Faiths on Display Tim Oakes, Donald S. Sutton, 2010-10-16 By providing a unique perspective on China's changing relationship with religion this groundbreaking book explores the role the Chinese state continues to play in religious revival today Over the past several decades China has experienced a rapid expansion of religious spaces and activities More recently a growing middle class urban society has fueled an upsurge in Chinese domestic tourism Faiths on Display challenges the common separation of religious and tourist activities showing how these practices overlap and blend together A group of leading scholars explores the unlikely interaction between these exuberant phenomena finding a surprisingly clear lens through which to view a rapidly transforming society Even the most casual observer is struck by the Chinese rediscovery of traditional culture particularly at revived religious festivals and pilgrimages in suburbs rural areas and at China's margins where religious practices of ethnic minorities attract particular tourist attention A set of fascinating case studies shows how state organizations are helping revive sacred spaces as exploitable sites for tourism development and revenue generation While this may appear to be a straightforward collision of Chinese tradition with modernization the contributors argue that the results of combining religion and tourism offer important insights not only into the practice of religion and the rise of leisure culture in contemporary China but also into the changing and contested nature of state governance The policies of an authoritarian modernizing state obviously influence both religion and tourism but religious practices the book clearly illustrates tend to slip out of state control and tourist tastes push development into directions not anticipated or welcomed by the state Contributions by Kenneth Dean Brian R Dott Xiaofei Kang Charlene Makley Susan K McCarthy Charles F McKhann Tim Oakes Yu Luo Rioux Donald S Sutton Marina Svensson and Rubie Watson Surveying and Mapping ,1960 Films That Work Harder Vinzenz Hediger, Florian Hoof, Yvonne Zimmermann, Scott Anthony, 2025-10-01 What unleashed the forces of global capitalism which continue to shape the world that we live in Economists and economic historians variously point to innovations in logistics and trade the emergence of a new set of business friendly values and the emergence of new forms of applied knowledge in early modernity to solve this riddle This book focuses on the moving image as a factor of economic development In a series of in depth cases studies at the intersection of film and media studies science and technology studies and economic and social history Films That Work Harder The Circulations of Industrial Film presents an in depth global perspective on the dynamic relationship between film industrial organization and economic development Bringing together new research from leading scholars from Europe Asia Australia and North America this book combines the state of the art in the field with an agenda for a future research Provides a in depth global perspective on the complex dynamic relationship of film visual and organizational rhetoric and economic development It brings together the leading scholars in a burgeoning new field of film studies with original work not previously presented elsewhere Contributes towards the further development of an exciting new interdisciplinary research paradigm at the intersection of film studies economic history science and technology studies and the social sciences How Wars End Dan Reiter, 2009-08-17 Why do some countries choose to end wars short of total victory while others fight on sometimes in the face of appalling odds How Wars End argues that two central factors shape war termination decision making information about the balance of power and the resolve of one s enemy and fears that the other side s commitment to abide by a war ending peace settlement may not be credible Dan Reiter explains how information about combat outcomes and other factors may persuade a warring nation to demand more or less in peace negotiations and why a country might refuse to negotiate limited terms and instead tenaciously pursue absolute victory if it fears that its enemy might renege on a peace deal He fully lays out the theory and then tests it on more than twenty cases of war termination behavior including decisions during the American Civil War the two world wars and the Korean War Reiter helps solve some of the most enduring puzzles in military history such as why Abraham Lincoln issued the Emancipation Proclamation why Germany in 1918 renewed its attack in the West after securing peace with Russia in the East and why Britain refused to seek peace terms with Germany after France fell in 1940 How Wars End concludes with a timely discussion of twentieth century American foreign policy framing the Bush Doctrine s emphasis on preventive war in the context of the theory Towards a Sociology of the Cinema (ILS 92) Ian Charles Jarvie, 2014-05-12 First published in 1998 This is Volume IX of nine in the Sociology of
