to the more recent phenomenon of craftivism the politics and social practices associated with handmaking Fray explores textiles and their role at the forefront of debates about process materiality gender and race in times of economic upheaval Closely examining how amateurs and fine artists in the United States and Chile turned to sewing braiding knotting and quilting amid the rise of global manufacturing Julia Bryan Wilson argues that textiles unravel the high low divide and urges us to think flexibly about what the politics of textiles might be Her case studies from the 1970s through the 1990s including the improvised costumes of the theater troupe the Cockettes the braided rag rugs of US artist Harmony Hammond the thread based sculptures of Chilean artist Cecilia Vicuña the small hand sewn tapestries depicting Pinochet's torture and the NAMES Project AIDS Memorial Quilt are often taken as evidence of the inherently progressive nature of handcrafted textiles Fray however shows that such methods are recruited to often ambivalent ends leaving textiles very much in the fray of debates about feminized labor protest cultures and queer identities the malleability of cloth and fiber means that textiles can be activated or stretched in many ideological directions The first contemporary art history book to discuss both fine art and amateur registers of handmaking at such an expansive scale Fray unveils crucial insights into how textiles inhabit the broad space between artistic and political poles high and low untrained and highly skilled conformist and disobedient craft and art Feminist Mothering Andrea O'Reilly, 2008-10-09 Feminist Mothering goes beyond critiques of patriarchal motherhood to locate and investigate feminist maternal practices as sites for women's empowerment and social change The contributors see feminist mothering as practices of mothering that seek to challenge and change the norms of patriarchal motherhood that are limiting and oppressive to women For many women practicing feminist mothering offers a way to disrupt the transmission of sexist and patriarchal values from generation to generation Contributors explore the ways in which women integrate activism paid employment nonsexist childrearing practices and non child centered interests in their lives and other caregivers into their children's lives in order to challenge existing societal inequality and create new egalitarian possibilities for women men and families BOOK JACKET Encyclopedia of Social Movement Media John D. H. Downing, John Derek Hall Downing, 2011 The entries are designed to be relatively brief with clear accessible and current information Happiness Marjorie Agosín, 1993 This is the first collection of stories by acclaimed poet Marjorie Agosín In lyrical pieces more like poems in prose Agosín celebrates both her own ethnic heritage and the universal human truths that demonstrate the myriad ways in which happiness is ultimately revealed to us These pieces are like tiny jewels that reflect dazzlingly a million truths Am ricas Magazine

Desired States Lessie Jo Frazier, 2020-06-12 Desired States challenges the notion that in some cultures sex and sexuality have become privatized and located in individual subjectivity rather than in public political practices and institutions Instead the book contends that desire is a central aspect of political culture Based on fieldwork and archival research Frazier explores the gendered and sexualized dynamics of political culture in Chile an imperialist context asking how people connect with and become mobilized in political projects in some cases or in others become disaffected or are excluded to varying degrees The book situates the state in a rich and changing context of transnational and localized movements imperialist interests geo political conflicts and market forces to explore the broader struggles of desiring subjects especially in those dimensions of life that are explicitly sexual and amorous free love movements marriage the sixties sexual revolution in Cold War contexts prostitution policies ideas about men's gratification the charisma of leaders and sexual domestic violence against women Voices of Resistance Judy Maloof, 2021-05-11 Latin American women were among those who led the suffrage movements of the nineteenth and early twentieth centuries and their opposition to military dictatorships has galvanized more recent political movements throughout the region But because of the continuous attempts to silence them activists have struggled to make their voices heard At the heart of Voices of Resistance are the testimonies of thirteen women who fought for human rights and social justice in their communities Some played significant roles in the Cuban Revolution of 1959 while others organized grassroots resistance to the seventeen year Pinochet dictatorship in Chile Though the women share many objectives they are a diverse group ranging in age from thirty to eighty and coming from varied ethnic and socioeconomic backgrounds The Cuban and Chilean women Judy Maloof interviewed use the narrative form to reinvent themselves Maloof includes narratives from a poet a tobacco worker a political prisoner an artist and a social worker to demonstrate the different faces of their struggle In the process these women were able to begin to put together their fragmented lives Speaking out is both a means for personal liberation and a political act of protest against authoritarian regimes The bond that these women have is not simply that they have suffered they share a commitment to resisting violence and confronting inequities at great personal risk Scraps of Life Marjorie Agosín,1987 Outlaw Christian Jacqueline A. Bussie,2016-04-19 Winner of the 2017 Illumination Award Jacqueline Bussie knows that too many Christians live according to unspoken laws that govern the Christian life 1 Never get angry at God 2 Never doubt 3 Never question 4 Never tell your real story 5 Always speak in clichés about evil and suffering and 6 Always believe hope comes easy for those who truly love God Living according to these rules is killing real Christian life Outlaw Christian proposes a rebellious life giving authentic alternative Through captivating stories and with disarming honesty Bussie gives concrete practical strategies to help readers cultivate hope seek joy practice accompaniment compost their pain and rediscover the spiritual practice of lament Tackling difficult questions without political divisiveness Bussie speaks to both progressive and conservative Christians in ways that unite rather than divide And in doing so she provides a new way to handle the most difficult and troubling questions of life in a broken world that God will never abandon A Companion to Public Art Cher Krause Knight,Harriet F. themselves without a real home in the academic world Tey Diana Rebolledo has been writing about Chicana Latina identity literature discrimination and feminism for more than two decades In this collection of essays she brings together both old and new works to give a state of the moment look at the still largely unanswered questions raised by vigilant women of color throughout the last half of the twentieth century An intimate introductory essay about Rebolledo s personal experiences as the daughter of a Mexican mother and a Peruvian father serves to lay the groundwork for the rest of the volume The essays delve into the historical development of Chicana writing and its early narratives the representation of Chicanas as seen on book covers Chicana feminism being a Chicana critic in the academy Chicana art history and Chicana creativity Rebolledo encourages guerrillera warfare against academia in order to open up the literary canon to Chicana Latina writers who deserve validation
